Research Analysis

The proposed committee substitute for HB1813 authorizes student teachers who serve full-day internships to receive compensation. The measure also removes the requirement that student teachers complete a certain training before they can participate in a paid internship.

Fiscal Analysis

As written, the measure is not anticipated to result in a negative fiscal impact on the state budget or appropriations. However there may be an additional impact on the district-level if the district chooses to compensate student teachers.
