22 (b) Employment.--

23 (1) No employer may discharge, threaten, refuse to hire

1 or otherwise discriminate or retaliate against an employee
2 regarding an employee's compensation, terms, conditions,
3 location or privileges solely on the basis of such employee's 4 status as an individual who is certified to use medical 5 marijuana.

6 (1.1) No employer may discharge, threaten, refuse to 7 hire or otherwise discriminate or retaliate against an 8 employee who is certified to use medical marijuana for 9 testing positive for marijuana on a drug test unless the 10 employee is applying for a job for which working while under 11 the influence of medical marijuana creates an unreasonable 12 safety risk or the employee's conduct falls below the 13 standard of care normally accepted for that position.

14 (2) Nothing in this act shall require an employer to 15 make any accommodation of the use of medical marijuana on the 16 property or premises of any place of employment. This act 17 shall in no way limit an employer's ability to discipline an 18 employee for being under the influence of medical marijuana 19 in the workplace or for working while under the influence of 20 medical marijuana when the employee's conduct falls below the 21 standard of care normally accepted for that position.

22 (3) Nothing in this act shall require an employer to 23 commit any act that would put the employer or any person
24 acting on its behalf in violation of Federal law.

25 (b.1) Civil action.--

26 (1) A person who alleges a violation of subsection (b)
27 may bring a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction
28 for appropriate injunctive relief or damages, or both, within 29 180 days after the occurrence of the alleged violation.

30 (2) It shall be a defense to an action under this

1 subsection if the defendant proves by a preponderance of the 2 evidence that the action by the employer occurred for 3 separate and legitimate reasons which are not merely 4 pretextual.

5 (3) A court, in rendering a judgment in an action
6 brought under this subsection, may order, as the court
7 considers appropriate, reinstatement of the employee, payment 8 of back wages, full reinstatement of fringe benefits and 9 seniority rights, actual damages or any combination of these 10 remedies. A court may also award the plaintiff all or a 11 portion of the costs of litigation, including reasonable 12 attorney fees and witness fees, if the plaintiff prevails in
