14 shall be fixed not later than thirty (30) days next after filing the claim for a trial. The court shall 15 cause notice of the trial to be given to each interested party in accordance with the rules of 16 practice ~~and regulations~~ promulgated by the court. The judge shall proceed to hear the matter as 17 the justice of the case may require, and may allow amendments to the petition and the answer at 18 any stage of the proceedings. Hearings may be adjourned from time to time for just and sufficient 19 cause, and hearings may be held at the places that the workers' compensation court shall 20 designate.

21 28-35-20. Informal pretrial conference. -- (a) Before any case shall proceed to a trial, 22 the judge shall conduct a mandatory pretrial conference within twenty-one (21) days of the date 23 of filing with a view to expediting the case and reducing the issues in dispute to a minimum, 24 notice of which shall be sent by the administrator to the parties or to their attorneys of record. The 25 conference shall be informal and no oral testimony shall be offered or taken. Any statement then 26 made by either party shall in the absence of agreement be without prejudice, but any agreement 27 then made shall be binding.

28 (b) Within a reasonable time of receipt, all medical reports and documentary evidence 29 which the parties possess and which the parties intend to present as evidence at the pretrial 30 conference shall be provided to the opposing party.

31 (c) At the pretrial conference, the judge shall make every effort to resolve any 32 controversies or to plan for any subsequent trial of the case. The judge shall render a pretrial order 33 immediately at the close of the pretrial conference. The pretrial order shall be set forth in a 34 simplified manner on forms prescribed by the workers' compensation court. It may reflect any

1 agreements reached between the parties, but shall grant or deny, in whole or in part, the relief
2 sought by the petitioner. Subject to the provisions of subsection 45-21.2-9(j), the pretrial order 3 shall be effective upon entry. Any payments ordered by it including, but not limited to, weekly 4 benefits, medical expenses, costs, and attorneys' fees, shall be paid within fourteen (14) days of 5 the entry of the order.

6 (d) Any party aggrieved by the entry of the order by the judge may claim a trial on any 7 issue that was not resolved by agreement at the pretrial conference by filing with ~~the~~ 8 ~~administrator of~~ the workers' compensation court within five (5) days of the date of the entry of 9 the order, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, a claim for a trial on forms prescribed by 10 ~~the administrator of~~ the workers' compensation court. If no timely claim for a trial is filed or is 11 filed and withdrawn, the pretrial order shall become, by operation of law and without further 12 action by any party, a final decree of the workers' compensation court.

13 (e) All trials shall be assigned for hearing and decision to the same judge who presided 14 over the pretrial of the matter. Notice of the trial shall be sent by the ~~administrator~~ workers' 15 compensation court to the parties and to their attorneys of record. All trials shall be de novo, 16 except that issues resolved by agreement at the pretrial conference may not be reopened. Any 17 other case or dispute under chapters 29 -- 38 of this title that arises during the pendency of this 18 trial, shall be forwarded immediately to the same judge for pretrial in accordance with this section 19 and for any subsequent trial.

20 (f) If after trial and the entry of a final decree, it is determined that the employee or 21 medical services provider was not entitled to the relief sought in the petition, the employer or 22 insurer shall be reimbursed from the workers' compensation administrative fund, described in 23 chapter 37 of this title, to the extent of any payments made pursuant to the pretrial order to which 24 there is no entitlement.

25 28-35-24. Examination by or opinion of impartial physician. -- (a) Whenever the 26 testimony presented at any hearing indicates a dispute, or creates doubt, as to the extent, nature, 27 or cause of disability or death, the workers' compensation court may direct that the injured 28 employee be examined, or may obtain an opinion without examination of an impartial, competent 29 physician designated by the workers' compensation court who is not under contract with or 30 regularly employed or regularly retained by a compensation insurer or self-insured employer.

31 (b) The expense of the examination shall be paid by the employer. The report of the 32 examination shall be transmitted ~~in writing~~ to the workers' compensation court and a copy of it 33 shall be furnished by the workers' compensation court to each party who shall have an 34 opportunity to rebut it on further hearing.

