33 or any domestic animal for a period of five years following entry of the conviction.

34 (b) In addition to any other penalty imposed by law, a person convicted of violating ORS 167.322,

40 (2) Except as provided in subsection (5)(d) of this section, a person who possesses or resides
41 with an animal in violation of this section commits a Class [C] B misdemeanor. When a person is 42 convicted of possessing or residing with an animal in violation of this section, as part of the sen-
43 tence the court may order the removal of that animal from the person’s possession or residence 44 and as a condition of the person’s probation may prohibit the person from possessing or residing 45 with any animal of the same genus that the person unlawfully possessed or resided with under this

1 section or against which the underlying violation of ORS 167.315, 167.320, 167.322, 167.325, 167.330, 2 167.333, 167.340, 167.355, 167.365 or 167.428 or this section was committed.

3 (3) The [animal possession] prohibition described in subsection (1) of this section does not apply 4 to a person's first conviction if the person is the owner of a commercial livestock operation and the 5 underlying violation of ORS 167.315, 167.320, 167.322, 167.325, 167.330, 167.333, 167.340, 167.355, 6 167.365 or 167.428 was committed against livestock.

7 (4)(a) A person subject to [an animal possession] a prohibition described in subsection (1) of this 8 section may file a motion with the sentencing court requesting a waiver of the prohibition. The 9 person must file a sworn affidavit in support of the motion stating that:

10 (A) The person's conviction leading to the [possession] prohibition involved only livestock;

11 (B) During the two years before the conviction triggering the prohibition, the person was the 12 owner of a commercial livestock operation;

13 (C) The person has not been convicted, in the previous five years, of a crime involving animals 14 or domestic violence or a crime where the victim was under 18 years of age; and 15 (D) The person's conviction was the result of:

16 (i) Criminal liability for the conduct of another person under ORS 161.155 (2)(c);

17 (ii) Criminal liability of a corporation as described in ORS 161.170, and the person is a corpo-

19 (iii) Animal neglect as described in ORS 167.325 or 167.330 and the person's criminal conduct 20 was not knowing or intentional.

21 (b) When a person files a motion and affidavit described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the 22 sentencing court shall hold a hearing. At the hearing, the sentencing court shall grant the motion 23 if the person proves by clear and convincing evidence that:

24 (A) Continued enforcement of the prohibition against possessing or residing with livestock 25 would result in substantial economic hardship that cannot otherwise be mitigated;

26 (B) The person no longer poses any risk to animals; and

27 (C) The person is capable of providing and willing to provide necessary, adequate and appro-28 priate levels of care for all livestock that would come within the person's custody or control if the 29 petition is granted.

30 (c) When deciding a motion filed under this subsection, the sentencing court may consider the 31 person's financial circumstances and mental health in determining whether the person is capable of 32 adequately caring for livestock.

33 (d) If the sentencing court grants the motion described in this subsection, the waiver of the 34 prohibition against possessing or residing with animals shall apply only to livestock. The sentenc-35 ing court shall further order that for five years the person must consent to reasonable inspections
36 by law enforcement and the United States Department of Agriculture to ensure the welfare of the 37 livestock under the person's custody or control. A refusal to consent to a reasonable inspection de-38 scribed in this paragraph is contempt of court and, if the person is found in contempt, shall result 39 in the sentencing court revoking the waiver of the [possession] prohibition.

40 (e) As used in this subsection, "commercial livestock operation" means a licensed business en-41 gaged in the raising, breeding or selling of livestock for profit.

42 (5)(a) A person subject to a prohibition described in subsection (1) of this section may file
43 a motion with the sentencing court requesting a termination of the prohibition, a reduction 44 in the length of the prohibition or an amendment of the prohibition to exclude certain cate- 45 gories of animals or certain specific animals, unless the underlying conviction was for in-

1 tentional or knowing conduct. The person must:

2 (A) File a sworn affidavit in support of the motion stating that, apart from the underly-
3 ing offense, the person has not been previously convicted of a violation of ORS 167.315,
4 167.333, 167.340, 167.355, 167.365 or 167.428, of a misdemeanor or a felony under ORS 167.320,
5 167.325 or 167.330, or of a violation of the equivalent laws of another jurisdiction.

6 (B) Serve a copy of the motion upon the office of the prosecuting attorney who prose-
7 cuted the offense.

