2 act relating to insurance; amending, revising, and 3 consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of 4 insurance companies, and the regulation, supervision, and 5 protection of home and foreign insurance companies, Lloyds

17 the merger of the reciprocal insurer with and into the stock 18 company or by any other means approved by the commissioner.

19 Section 802-B. Adoption of plan of conversion.

20 (a) Plan of conversion.--No plan of conversion may become 21 effective unless the reciprocal insurer seeking to convert to a 22 stock company shall have adopted, by the affirmative vote of not 23 less than two-thirds of the subscribers' advisory committee or 24 any equivalent governing body of the reciprocal insurer, or in 25 the absence of a governing body, by the board of directors or 26 governing body of the attorney for the reciprocal insurer, a 27 plan of conversion consistent with the requirements of sections 28 803-B and 804-B. At any time before approval of a plan by the 29 commissioner, the reciprocal insurer, by the affirmative vote of 30 not less than two-thirds of its subscribers' advisory committee

1 or any equivalent governing body of the reciprocal insurer or,
2 in the absence of a governing body, by the board of directors or 3 governing body of the attorney for the reciprocal insurer, may 4 amend or withdraw the plan.

5 (b) Documents.--Before a reciprocal insurer's eligible 6 subscribers may vote on approval of a plan, the reciprocal 7 insurer or the attorney shall file all of the following 8 documents with the commissioner within 90 days after adoption of 9 the plan:

10 (1) The plan of conversion, including the independent 11 evaluation of pro forma market value required under section 12 803-B(d).

13 (2) The form of notice required under subsection (f).

14 (3) The form of proxy to be solicited from eligible 15 subscribers under subsection (g).

16 (4) The form of notice required under section 808-B to 17 persons whose policies are issued after adoption of the plan, 18 but before its effective date.

19 (5) The proposed articles of incorporation and bylaws of 20 the stock company.

21 (6) The acquisition of control statement, as required 22 under section 1402.

23 (7) Such other information as the commissioner may 24 request.

25 Upon filing of the documents required under this subsection with 26 the commissioner, the reciprocal insurer shall send to eligible 27 subscribers a notice advising eligible subscribers of the 28 adoption and filing of the plan, their ability to provide the 29 commissioner and the reciprocal insurer with comments on the 30 plan within 30 days of the date of the notice and the procedure

1 for making comments.

2 (c) Notice and approval of plan.--The commissioner shall 3 immediately give written notice to the reciprocal insurer of any 4 decision and, in the event of disapproval, a statement in detail
5 of the reasons for the decision. The commissioner shall approve 6 the plan if the commissioner finds each of the following:

7 (1) The plan complies with this article.

8 (2) The plan will not prejudice the interests of the 9 subscribers.

10 (3) The plan's method of allocating subscription rights 11 is fair and equitable.

12 (d) Experts.--The commissioner may retain, at the reciprocal 13 insurer's expense, any qualified expert not otherwise a part of 14 the commissioner's staff to assist in reviewing the plan and the 15 independent evaluation of the pro forma market value required
16 under section 803-B(d).

17 (e) Hearing.--The commissioner may order a hearing on 18 whether the terms of the plan comply with this article after 19 giving written notice to the reciprocal insurer and other 20 interested persons, all of whom have the right to appear at the 21 hearing.

22 (f) Notice of subscribers' meeting.--All eligible 23 subscribers shall be sent notice of the subscribers' meeting to 24 vote upon the plan. The notice shall briefly, but fairly 25 describe the proposed conversion plan, shall inform the 26 subscriber of his right to vote upon the plan and shall be sent 27 to each subscriber's last known address, as shown on the 28 reciprocal insurer's records, at least 30 days before the time 29 fixed for the meeting. If the reciprocal insurer holds an annual 30 meeting of subscribers and the meeting to vote upon the plan is

1 held at such annual meeting, only a combined notice of meeting
2 is required.

3 (g) Voting.--The plan shall be voted upon by eligible
4 subscribers and shall be adopted upon receiving the affirmative
5 vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast by eligible 6 subscribers. Unless the governing documents of the reciprocal 7 insurer establish a different date, the record date for 8 determining subscribers eligible to vote on the plan shall be 9 the date of adoption of the plan or such other date as shall be 10 set forth in the plan which shall be no less than 30 nor more 11 than 90 days before the date of the meeting. Eligible 12 subscribers entitled to vote upon the proposed plan may vote in 13 person or by proxy. Unless the governing documents of the 14 reciprocal insurer provide otherwise, each eligible subscriber 15 may cast one vote.

