INTRODUCED AND ADOPTED, JANUARY 15, 2014

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing January 11, 2014, as "National Human Trafficking
2 Awareness Day" in Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, This Commonwealth has a tradition of advancing 4 fundamental human rights; and

5 WHEREAS, It is imperative to eliminate human trafficking, 6 including early or forced marriage, commercial sexual 7 exploitation, forced labor, labor obtained through debt bondage, 8 involuntary servitude, slavery and slavery by descent; and

9 WHEREAS, To combat human trafficking in this Commonwealth and 10 globally, the people of Pennsylvania and State and local 11 governments must be aware of the realities of human trafficking
12 and must be dedicated to stopping this contemporary 13 manifestation of slavery; and

14 WHEREAS, Efforts shall be made to actively oppose all 15 individuals, groups, organizations and nations who support,
16 advance or commit acts of human trafficking and to work to end 17 human trafficking around the world through education; and

1       WHEREAS, Victims of human trafficking need support in order
2 to escape and to recover from the physical, mental, emotional 3 and spiritual trauma associated with their victimization; and

4       WHEREAS, Human traffickers use many physical and 5 psychological techniques to control their victims, including the 6 use of violence or threats of violence against the victim or the 7 victim's family, isolation from the public, isolation from the 8 victim's family and religious or ethnic communities, language
9 and cultural barriers, shame, control of the victim's
10 possessions, confiscation of passports and other identification 11 documents and threats of arrest, deportation or imprisonment if 12 the victim attempts to reach out for assistance or to leave; and

13       WHEREAS, Although laws to prosecute perpetrators of human 14 trafficking and to assist and protect victims of human 15 trafficking have been enacted in the United States, awareness of 16 the issues surrounding human trafficking by those people most 17 likely to come into contact with victims is essential for 18 effective enforcement because the techniques that traffickers
19 use to keep their victims enslaved severely limit self-20 reporting; and

21       WHEREAS, The effort by individuals, businesses, organizations 22 and governing bodies to promote the observance of "National 23 Human Trafficking Awareness Day" on January 11 of each year 24 represents one of the many examples of the ongoing commitment to 25 raise awareness of and to actively oppose human trafficking;
26 therefore be it

27       RESOLVED, That the Senate support the goals and ideals of 28 observing "National Human Trafficking Awareness Day" on January 29 11, 2014, and all other efforts to raise awareness of and 30 opposition to human trafficking; and be it further

1       RESOLVED, That the Senate recognize January 11, 2014, as 2       "National Human Trafficking Awareness Day" in Pennsylvania.
