(h) Any other federal law or order that prohibits tenant 42
evictions due to the COVID-19 pandemic. 43

(B) A landlord may apply to the director of development 44 for a reimbursement under this section if both of the following 45 apply during a calendar year: 46

(1) A tenant was required, but failed, to pay any amount 47 owed to the landlord pursuant to a rental agreement between the 48 tenant and landlord. 49

(2) The landlord was prohibited from evicting that tenant 50 from the residential premises due to a federal eviction 51 moratorium. 52

The application shall be submitted on a form and in the 53 manner prescribed by the director not later than the thirty- 54 first day of January of the year following the calendar year 55 that is the basis of the application. If that deadline is before 56 the effective date of this section, the application shall be 57 submitted not later than thirty days after that effective date. 58
If the landlord owns or operates more than one residential 59 premises, the landlord may submit one application that includes 60 all such residential premises, or the landlord may submit a 61 separate application for each residential premises. The landlord 62 may not submit more than one application for each residential 63 premises for each calendar year. The application shall, at 64 minimum, include information and documentation sufficient to 65 establish that the landlord qualifies for the reimbursement for 66 each residential premises included in the application. The 67 application shall be signed only by the landlord or the 68 landlord's authorized agent. 69

(C) The director shall review and make a determination on 70 each application submitted under division (B) of this section 71 within thirty days of receipt. If the director determines that 72 the landlord qualifies for the reimbursement, the director shall 73 approve the application and make a payment to the landlord. If 74 the director determines that the landlord does not qualify for 75 some or all of the requested reimbursement, the director shall 76 send notice to the landlord denying the application, in whole or 77 in part, and stating the reasons for such denial, and the 78 landlord may appeal such denial in accordance with the rules 79 adopted under division (H) of this section. The director shall 80 approve not more than one reimbursement for a residential 81 premises in each calendar year. 82 section on the basis of a residential premises for each calendar 84 year shall equal the lesser of twelve thousand dollars or the 85 total amount of rent, utilities, penalties, interest, late fees, 86 and any other amount a tenant owed, but failed to pay, to the 87 landlord pursuant to a rental agreement between the landlord and 88 tenant for the lease of the residential premises for the period 89 in which the landlord was prohibited from evicting the tenant 90 due to a federal eviction moratorium during that calendar year, 91 reduced by any amount received during that calendar year by the 92 landlord in satisfaction of the tenant's obligation. 93

(E) The director shall pay a reimbursement approved under 94 this section to the landlord from funds provided through the 95
"Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021," Pub. L. No. 116-260 or 96 the "American Rescue Plan Act of 2021," Pub. L. No. 117-2. 97

(F) If a landlord receives a payment in full or partial 98 satisfaction of a tenant's obligation that is the basis of a 99 reimbursement approved under this section, the landlord shall 100 notify the director of that payment on a form and in the manner 101 prescribed by the director not later than ninety days after the 102 landlord receives such payment. Together with that form, the 103 landlord shall also remit to the director the amount of such 104 payment, up to the amount of the reimbursement. If the director 105 determines that a landlord failed to notify the director of a 106 payment and remit such amount as required by this division, the 107 landlord shall be prohibited from applying for a reimbursement 108 under this section after that determination. 109

(G) No person shall make a false statement for the purpose 110 of obtaining a reimbursement under this section. 111

(H) The director of development may adopt rules in 112 accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code governing the 113 appeals of reimbursement eligibility determinations under 114 division (C) of this section. The decision from such an 115 adjudication may be appealed under section 119.12 of the Revised 116
Code. 117