1           28-35-27. Decision of controversies -- Decree. -- (a) In any controversy over which the 2 workers' compensation court has jurisdiction pursuant to this chapter and Rhode Island general 3 law section 45-21.2-9, any judge of that court shall, pursuant to sections 28-35-11 -- 28-35-28, 4 and the ~~procedural~~ rules of practice of the court, hear all questions of law and fact involved in the 5 controversy and presented by any party in interest, and he or she shall within ten (10) days after 6 the hearing, unless the parties otherwise agree, decide the merits of the controversy pursuant to 7 the law and the fair preponderance of the evidence and ~~notify the administrator of~~ the court ~~of the~~ 8 ~~decision, who~~ shall immediately notify the parties.

9           (b) Within seventy-two (72) hours of notice, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and 10 holidays, the judge shall enter a decree upon the decision, which shall contain findings of fact, but 11 within that time any party may appear and present a form of decree for consideration.

12           28-35-28. Appeal to appellate division. -- (a) Any person aggrieved by the entry of a 13 decree by a judge may appeal to the appellate division established pursuant to this section by 14 filing with ~~the administrator of~~ the court within five (5) days of the date of the entry of a decree, 15 exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, a claim of appeal and, subject to the rules of 16 practice of the court, by filing a request for a transcript of the testimony and ruling or any part 17 thereof desired. Within any time that a judge shall fix, either by an original fixing or otherwise, 18 the appellant shall file with ~~the administrator of~~ the court reasons of appeal stating specifically all 19 matters determined adversely to him or her which he or she desires to appeal, together with so 20 much of the transcript of testimony and rulings as he or she deems pertinent, and within ten (10) 21 days after that the parties may file with ~~the administrator of~~ the court those briefs and memoranda 22 that they may desire concerning the appeal. The chief judge shall appoint appellate panels of three 23 (3) members of the court to hear any claim of appeal and the decision of the appellate panel shall 24 be binding on the court. The three (3) members of the appellate panel shall immediately review 25 the decree upon the record of the case and shall file a decision pursuant to the law and the fair 26 preponderance of the evidence within ten (10) days of the expiration of the time within which the 27 parties may file briefs and memoranda. Upon consideration of the appeal, the appellate panel 28 shall affirm, reverse, or modify the decree appealed from, and may itself take any further 29 proceedings that are just, or may remand the matter to the trial judge for further consideration of 30 any factual issue that the appellate division may raise, including the taking of additional evidence 31 or testimony by the trial judge. It shall be within the prerogative of the appellate panel to remand 32 a matter to the trial judge. If the decision requires the entry of a new decree, notice shall be given 33 the parties, and the new decree shall be entered in the same manner as the original decree, but if 34 the decision of two (2) appellate panel judges does not require the entry of a new decree, the

1 decree shall be affirmed. Any member of the appellate panel may, for cause, disqualify himself or 2 herself from hearing any appeal that may come before the appellate panel.

3 (b) The findings of the trial judge on factual matters shall be final unless an appellate 4 panel finds them to be clearly erroneous. The court may award costs, including reasonable 5 attorney fees, to the prevailing party when the appellate panel finds there was complete absence 6 of a justiciable issue of either law or fact.

7 28-35-28.1. Reports of hearings -- Transcripts. -- (a) Hearings reporters, or electronic 8 court reporters, shall report stenographically, or electronically, the proceedings in the trial of 9 every action or proceeding in the workers' compensation court. Electronic court reporting shall be 10 used only when hearings reporters are unavailable for any reason.

11 (b) Each hearings reporter, or electronic court reporter, shall also, upon the order of any 12 judge in the court, transcribe his or her report to be filed with the ~~judge in the case~~ court. He or 13 she shall also make a transcript of the whole or any part of that report upon request, filed with the 14 ~~administrator~~ court, by either party to the action or proceeding, and when completed and within 15 the time limited by the court for filing the transcript, shall immediately deliver it to the party 16 ordering it, or to the attorney of record of that party. For this service, the reporter shall be paid a 17 reasonable compensation, not less than five dollars ($5.00), and not exceeding three dollars 18 ($3.00) per page for originals and one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per page for copies of it, to be 19 allowed by the court. If the transcript is used in subsequent proceedings in the cause, the cost of it 20 may be allowed as a part of the costs.

