
THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF PENNSYLVANIA

SENATE RESOLUTION

No. 358 Session of 2024

INTRODUCED BY CAPPELLETTI, COLLETT, SCHWANK, HUGHES, SAVAL,
FONTANA, HAYWOOD, COMITTA, COSTA AND KANE, OCTOBER 18, 2024

REFERRED TO RULES AND EXECUTIVE NOMINATIONS, OCTOBER 18, 2024

A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing October 12, 2024, as "Period Action Day" in 2 Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, Since 2019, "Period Action Day" has been 4 commemorated on the second Saturday in October to raise 5 awareness of the challenges faced by menstruating girls and 6 women around the world; and

7 WHEREAS, Approximately half of all Pennsylvanians have a 8 period, lasting on average between three and eight days, every 9 28 days over the course of around 40 years; and

10 WHEREAS, For more than 2,000 days of their lives, on days
11 that they have their period, menstruating individuals require 12 period products such as pads and tampons, to go about their 13 daily lives; and

14 WHEREAS, In 2021, two-thirds of low-income women in the 15 United States, more than 11 million people, reported being 16 unable to afford period products, with half reporting having to 17 choose between period products and food, and one in five 18 reporting having to miss school or work as a result; and

1 WHEREAS, It is well documented that the phenomenon of period
2 poverty, being unable to afford period products and maintain a
3 basic level of personal hygiene and dignity, adversely affects 4 people's physical and mental health, disrupts their education,
5 impedes their job performance and limits their economic 6 potential; and

7 WHEREAS, Communities across the United States and around the 8 world are finally beginning to recognize the nexus between 9 access to period products and women's and girls' ability to 10 survive, thrive and meaningfully contribute to society;
11 therefore be it

12 RESOLVED, That the Senate recognize October 12, 2024, as 13 "Period Action Day" in Pennsylvania; and be it further

14 RESOLVED, That the Senate recognize the need to destigmatize
15 menstruation and raise awareness about the importance of access
16 to period products in this Commonwealth and around the world;
17 and be it further

18 RESOLVED, That the Senate recognize the barriers faced by 19 vulnerable populations that cannot afford or otherwise access
20 period products, including in schools, government buildings,
21 organizations that serve vulnerable populations, such as food
22 banks and homeless shelters, and correctional facilities; and be 23 it further

24 RESOLVED, That the Senate recognize the work of activists
25 throughout this Commonwealth working to combat period poverty;
26 and be it further

27 RESOLVED, That the Senate recognize the myriad of positive
28 impacts created by offering free period products in places like 29 schools, government buildings, food banks, homeless shelters and 30 correctional facilities; and be it further

1 RESOLVED, That the Senate urge the enactment of laws that 2 provide access to period products at no cost to those who use 3 them.