8 (b) When a person files a motion described in paragraph (a) of this subsection, the sen-
9 tencing court shall hold a hearing. At the hearing, the sentencing court shall consider:

10 (A) The nature of the underlying offense;

11 (B) The number of animals involved in the underlying offense;

12 (C) The degree of violence and criminal intent involved in the underlying offense;

13 (D) Other criminal and relevant noncriminal behavior of the person both before and after 14 the underlying conviction;

15 (E) The period of time during which the person has not reoffended;

16 (F) Whether the person has successfully completed a court-approved treatment program 17 related to animal care and welfare; and

18 (G) Any other relevant factors.

19 (c) If, after a hearing described in paragraph (b) of this subsection, the sentencing court 20 is satisfied by clear and convincing evidence that the person no longer poses any risk to 21 animals under the person's custody or control, the sentencing court shall:

22 (A) Enter an order terminating the prohibition, reducing the length of the prohibition,
23 amending the prohibition to exclude certain categories of animals or amending the prohibi-
24 tion to exclude certain specific animals.

25 (B) Order that, for five years, the person must consent to reasonable inspections by law
26 enforcement and the United States Department of Agriculture to ensure the welfare of any 27 animals under the person's custody or control. A refusal to consent to a reasonable in- 28 spection described in this subparagraph constitutes contempt of court and, if the person is 29 found in contempt, shall result in the sentencing court revoking the order described in sub- 30 paragraph (A) of this paragraph.

31 (d) A person whose motion under this subsection has been granted and who possesses
32 or resides with an animal in violation of an order described in paragraph (c)(A) of this sub- 33 section commits a Class A misdemeanor. If a person is convicted of a violation described in 34 this paragraph, as part of the sentence the sentencing court may order the removal of the 35 animal from the person's possession or residence.

36 SECTION 8. ORS 167.350 is amended to read:

37 167.350. (1)(a) In addition to and not in lieu of any other sentence it may impose, a court [may] 38 shall require a defendant convicted under ORS 167.315 to 167.333, 167.340, 167.355 or 167.365 to 39 forfeit any rights of the defendant in the animal subjected to the violation, and to repay the rea-
40 sonable costs incurred by a government agency, a humane investigation agency or its agent or a 41 person prior to judgment in caring for each animal associated with the criminal proceeding.

42 (b) If a government agency or a humane investigation agency or its agent provides care and 43 treatment for impounded or seized animals, a court that orders a defendant to repay reasonable 44 costs of care under paragraph (a) of this subsection may not reduce the incurred cost amount based 45 on the agency having received donations or other funding for the care.

1 (2)(a) When the court orders the defendant's rights in the animal to be forfeited, the court may 2 further order that those rights be given over to an appropriate person or agency demonstrating a 3 willingness to accept and care for the animal or to the county or an appropriate animal care agency 4 for further disposition in accordance with accepted practices for humane treatment of animals. The 5 court may not transfer the defendant's rights in the animal to any person who resides with the de-6 fendant.

7 (b) This subsection does not limit the right of the person or agency to whom rights are granted
8 to resell or otherwise make disposition of the animal. A transfer of rights under this subsection 9 constitutes a transfer of ownership. The court shall require a person to whom rights are granted to 10 execute an agreement to provide minimum care to the animal. The agreement must indicate that 11 allowing the defendant to possess or reside with the animal constitutes a crime.

12 (3) In addition to and not in lieu of any other sentence it may impose, a court may order the 13 owner or person having custody of an animal to repay any reasonable costs incurred by a govern-14 ment agency, a humane investigation agency or its agent or a person in providing minimum care to 15 the animal that are not included in a repayment order under subsection (1) of this section.

16 (4) A court may order a person convicted under ORS 167.315 to 167.333, 167.340, 167.355, 167.365 17 or 167.428 to participate in available animal cruelty prevention programs or education programs, or 18 both, or to obtain psychological counseling for treatment of mental health disorders that, in the 19 court's judgment, contributed to the commission of the crime. The person shall bear any costs in-20 curred by the person for participation in counseling or treatment programs under this subsection.

21 (5) ORS 131.550 to 131.600 do not apply to the forfeiture of an animal subjected to a violation
22 of ORS 167.315 to 167.333, 167.340, 167.355, 167.365 or 167.428. Any such animal is subject to forfei-
23 ture as provided in ORS 167.347 and subsections (1) to (3) of this section or, if the animal is a 24 fighting bird, as provided in ORS 167.435.

25 SECTION 9. ORS 105.597 is amended to read:

26 105.597. In addition to any places described in ORS 105.555, the following are declared to be