21 28-35-31. Transcript on appeal. -- (a) Upon the filing of reasons of appeal and 22 transcript, ~~the administrator of~~ the workers' compensation court shall present the transcript to the 23 judge who heard the cause, and in case of vacancy in office, or for any cause, ~~the administrator~~ 24 where the court is unable to present the transcript to the judge who heard the cause, then the 25 transcript shall be presented to any other judge, and that other judge shall have full power to 26 examine and pass upon and allow the transcript. The judge to whom the transcript has been 27 presented ~~by the administrator~~ shall, after examination, restore the transcript to the files ~~of the~~ 28 ~~administrator~~ with a certificate of his or her action.

29 (b) Upon an appeal being taken and the transcript of the testimony as may be required 30 being allowed and returned, the ~~administrator of the~~ workers' compensation court shall 31 immediately certify the cause and all the papers of it to the supreme court.

32 (c) In case of failure to allow and return the transcript within twenty (20) days from its 33 filing a hearing may be had on the question of the correctness of the transcript before the workers' 34 compensation court.

1           28-35-37. Delay of process for execution of decree. -- No process for the execution of 2 any decree of the workers' compensation court from which an appeal may be taken shall issue 3 until the expiration of the appeal period, unless all parties against whom the decree is made, 4 ~~waive an~~ file with the court a waiver of appeal ~~with the administrator~~ or by causing an entry 5 thereof to be made on the docket.

6           28-35-45. Review and modification of decrees. -- (a) At any time after the date of the 7 approval of any agreement or at any time after the date of the entry of any decree concerning 8 compensation, and if compensation has ceased under the agreement or decree, within ten (10) 9 years after that, any agreement, award, order, finding, or decree may be from time to time 10 reviewed by the workers' compensation court, upon its own motion or upon a petition of either 11 party upon forms prescribed ~~and furnished~~ by the court, after due notice to the interested parties:

12           (1) Upon the ground that the:

13           (i) Incapacity of the injured employee has diminished, ended, increased, or returned;

15 disabled only as a result of a preexisting condition;

17 of his or her injury;

18           (iv) Employee has refused an offer of suitable employment; or 20 wage; or

21           (2) Regarding any other obligation established under chapters 29 -- 38 of this title.

22           (b) Upon this review the workers' compensation court may decrease, suspend, increase, 23 commence, or recommence compensation payments in accordance with the facts, or make any 24 other order that the justice of the case may require. No review shall affect the agreement, award, 25 order, finding, or decree as regards money already paid, except that an award increasing the 26 compensation rate may be made effective from the date of the injury, and except that if any part 27 of the compensation due or to become due is unpaid, an award decreasing the compensation rate 28 may be made effective from the date of injury, and any payments made prior thereto in excess of 29 the decreased rate shall be deducted from any unpaid compensation, in the manner and by the 30 methods that may be determined by the workers' compensation court.

31           (c) Relief on review shall not be denied an employee or granted an employer or his or 32 her insurer on the grounds that the employee is incapacitated by an injury or disease which is 33 different from the one for which the employee was paid compensation if the injury or disease 34 incapacitating the employee results from an injury or disease for which the employee was paid

1 compensation.

2 28-35-46. Notice of intent to discontinue, suspend, or reduce payments -- Filing --

3 Form. -- Before an employer may discontinue, suspend, or reduce compensation payments

30 shall institute any and all reasonable measures to comprehensively monitor, investigate, and 31 otherwise discover all employer noncompliance with this section and shall establish rules and 32 regulations governing these measures. Each day shall constitute a separate and distinct offense for 33 calculation of the penalty. Where that employer is a corporation the president, vice president, 34 secretary, treasurer, and other officers of the corporation, shall be severally liable for the fine,

1 penalty or imprisonment as provided in this section for the failure of that corporation to secure the 2 payment of compensation. The president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, and other officers of 4 compensation or other benefit which may accrue under those chapters in respect to any injury

6 compensation as required by those chapters.

