RELATING TO DELINQUENT AND DEPENDENT CHILDREN -- PROCEEDINGS IN FAMILY COURT

Introduced By: Representatives Kislak, Felix, Knight, Ajello, Cassar, Batista, Williams, Kazarian, Barros, and Alzate

Date Introduced: February 11, 2022

Referred To: House Judiciary

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Sections 14-1-27 and 14-1-36 of the General Laws in Chapter 14-1 entitled 2 "Proceedings in Family Court" are hereby amended to read as follows:

3 14-1-27. Temporary detention in public or private institutions.

4 (a) Subject to § 14-1-11, provision may be made by the family court for the temporary 5 detention of children at the training school for youth or in the custody of the director of the 6 department of children, youth and families. Provided, the family court shall not detain any juvenile 7 under the age of fourteen (14) years at the training school for any offense unless the child is charged
8 with murder, first degree sexual assault, or an attempt to commit such offenses. Should a juvenile 9 under the age of fourteen (14) years be charged with any such offense, the family court shall not 10 order the detention of the juvenile at the training school unless the court determines, in the court's 11 judgment, that there are no other reasonable placement locations and/or conditions that will ensure 12 the safety of the juvenile or any other person or persons. The court may authorize the temporary 13 placement of children in private homes licensed and approved by the department of children, youth
14 and families and subject to the supervision of the court, or may arrange with any incorporated
15 institution or agency licensed for child care, to receive for temporary care children ordered detained 16 by the court. Unless good cause is shown to delay the commencement of the adjudicatory hearing, 17 if a child is in detention, the family court shall commence the adjudicatory hearing within thirty 18 (30) calendar days from whichever of the following events occurs latest: the date the petition is

1 served on the child; or the date the child is placed in detention. In all such cases, the family court 2 shall conclude the adjudicatory hearing within fifteen (15) calendar days of the commencement of 3 the hearing unless good cause is shown to extend an adjudicatory hearing beyond fifteen (15)
4 calendar days.

5 (b) In any case wherein the attorney general files an application to waive and/or certify a 6 youth, the juvenile may be detained at the training school for a period not to exceed ninety (90)
7 days. In such cases, the department shall present to the family court a waiver report within forty-8 five (45) calendar days. At the expiration of ninety (90) days, the attorney general's petition for 9 waiver and/or certification shall be decided by the family court, unless good cause is shown to 10 extend the time upon which the family court may render such a decision.

11 (c) When DCYF makes application to the court to take a child into temporary custody due 12 to allegations of abuse and/or neglect or dependency, DCYF shall have the duty to investigate the 13 possibility of placing the child or children with a fit and willing relative not residing with the 14 parents. DCYF shall conduct an assessment into the appropriateness of placement of the child or 15 children with the relative within thirty (30) days of the child's placement in the temporary custody
16 of DCYF. If the department determines that the relative is a fit and proper person to have placement 17 of the child, the child shall be placed with that relative, unless the particular needs of the child make 18 the placement contrary to the child's best interests. All placements with relatives shall be subject to 19 criminal records checks in accordance with § 14-1-34, foster care regulations promulgated by 20 DCYF, and interstate compact approval, if necessary.

21 (d) If DCYF proposes to place the child with a relative outside the state of Rhode Island,
22 DCYF shall notify the parent who shall have an opportunity to file an objection to the placement
23 with the family court within ten (10) days of receipt of the notice. A hearing shall be held before 24 the child is placed outside the state of Rhode Island.

25 (e) If the request of a relative for placement of a child or children is denied by DCYF, that 26 relative shall have the right to petition the court for review. The court shall within five (5) days of 27 the request conduct a hearing as to the suitability of temporary placement with the relative and shall 28 make any orders incident to placement that it deems meet and just.

29 (f) Whenever the court determines that permanent placement or adoption is in the best 30 interest of a child, a fit and willing relative who has been awarded placement of the child shall be 31 given priority over a non-relative, provided that the placement or adoption is in the best interest of 32 the child.

33 14-1-36. Commitment of delinquent and wayward children.

34 (a) In all proceedings under this chapter, the court may order a delinquent or wayward child

1 to be committed to the training school for youth for a sentence no longer than the youth's nineteenth
2 birthday. Provided, the family court shall not commit any juvenile under the age of fourteen (14)
3 years to the training school for any offense other than murder, first degree sexual assault, or an 4 attempt to commit such offenses. Should a juvenile under the age of fourteen (14) years be 5 sentenced for such an offense, the family court shall not commit the juvenile to the training school
6 unless the court determines, in the court's judgment, that there are no other reasonable placement
7 locations and/or conditions that will ensure the safety of the juvenile or any other person or persons.

8 However, nothing contained in this section shall be construed to prohibit the placing of any child 9 in the custody of the department of children, youth and families or any other agency, society, or 10 institution, pursuant to § 14-1-32. The commitment of delinquent or wayward children shall be by 11 an order and all assignments of the custody of dependent, neglected, delinquent, or wayward
12 children to the state training school for youth or to the custody of the department of children, youth
13 and families or to any of the private institutions, agencies, or societies mentioned in this chapter 14 shall be by a decree signed by the justice of the court by whom the order or decree is issued, and 15 that order or decree shall be directed to any person that the court may designate, and shall require 16 that person to take the child and deliver him or her to the officer in charge of the training school
17 for youth or to the custody of the director of children, youth and families or of the public or private 18 institution, agency, or society, and the order or decree shall constitute the person charged with it,
19 while he or she has the order in his or her possession for service, an officer for all purposes under 20 this chapter, in any county of the state in which it may be necessary for him or her to go. The person 21 charged with carrying out the order or decree shall also deliver to the officer of the public or private 22 institution, agency, or society or to the training school for youth or the director of children, youth 23 and families a copy of the order or the decree signed by the justice of the court issuing it, and 24 subject to the provisions of this chapter, the officer and other authorities in charge of the training
25 school for youth or the director of children, youth and families or any public or private institution,
26 agency, or society shall hold the child according to the terms of any other order or decree that may 27 from time to time thereafter be issued by the court in relation to the child.

28 (b) Whenever the court shall commit a child to the training school for youth or to the 29 director of children, youth and families or any other institution or agency, it shall transmit with the 30 order of commitment a summary of its information concerning the child.

31 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
