20 b. The court shall not be required to appoint an attorney 21 for any person other than a parent, or legal guardian

14 court and participate further in the proceedings to the degree 15 appropriate for adequately representing the interests of the child.
16 A child is a party to all deprived proceedings and is therefore able 17 to participate as fully as the parents and the district attorney in 18 all aspects of the proceedings including, but not limited to, voir 19 dire, cross-examination, the subpoena of witnesses, and opening and 20 closing statements.

21 3. The attorney shall be allowed a reasonable fee for such 22 services as determined by the court.

21 operating manual for guardians ad litem which shall include, but not 22 be limited to, legal obligations and responsibilities, information

4 d. the child is not capable of achieving stability if 5 placed in a family setting, or

6 e. the child is an unaccompanied, refugee minor and the 8 legal issues or compelling foreign policy issues; or

9 3. The state has not provided to the family of the child, 10 consistent with the time period in the state case plan, services 11 that the state deems necessary for the safe return of the child to 12 the child's home, if reasonable efforts are required to be made with 13 respect to the child.

15 amended to read as follows:

16 Section 1-4-904. A. A court shall not terminate the rights of 17 a parent to a child unless:

18 1. The child has been adjudicated to be deprived either prior 19 to or concurrently with a proceeding to terminate parental rights; 20 and

21 2. Termination of parental rights is in the best interests of 22 the child.

23 B. The court may terminate the rights of a parent to a child 24 based upon the following legal grounds:

2 voluntarily agrees to termination of parental rights.

3           a. The voluntary consent for termination of parental 4 rights shall be signed under oath and recorded before 5 a judge of a court of competent jurisdiction and 9 parent or that the consent was translated into a 10 language that the parent understood.

11          b. A voluntary consent for termination of parental rights

13 except upon clear and convincing evidence that the 14 consent was executed by reason of fraud or duress.

15          c. However, notwithstanding the provisions in this 16 paragraph, in any proceeding for a voluntary 17 termination of parental rights to an Indian child, the 18 consent of the parent may be withdrawn for any reason 19 at any time prior to the entry of a final decree of 8 intention to resume physical custody of the child or 9 to make permanent legal arrangements for the care of 10 the child;

11 5. A finding that:

12 a. the parent has failed to correct the condition which 13 led to the deprived adjudication of the child, and 14 b. the parent has been given at least three (3) months to 15 correct the condition;

16 6. A finding that:

17 a. the rights of the parent to another child have been 18 terminated, and

2 neglected to contribute to the support of the child:

3 a. as specified by an order entered by a court of 4 competent jurisdiction adjudicating the duty, amount 5 and manner of support, or

6 b. where an order of child support does not exist, 7 according to the financial ability of the parent to 8 contribute to the child's support.

9 Incidental or token support shall not be construed or considered in 10 establishing whether a parent has maintained or contributed to the 11 support of the child;

17 of age,
- 18 d. child abuse or neglect,

23 perpetrated by the parent whose rights are sought to be terminated; 24

1 12. A finding that the parent whose rights are sought to be 2 terminated is incarcerated, and the continuation of parental rights 3 would result in harm to the child based on consideration of the 4 following factors, among others:

- 5 a. the duration of incarceration and its detrimental 6 effect on the parent/child relationship,
- 7 b. any previous convictions resulting in involuntary

21 13. A finding that all of the following exist:

- 22 a. the parent has a diagnosed cognitive disorder, an 23 extreme physical incapacity, or a medical condition, 24 including behavioral health, which renders the parent

1 incapable of adequately and appropriately exercising
2 parental rights, duties, and responsibilities within a 3 reasonable time considering the age of the child, and 4 b. allowing the parent to have custody would cause the 5 child actual harm or harm in the near future.

6 A parent's refusal or pattern of noncompliance with treatment,
7 therapy, medication, or assistance from outside the home can be used 8 as evidence that the parent is incapable of adequately and 9 appropriately exercising parental rights, duties, and 10 responsibilities.