16 (h) Adoption of plan.--A merger of the reciprocal insurer
17 with and into the stock company shall be approved at the meeting
18 of the subscribers called for the purpose of adopting the plan 19 of conversion and shall require for adoption or ratification the 20 affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast by 21 eligible subscribers.

22 (i) Documents to be filed following approval.--Within 30 23 days after the eligible subscribers have approved the plan, the 24 stock company shall file all of the following documents with the 25 commissioner:

26 (1) The minutes of the meeting of the eligible 27 subscribers at which the plan was approved.

28 (2) The articles of incorporation and bylaws of the 29 stock company.

30 (3) Articles of merger for the merger of the reciprocal

1 insurer with and into the stock company. The plan shall be 2 consummated upon the filing such articles of merger.

3 Section 803-B. Contents of plan of conversion.

4 (a) Contents.--The following provisions shall be included in 5 a plan of conversion:

6 (1) The reasons for proposed conversion.

7 (2) The effect of conversion on existing policies,
8 including all of the following:

9 (i) A provision that all policies in force on the 10 effective date of conversion continue to remain in force 11 under the terms of the policies, except that the 12 following rights, to the extent they existed in the 13 reciprocal insurer, shall be extinguished on the 14 effective date of the conversion:

15 (A) Any voting rights of the subscribers
16 provided under the policies.

17 (B) Except as provided under subparagraph (ii), 18 any right to share in the surplus of the reciprocal 19 insurer provided for under the policies.

20 (C) Any assessment provisions provided for under 21 the policies.

22 (ii) Except as provided in subparagraph (iii), a 23 provision that holders of participating policies in 24 effect on the date of conversion continue to have a right 25 to receive dividends as provided in the participating 26 policies, if any.

27 (iii) A provision that upon the renewal date of a 28 participating policy, the stock company may issue the 29 insured a nonparticipating policy as a substitute for the 30 participating policy.

1 (3) The grant of subscription rights to eligible
2 subscribers, including all of the following:

3 (i) A provision that each eligible subscriber is to 4 receive, without payment, nontransferable subscription 5 rights to purchase a portion of the capital stock of the 6 stock company and that, in the aggregate, all eligible 7 subscribers shall have the right, prior to the right of 8 any other party, to purchase 100% of the capital stock of 9 the stock company, exclusive of any shares of capital
10 stock required to be sold or distributed to the holders
11 of surplus notes or any shares of capital stock required 12 to be sold or distributed to subscribers under the 13 reciprocal insurer's constituent documents, if any.

14 (ii) As an alternative to subscription rights in the 15 stock company, the plan may provide that each eligible 16 subscriber is to receive, without payment, 17 nontransferable subscription rights to purchase a portion 18 of the capital stock of one of the following:

19 (A) the attorney or a holding company that will 20 act as the holding company for the stock company and,
21 in either case, will hold all the stock of the stock 22 company; or

23 (B) an insurance company or other corporation
24 that will purchase all the stock of or otherwise 25 acquire the stock company.

26 (iii) A provision that the subscription rights shall 27 be allocated in whole shares among the eligible 28 subscribers using a fair and equitable formula. This 29 formula may, but need not, take into account how the 30 different classes of policies of the eligible subscribers

1 contributed to the surplus of the reciprocal insurer or 2 any other factors that may be fair or equitable.

3 (b) Oversubscription.--The plan shall provide a fair and 4 equitable means for allocating shares of capital stock in the 5 event of an oversubscription to shares by eligible subscribers 6 exercising subscription rights received under subsection (a) (3).

7 (c) Shares not subscribed.--The plan shall provide that any 8 shares of capital stock not subscribed to by eligible 9 subscribers exercising subscription rights received under 10 subsection (a) (3) shall be sold in a public offering through an 11 underwriter or in any other transaction approved by the 12 commissioner. If the number of shares of capital stock not 13 subscribed by eligible subscribers is so small in number or 14 other factors exist that do not warrant the time or expense of a 15 public offering, the plan of conversion may provide for sale of 16 the unsubscribed shares through a private placement or other 17 alternative method approved by the commissioner that is fair and 18 equitable to eligible subscribers.

