SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION—Proposing to amend the Nevada Constitution to revise provisions relating to elections involving incumbent justices or judges who are unopposed.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 The Nevada Constitution provides that, in an election, the person having the 2 highest number of votes for an office shall be declared elected. (Nev. Const. Art. 5, 3 § 4)
4 This joint resolution proposes to amend the Nevada Constitution to provide that 5 if an incumbent justice of the Nevada Supreme Court or incumbent judge of the 6 Nevada Court of Appeals or a district court is seeking election to the office that he 7 or she holds and is not opposed by another candidate, then the ballot for that office
8 must offer a voter only the choice to retain or not retain the justice or judge. If the 9 number of votes for retaining the justice or judge is greater than the number of 10 votes against retaining the justice or judge, then the justice or judge shall be 11 declared elected. If the number of votes against retaining the justice or judge is 12 greater than the number of votes for retaining the justice or judge, then: (1) no 13 person shall be declared elected for the office; and (2) the office must be filled in 14 accordance with the existing constitutional provisions for filling a vacancy that 15 occurs before the expiration of a term of office.

1 RESOLVED BY THE SENATE AND ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF

15 RESOLVED, That Section 3A of Article 6 of the Nevada
16 Constitution be amended to read as follows:

17 Sec. 3A. 1. The court of appeals consists of three 18 judges or such greater number as the Legislature may provide 19 by law. If the number of judges is so increased, the Supreme 20 Court must provide by rule for the assignment of each appeal
21 to a panel of three judges for decision.

22 2. After the initial terms, each judge of the court of 23 appeals must be elected by the qualified electors of this State 24 at the general election for a term of 6 years beginning on the 25 first Monday of January next after the election. The initial 26 three judges of the court of appeals must be appointed by the 27 Governor from among three nominees selected for each 28 individual seat by the permanent Commission on Judicial 29 Selection described in subsection 3 of section 20 of this 30 Article. After the expiration of 30 days from the date on 31 which the permanent Commission on Judicial Selection has 32 delivered to the Governor its list of nominees for the initial 33 judges, if the Governor has not made the appointments
34 required by this Section, the Governor shall make no other 35 appointment to any public office until the Governor has 36 appointed a judge from the list submitted. The term of the 37 initial judges is 2 years beginning on the first Monday of 38 January next after the effective date of this Section, and an 39 initial judge may succeed himself. If an incumbent judge
40 seeks election to the office that he or she holds and is not

5 one of the judges of the court of appeals to be chief judge.
6 The chief judge serves a term of 4 years, except that the term
7 of the initial chief judge is 2 years. The chief judge may 8 succeed himself. The chief judge may resign the position of 9 chief judge without resigning from the court of appeals.

10 4. The Supreme Court shall provide by rule for the 11 assignment of one or more judges of the court of appeals to 12 devote a part of their time to serve as supplemental district
13 judges, where needed.
