10 (i) Former executive-level employee.--

11 (1) No former executive-level State employee may for a 12 period of two years from the time that he terminates
13 employment with this Commonwealth be employed by, receive 14 compensation from, assist or act in a representative capacity
15 for a business or corporation that he actively participated
16 in recruiting to this Commonwealth or that he actively 17 participated in inducing to open a new plant, facility or 18 branch in this Commonwealth or that he actively participated

1 in inducing to expand an existent plant or facility within 2 this Commonwealth, provided that the above prohibition shall 3 be invoked only when the recruitment or inducement is 4 accomplished by a grant or loan of money or a promise of a
5 grant or loan of money from the Commonwealth to the business
6 or corporation recruited or induced to expand.

7 (2) No former executive-level State employee having 8 responsibilities related to the awarding of contracts by a
9 State agency, the development of policies or requirements
10 relating to a contract, the negotiation of a contract or 11 other participation in the development or award of a contract
12 shall do any of the following until at least two years
13 subsequent to termination of employment:

14 (i) Seek or accept employment with an entity that 15 has entered into or intends to enter into a contract with 16 that State agency.

17 (ii) Represent, before an agency or the Governor's 18 Office, a person that has entered into or intends to 19 enter into a contract with the State agency with which 20 the former executive-level State employee was associated.

21 (3) No employee of a person who has a contract with a
22 State agency and who becomes an executive-level employee of a
23 State agency may participate in the award or negotiation of a
24 contract or the development or implementation of requirements
25 relating to a contract with the executive-level's former 26 employee.
