- C. A landlord may submit a request for financial assistance to the Agency in accordance with rules adopted by the Agency.
- 5 Financial assistance to landlords under the program shall be limited 6 to:
 - 1. Unpaid rent and eviction and property damage costs for rental or lease agreements entered into with eligible tenants;
 - 2. Unpaid rent and eviction and property damage costs incurred during the first twelve (12) months of any rental or lease agreement;
- 3. A maximum of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) per eligible tenant; and
 - 4. A maximum of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) per landlord.
 - D. 1. Financial assistance shall be contingent on the landlord's submission of a complete and accurate reimbursement request, verification of unpaid rent and eviction or property damage claims by the Agency or the program provider described in subsection E of this section, and cooperation with the collection of data to measure program performance outcomes as described in subsection E of this section.
- 2. Before financial assistance is provided to a landlord under the program, the landlord shall provide to the Agency or the program provider described in subsection E of this section a report

1 containing any information required by rules adopted by the Agency. The report shall include but not be limited to:

- information regarding eligible tenants with which the a. landlord entered into tenancy agreements including, but not limited to, the length of tenancy and reason for termination of tenancy, if applicable, and
- b. amounts of unpaid rent and eviction and property damage costs not reimbursed to the landlord under the program.
- Ε. The Agency may contract with a public or private provider to administer the program within an individual county or region of this state and to distribute financial assistance to eligible landlords as provided in this section. The Agency shall establish criteria for proposals, prepare and publish requests for proposals, receive proposals, and award contracts to eligible providers. Eligible providers shall:
 - have experience placing persons in low-income a. households into permanent housing,
 - have experience working collaboratively with local b. landlords and service providers, and
 - C. demonstrate the organizational capacity to administer the program including, but not limited to, the ability to track data and performance measure outcomes and to