19 (d) Market value of capital stock.--The plan shall set the 20 total price of the capital stock equal to the estimated pro 21 forma market value of the stock company as successor to the 22 reciprocal insurer based upon an independent evaluation by a 23 qualified expert. This pro forma market value may be that value
24 that is estimated to be necessary to attract full subscription 25 for the shares, as indicated by the independent evaluation and 26 may be stated as a range of pro forma market value. If the 27 attorney is a party to the conversion either as the entity that 28 grants subscription rights to subscribers or it is 29 simultaneously acquired by the stock company in connection with 30 the conversion, the incremental value of the attorney shall be

1 included in the estimate of pro forma market value of the stock
2 company as successor to the reciprocal insurer. The qualified 3 expert shall also consider the effect on the pro forma market
4 value of a right, if any, of subscribers to a return of capital 5 contained in the subscriber agreement or other operative 6 document of the reciprocal insurer.

7 (e) Purchase price of capital stock and minimum subscription 8 amount.--The plan shall set the purchase price per share of 9 capital stock equal to any reasonable amount. However, the 10 minimum subscription amount required of any eligible subscriber 11 cannot exceed $500 dollars, but the plan may provide that the 12 minimum number of shares any person may purchase pursuant to the 13 plan is 25 shares.

14 (f) Limitation on amount of capital stock purchase.--The 15 plan shall provide that a person or group of persons acting in 16 concert shall not acquire, in the public offering or pursuant to 17 the exercise of subscription rights, more than 5% of the capital 18 stock of the stock company or the stock of another corporation 19 that is participating in the conversion plan, as provided in 20 subsection (a) (3) (i), except with the approval of the 21 commissioner. This limitation does not apply to any entity that 22 is to purchase 100% of the capital stock of the converted 23 company as part of the plan of conversion approved by the 24 commissioner.

25 (g) Limitation on directors and officers.--The plan shall 26 provide that no director or officer or person acting in concert 27 with a director or officer of the reciprocal insurer or the 28 attorney shall acquire any capital stock of the stock company or 29 the stock of another corporation that is participating in the 30 conversion plan, as provided in subsection (a) (3) (i), for three

1 (3) years after the effective date of the plan, except through a
2 broker-dealer, without the permission of the commissioner. This 3 provision does not prohibit the directors and officers from 4 making block purchases of 1% or more of the outstanding common 5 stock:

6 (1) other than through a broker-dealer if approved in 7 writing by the department;

8 (2) through the exercise of subscription rights received 9 under the plan; or

10 (3) from participation in a stock benefit plan approved 11 by shareholders pursuant to section 809-B(b).

12 (h) Sale of stock by directors and officers.--The plan shall 13 provide that no director or officer may sell stock purchased 14 pursuant to this section or section 804-B(a) within one year 15 after the effective date of the conversion.

16 (i) Holders of surplus notes.--The plan shall provide that 17 the rights of a holder of a surplus note to participate in the 18 conversion, if any, shall be governed by the terms of the 19 surplus note and the rights, if any, of subscribers to a return 20 of capital shall be governed by the subscriber agreement or 21 other operative document of the reciprocal insurer.

22 (j) Repurchase of capital stock.--The plan shall provide 23 that, without the prior approval of the commissioner, no stock
24 company, or any corporation participating in the conversion plan 25 pursuant to subsection (a)(3)(i), may for a period of three 26 years from the date of the completion of the conversion 27 repurchase any of its capital stock from any person, except that 28 this restriction shall not apply to either:

29 (1) a repurchase on a pro rata basis pursuant to an 30 offer made to all shareholders of the stock company or any

1 corporation participating in the conversion plan pursuant to 2 subsection (a) (3) (i); or

3 (2) A purchase in the open market by a tax-qualified or 4 nontax-qualified employee stock benefit plan in an amount 5 reasonable and appropriate to fund the plan.

6 Section 804-B. Optional provisions of plan of conversion.

7 (a) Subscription rights.--The plan may provide that the 8 directors and officers of the attorney and the reciprocal 9 insurer shall receive, without payment, nontransferable
10 subscription rights to purchase capital stock of the stock 11 company or the stock of another corporation that is 12 participating in the conversion plan, as provided in section 13 803-B(a) (3) (ii). These subscription rights shall be allocated 14 among the directors and officers by a fair and equitable formula 15 and shall be subordinate to the subscription rights of eligible 16 subscribers. Nothing contained in this article may require the 17 subordination of subscription rights received by directors and 18 officers in their capacity as eligible subscribers, if any.

19 (b) Maximum share purchase by directors and officers.--The 20 aggregate total number of shares that may be purchased by 21 directors and officers of the attorney and the reciprocal 22 insurer in their capacity under subsection (a) and in their 23 capacity as eligible subscribers under section 803-B(a) (3) shall 24 not exceed 35% of the total number of shares to be issued if 25 total assets of the reciprocal insurer are less than $50,000,000
26 or 25% of the total number of shares to be issued if total 27 assets of the reciprocal insurer are more than $500,000,000. For 28 reciprocal companies with total assets of or between $50,000,000 29 and $500,000,000, the percentage of the total number of shares 30 that may be purchased shall be interpolated.