17 partners who knowingly fail to secure the payment of compensation under chapters 29 -- 38 of 18 this title shall be guilty of a felony and shall be subject to imprisonment for up to two (2) years.
19 The partners shall also be severally liable for the fine, penalty, or imprisonment as provided in

31 under those chapters in respect to any injury which may occur to any employee of that partnership 32 while it fails to secure the payment of compensation as required by those chapters.

33 (e) All criminal actions for any violation of this section shall be prosecuted by the 34 attorney general. The attorney general shall prosecute actions to enforce the payment of penalties

1 and fines at the request of the director. The workers' compensation court shall have jurisdiction 2 over all civil actions filed pursuant to this section.

3 The court shall consider the following factors in assessing a civil penalty: gravity of 4 offense, resources of the employer, effect of the penalty on employees of the company, the reason 5 for the lapse in coverage, and the recommendation of the director. Following a review of the 6 factors set forth above, the court may suspend all or a part of a civil penalty or shall establish a 7 time table for compliance with any court order.

8 (f) (1) As soon as practicable after the director receives notice of noncompliance under 9 this section, the director shall determine whether cause exists for the imposition of a civil penalty.
10 Unless the director determines that the noncompliance was unintentional or the result of a clerical 11 error and subject to the administrative proceedings under subsection (g) of this section, the 12 director shall commence an action in the workers' compensation court to assess a civil penalty 13 against the employer as set forth in subsection (a) of this section and shall refer the matter to the 14 attorney general for prosecution of criminal charges.

15 (2) The director shall bring a civil action in the workers' compensation court to collect all 16 payments and penalties ordered and not paid. All civil actions for any violations of this chapter or 20 director may designate, in the name of the director, and the director is exempt from giving surety 21 for costs in any proceedings.

22 (g) In the case of unintentional noncompliance or noncompliance resulting from clerical 23 error where the uninsured period is less than one year from the date of discovery and there were 24 no employees injured during the uninsured period and the employer has not been subject to any 25 other findings of noncompliance with these chapters, the director shall assess an administrative 26 penalty of not less than the estimated annual workers' compensation insurance premium for that 27 employer and not more than triple that amount. Any party has the right to appeal the orders of the 28 director. Such appeal shall be to the workers' compensation court in the first instance and 29 thereafter from the workers' compensation court to the Rhode Island supreme court in accordance 30 with section 28-35-30.

31 (h) The director shall collect all payments under this chapter under the rules and 32 regulations that may be set forth by the director. All fines collected pursuant to this section shall 33 be deposited to a restricted receipt account to be administered by the director of the department of 34 labor and training in his or her sole discretion to carry out chapters 29 -- 38 of this title.

1           (i) (1) In that the operation of a commercial enterprise without the required workers' 2 compensation insurance is a crime and creates a clear and present danger of irreparable harm to 3 employees who are injured while the employer is uninsured, the director shall suspend the 4 operation of the business immediately and until workers' compensation and employers' liability 5 insurance is secured consistent with these chapters. The director shall lift the suspension upon 6 receipt of satisfactory proof of insurance and evidence sufficient to satisfy the director that the 7 employer is in full compliance with these chapters. Any party has the right to appeal the 8 suspension to the workers' compensation court where the matter shall proceed pursuant to the 9 workers' compensation court rules of procedure.

10           (2) In the event that the employer shall fail to comply with the director's order of 11 suspension, the director may apply immediately to the workers' compensation court for an order 12 directing the employer to comply with the director's prior orders.

13           (3) Actions filed with the workers' compensation court pursuant to this section shall not 14 be subject to a pretrial conference in accordance with section 28-35-20 but shall be assigned 15 consistent with the workers' compensation court rules of ~~procedure~~ practice.

16           (4) Interest shall accrue on unpaid penalties during the pendency of any appeal at the rate 17 per annum provided in section 9-21-10.

18           (j) These provisions shall take effect upon passage except section 28-29-2(6)(iv) which
