Fiscal Analysis

Per OSDE:

OSDE is currently maintaining an online tool (okteachermatch.com) to pair teachers with job openings in Oklahoma public school districts. School districts can post job openings online and certified educators can see vacancies that match their credentials. Only those with a teaching certificate can access the tool through OSDE's Single Sign On. However, new features must be added to this online tool to meet the requirements of this bill, including making it publicly available and creating ability to submit resumes or other documents

In consultation with the vendor who developed and maintains the Oklahoma Educator Credentialing System (OECS) – which houses okteachermatch.com – OSDE estimates the cost to be approximately $10,000 to make modifications to the current system to include all information required by the bill
