12 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

13 SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
14 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 521.3 of Title 57, unless there
15 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

16 A. Upon the filing of a petition, a court may terminate a term
17 of probation and discharge the defendant at any time earlier than 18 that provided in the original sentence if warranted by the conduct
19 of the defendant and if the defendant has completed at least one (1)
20 year of the probationary term.

21 B. A petition for early termination of a probationary term may 22 be filed by either the defendant or prosecuting entity. The 23 petition for early termination of a probationary term shall include:

24 1. The charges the defendant was convicted of;

1 2. The terms of the defendant's sentence;

2 3. Whether the defendant has completed all other terms of the
3 defendant's sentence, including the payment of restitution, fines,
4 court costs, and fees, except for the full term of probation;

5 4. Whether the defendant has completed at least one (1) full
6 year of probation; and

7 5. Any relevant information concerning the reason or reasons
8 that early termination of the term of probation is warranted by the 9 conduct of the defendant.

10 C. If a petition for early termination of a probationary term
11 is filed by the defendant, the original prosecuting entity shall 12 have thirty (30) days to file a response to the petition to provide 13 evidence the prosecuting entity determines is relevant to the 14 decision of the court.

15 D. No earlier than forty-five (45) days after the filing of the 16 petition, the court shall hold an evidentiary hearing in which the 17 court shall take testimony from the parties and consider any other
18 evidence the court determines to be relevant.

19 E. Upon the issuance of an order terminating the term of 20 probation, the defendant shall no longer be charged administrative 21 or supervision fees but shall be liable for any fees accrued up to 22 the issuance of an order terminating the term of probation.

23 SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2024.