1 (c) Liquidation account.--The plan may provide for the 2 creation of a liquidation account for the benefit of subscribers
3 in the event of voluntary liquidation subsequent to conversion
4 in an amount equal to the surplus of the reciprocal insurer, 5 exclusive of the principal amount of any surplus note, on the 6 last day of the quarter immediately preceding the date of 7 adoption of the plan.

8 Section 805-B. Alternative plan of conversion.

9 A plan of conversion may be adopted that does not rely in 10 whole or in part upon issuing nontransferable subscription 11 rights to subscribers to purchase stock of the stock company if 12 the commissioner finds that the plan does not prejudice the 13 interests of the subscribers, is fair and equitable and is not 14 inconsistent with the purpose and intent of this act. An 15 alternative plan may:

16 (1) Include the acquisition or merger of the stock
17 company or any corporation participating in the conversion 18 plan pursuant to section 803-B(a) (3) (ii) by or into a 19 domestic or foreign stock company.

20 (2) Provide for issuing stock, cash or other 21 consideration to subscribers instead of subscription rights.

22 (3) Set forth another plan containing any other 23 provisions approved by the commissioner.

24 Section 806-B. Effective date of plan.

25 A plan is effective when all of the following have been 26 completed:

27 (1) The commissioner has approved the plan.

28 (2) The eligible subscribers have approved the plan.

29 (3) If the stock company becomes successor to the 30 reciprocal insurer by merger, the eligible subscribers have

1 approved the merger of the reciprocal insurer with and into 2 the stock company and the articles of merger have been filed 3 with the Secretary of State of the Commonwealth.

4 Section 807-B. Rights of subscribers whose policies are 5 issued after adoption of plan and before effective date.

6 (a) Notice.--A subscriber shall be sent a written notice
7 regarding the plan upon issuance of a policy if the subscriber's 8 policy is issued after the later of:

9 (1) the date the proposed plan has been adopted; or

10 (2) if different, the record date for establishing 11 subscribers eligible to vote on the plan.

12 The notice shall be sent before the effective date of the plan.

13 (b) Cancellation and refund.--A subscriber entitled to 14 receive the notice provided for in subsection (a) shall be 15 advised of the subscriber's right of cancellation and to a pro 16 rata refund of unearned premiums.

17 (c) Limitation on subscribers.--No subscriber who has made 18 or filed a claim under the subscriber's insurance policy may 19 receive a refund under subsection (b). No person who has 20 exercised the rights provided under subsection (b) may make or 21 file a claim under the subscribers insurance policy.

22 Section 808-B. Corporate existence.

23 On the effective date of the conversion, the corporate 24 existence of the reciprocal insurer continues in the stock 25 company. On the effective date of the conversion, all of the 26 assets, rights, franchises and interests of the reciprocal 27 insurer in and to every species of property, real, personal and 28 mixed, and any accompanying things in action, are vested in the 29 stock company, without any deed or other instrument of transfer 30 and the stock company assumes all the obligations and

1 liabilities of the reciprocal insurer.

2 Section 809-B. Conflict of interest.

3 (a) Compensation.--A director, officer, agent or employee of 4 the attorney or reciprocal insurer shall not receive any fee, 5 commission or other valuable consideration, other than his usual 6 regular salary or compensation, for aiding, promoting or 7 assisting in a conversion under this article except as provided 8 for in the plan approved by the commissioner. This provision 9 does not prohibit the payment of reasonable fees and 10 compensation to attorneys, accountants and actuaries for 11 services performed in the independent practice of their 12 professions, even if the attorney, accountant or actuary is also 13 a director or officer of the attorney or the reciprocal insurer.

14 (b) Stock benefit plan.--For a period of two years after the 15 effective date of the conversion, no stock company may implement 16 any nontax-qualified stock benefit plan unless the plan is 17 approved by a majority of votes eligible to be cast at a meeting 18 of shareholders held not less than six months after the 19 effective date of the conversion.

20 (c) Costs and expenses.--The costs and expenses connected 21 with a plan of conversion shall be paid for or reimbursed by the 22 reciprocal insurer or the stock company. If the plan provides 23 for participation by another corporation or stock company in the 24 plan pursuant to section 803-B(a)(3)(ii), the corporation or 25 stock company may pay for or reimburse all or a portion of the 26 costs and expenses connected with the plan.