11 A finding that a parent has a diagnosed cognitive disorder, an 12 extreme physical incapacity, or a medical condition, including

14 itself deprive the parent of parental rights;

17 has been the subject of a previous deprived
18 adjudication of this child or a sibling of this child, 19 and

20 b. the parent has been given an opportunity to correct 21 the conditions which led to the determination of the 22 initial deprived child;

23 15. A finding that there exists a substantial erosion of the 24 relationship between the parent and child caused at least in part by

1 the parent's serious or aggravated neglect of the child, physical or 2 sexual abuse or exploitation of the child, a prolonged and 3 unreasonable absence of the parent from the child or an unreasonable 4 failure by the parent to visit or communicate in a meaningful way 5 with the child;

6 16. A finding that a child ~~four (4) years of age or older at~~

8 ~~Department of Human Services for fifteen (15) of the most recent~~ 9 ~~twenty-two (22) months preceding the filing of the petition or~~ 10 ~~motion for termination of parental rights and the child cannot, at~~ 11 ~~the time of the filing of the petition or motion, be safely returned~~ 12 ~~to the home of the parent. For purposes of this paragraph, a child~~ 13 ~~shall be considered to have entered foster care on the earlier of:~~

- 14 a. ~~the adjudication date, or~~
- 15 b. ~~the date that is sixty (60) days after the date on~~ 16 ~~which the child is removed from the home~~

17 has been in foster care for not less than fifteen (15) months of the 18 most recent twenty-two (22) months and that the parent has not 19 corrected the circumstances which led the child to be adjudicated to 20 be a deprived child, unless:

- 21 a. a parent has made substantial progress toward 22 eliminating the problem that caused the child's 23 placement in foster care, it is likely that the child 24 will be able to safely return to the parent's home

- 1           within three (3) months, and the child's return to the 2           parent's home will be in the child's best interests, 3       b. the child has a close and positive relationship with a 4           parent and a permanent plan that does not include 5           termination of parental rights will provide the most 6           secure and appropriate placement for the child, 7       c. the child is fourteen (14) years of age or older, is 8           firmly opposed to termination of parental rights, and 9           is likely to disrupt an attempt to place the child 10           with an adoptive family,
11       d. a parent is terminally ill but in remission, does not 12           want parental rights to be terminated, and has 13           designated a guardian for the child, 14       e. the child is not capable of functioning if placed in a 15           family setting. In such a case, the court shall 16           reevaluate the status of the child every ninety (90) 17           days unless there is a final court determination that 18           the child cannot be placed in a family setting, 19       f. the child is an unaccompanied, refugee minor and the 20           case involves international legal issues or compelling 21           foreign policy issues,
22       g. adoption is not an appropriate plan for the child, 23       h. the parent's incarceration or participation in a 24           court-ordered residential substance abuse treatment

1 program constitutes the primary factor in the child's 2 placement in substitute care and termination of 3 parental rights is not in the child's best interest,

4 i. for purposes of this paragraph, a child shall be 5 considered to have entered foster care on the earlier 6 of:

7 (1) the adjudication date, or

8 (2) the date that is sixty (60) days after the date 9 on which the child is removed from the home, or 10 j. the court may also consider:

11 (1) circumstances of the failure of the parent to 12 develop and maintain a parental bond with the 13 child in a meaningful, supportive manner, and

14 (2) whether allowing the parent to have custody would 15 likely cause the child actual serious
16 psychological harm or harm in the near future as 17 a result of the removal of the child from the 18 substitute caregiver due to the existence of a 19 strong and positive bond between the child and 20 caregiver; and

21 17. A finding that a child younger than four (4) years of age 22 at the time of placement has been placed in foster care by the 23 Department of Human Services for at least six (6) of the twelve (12) 24 months preceding the filing of the petition or motion for

1 termination of parental rights and the child cannot be safely
2 returned to the home of the parent.

3 a. For purposes of this paragraph, a child shall be
4 considered to have entered foster care on the earlier 5 of:

- 6 (1) the adjudication date, or
7 (2) the date that is sixty (60) days after the date
8 on which the child is removed from the home.

9 b. For purposes of this paragraph, the court may 10 consider:

- 11 (1) circumstances of the failure of the parent to 12 develop and maintain a parental bond with the 13 child in a meaningful, supportive manner, and
14 (2) whether allowing the parent to have custody would
15 likely cause the child actual serious
16 psychological harm or harm in the near future as 17 a result of the removal of the child from the 18 substitute caregiver due to the existence of a 19 strong, positive bond between the child and 20 caregiver.

21 C. An order directing the termination of parental rights is a 22 final appealable order.

23 D. The provisions of this section shall not apply to adoption 24 proceedings and actions to terminate parental rights which do not

1 involve a petition for deprived status of the child. Such 2 proceedings and actions shall be governed by the Oklahoma Adoption 3 Code.

4 SECTION 7. AMENDATORY 12 O.S. 2021, Section 591, is 5 amended to read as follows:

6 Section 591. The trial by jury may be waived by the parties, in
