

1 B. The final disposition order for a drug court case shall be 2 filed with the judge assigned to the case, and shall indicate the 3 sentence specified in the written plea agreement. A copy of the 4 final disposition order for the drug court case shall also be filed
5 in the original criminal case file under the control of the court
6 clerk which is open to the public for inspection. Original criminal 7 case files which are under the control of the court clerk and which 8 are subsequently assigned to the drug court program shall be marked 9 with a pending notation until a final disposition order is entered 10 in the drug court case. After an offender completes the program, 11 the drug court case file shall be sealed by the judge and may be 12 destroyed after ten (10) years. The district attorney shall have 13 access to sealed drug court case files without a court order.

14 C. A record pertaining to an offense resulting in a successful
15 completion of a drug court program shall not, without the offender's 16 consent in writing, be used in any way which could result in the 17 denial of any employee benefit.

18 D. Successful completion of a drug court program shall not 19 prohibit any administrative agency from taking disciplinary action
20 against any licensee or from denying a license or privilege as may 21 be required by law.

22 E. When the offender has successfully completed the drug court 23 program, the drug court judge shall have the discretion to expressly 24 waive all or part of the court costs and fees, driver license

1 reinstatement fees, if applicable, and fines associated with the 2 criminal case if, in the opinion of the drug court judge, continued
3 payment of the court costs, fees and fines by the offender would 4 create a financial hardship for the offender, including specifically 5 the discretion to waive any requirement that fines and costs be 6 satisfied by a person prior to that person being eligible for a 7 provisional driver license pursuant to Section 6-212 of Title 47 of 8 the Oklahoma Statutes.

9 SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2022.