27 Section 810-B. Failure to give notice.

28 If the reciprocal insurer complies substantially and in good 29 faith with the notice requirements of this article, the 30 reciprocal insurer's failure to send a subscriber the required

1 notice does not impair the validity of any action taken under 2 this article.

3 Section 811-B. Limitation on actions.

4 An action challenging the validity of or arising out of acts 5 taken or proposed to be taken under this article shall be 6 commenced no later than 30 days after the later of the approval
7 of the plan by the commissioner or the adoption of the plan by a 8 vote of the eligible subscribers.

9 Section 812-B. Reciprocal insurer insolvent or in hazardous 10 financial condition.

11 (a) Waiver of requirements.--If a reciprocal insurer seeking 12 to convert is insolvent or is in hazardous financial condition 13 according to information supplied in its most recent annual or 14 quarterly statement filed with the department or as determined 15 by a financial examination performed by the department pursuant 16 to Article IX of the act of May 17, 1921 (P.L.789, No.285), 17 known as The Insurance Department Act of 1921, the requirements
18 of this article, including notice to and policyholder approval 19 of the plan of conversion, may be waived at the discretion of 20 the commissioner, if requested by the attorney or the reciprocal 21 insurer. If a waiver under this section is ordered by the 22 commissioner, the reciprocal insurer shall specify all of the 23 following in its plan of conversion:

24 (1) The method and basis for the issuance of the stock
25 company's shares of its capital stock to an independent party 26 in connection with an investment by the independent party in 27 an amount sufficient to restore the stock company, as 28 successor to the reciprocal insurer, to a sound financial 29 condition.

30 (2) That the conversion shall be accomplished without

1 granting subscription rights or other consideration to the 2 past, present or future subscribers.

3 (b) Authority of commissioner.--Nothing contained in this 4 section shall alter or limit the authority of the commissioner
5 under any of the provisions of law, including, but not limited 6 to, Article V of The Insurance Department Act of 1921.

7 Section 813-B. Rules and regulations.

8 The commissioner may promulgate rules and regulations to 9 administer and enforce this article.

10 Section 814-B. Laws applicable to stock company.

11 (a) Control of stock company.--No reciprocal insurer may 12 convert under this article if as a direct result of the 13 conversion a person or the person's affiliates acquire control 14 of the stock company, unless that person and the person's 15 affiliates comply with the provisions of section 1402. For 16 purposes of this subsection, "control" shall have the meaning 17 given to such term in section 1401.

18 (b) Stock insurance company rules.--Except as otherwise 19 specified in this article, a stock company resulting from the 20 conversion of a reciprocal insurer under this article shall have 21 and may exercise all the rights and privileges and shall be 22 subject to all of the requirements and regulations imposed upon 23 stock insurance companies formed under this act and any other 24 laws of this Commonwealth relating to the regulation and 25 supervision of insurance companies, but it shall exercise no 26 rights or privileges which other stock insurance companies may 27 not exercise.

28 Section 815-B. Licensing of stock company and commencement 29 of business as an insurance company.

30 The commissioner may waive the minimum surplus requirement of

1 a stock company in connection with the initial licensing of a 2 stock company that will be the successor to a reciprocal 3 insurer. The stock company may not engage in the business of 4 insurance as a stock company until the completion of the merger
5 with the reciprocal insurer and compliance with all provisions 6 of this article.

7 Section 816-B. Amendment of policies.

8 A reciprocal insurer, by endorsement or rider approved by the 9 commissioner and sent to the policyholder, may simultaneously
10 with or at any time after the adoption of a plan of conversion 11 amend an outstanding insurance policy for the purpose of 12 extinguishing a right of the holder of such policy to share in 13 the surplus of the reciprocal insurer. This amendment shall be 14 void if the plan of conversion is not submitted to the 15 commissioner or, if submitted, is disapproved by the 16 commissioner or, if approved by the commissioner, is not 17 approved by the eligible subscribers on or before the first 18 anniversary of its approval by the commissioner.

19 Section 817-B. Prohibition on acquisitions of control.

20 Except as otherwise specifically provided in section 803-B, 21 from the date a plan of conversion is adopted until the 22 effective date of the plan of conversion, no person may directly 23 or indirectly offer to acquire, make an announcement to acquire 24 or acquire in any manner, including making a filing with the 25 department for acquisition under a statute or regulation of this 26 Commonwealth, the beneficial ownership of 10% or more of a class
