STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2024

A N A C T

RELATING TO TOWNS AND CITIES -- PUBLIC SAFETY EMPLOYEES -- RELIEF OF INJURED AND DECEASED FIRE FIGHTERS AND POLICE OFFICERS

Introduced By: Representatives Casey, O'Brien, Casimiro, Craven, and Corvese

Date Introduced: March 04, 2024

Referred To: House Finance

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 45-19-1 of the General Laws in Chapter 45-19 entitled "Relief of 2 Injured and Deceased Fire Fighters and Police Officers" is hereby amended to read as follows:

3 45-19-1. Salary payment during line of duty illness or injury.

4 (a) Whenever any police officer of the Rhode Island airport corporation or whenever any 5 police officer, firefighter, crash rescue crewperson, fire marshal, chief deputy fire marshal, or 6 deputy fire marshal of any city, town, fire district, or the state of Rhode Island is wholly or partially 7 incapacitated by reason of injuries received or sickness contracted in the performance of his or her 8 duties or due to their rendering of emergency assistance within the physical boundaries of the state 9 of Rhode Island at any occurrence involving the protection or rescue of human life which 10 necessitates that they respond in a professional capacity when they would normally be considered 11 by their employer to be officially off-duty, the respective city, town, fire district, state of Rhode 12 Island, or Rhode Island airport corporation by which the police officer, firefighter, crash rescue 13 crewperson, fire marshal, chief deputy fire marshal, or deputy fire marshal, is employed, shall, 14 during the period of the incapacity, pay the police officer, firefighter, crash rescue crewperson, fire 15 marshal, chief deputy fire marshal, or deputy fire marshal, the salary or wage and benefits to which 16 the police officer, firefighter, crash rescue crewperson, fire marshal, chief deputy fire marshal, or 17 deputy fire marshal, would be entitled had he or she not been incapacitated, and shall pay the 18 medical, surgical, dental, optical, or other attendance, or treatment, nurses, and hospital services,

1 medicines, crutches, and apparatus for the necessary period, except that if any city, town, fire
2 district, the state of Rhode Island, or Rhode Island airport corporation provides the police officer, 3 firefighter, crash rescue crewperson, fire marshal, chief deputy fire marshal, or deputy fire marshal,
4 with insurance coverage for the related treatment, services, or equipment, then the city, town, fire
5 district, the state of Rhode Island, or Rhode Island airport corporation is only obligated to pay the 6 difference between the maximum amount allowable under the insurance coverage and the actual 7 cost of the treatment, service, or equipment. In addition, the cities, towns, fire districts, the state of 8 Rhode Island, or Rhode Island airport corporation shall pay all similar expenses incurred by a 9 member who has been placed on a disability pension and suffers a recurrence of the injury or illness 10 that dictated his or her disability retirement, subject to the provisions of subsection (j) herein.

11 (b) As used in this section, “police officer” means and includes any chief or other member 12 of the police department of any city or town regularly employed at a fixed salary or wage and any 13 deputy sheriff, member of the fugitive task force, or capitol police officer, permanent 14 environmental police officer or criminal investigator of the department of environmental 15 management, ~~or~~ airport police officer, or correctional officer at the department of corrections.

16 (c) As used in this section, “firefighter” means and includes any chief or other member of 17 the fire department or rescue personnel of any city, town, or fire district, and any person employed
18 as a member of the fire department of the town of North Smithfield, or fire department or district 19 in any city or town.

20 (d) As used in this section, “crash rescue crewperson” means and includes any chief or 21 other member of the emergency crash rescue section, division of airports, or department of 22 transportation of the state of Rhode Island regularly employed at a fixed salary or wage.

23 (e) As used in this section, “fire marshal,” “chief deputy fire marshal,” and “deputy fire 24 marshal” mean and include the fire marshal, chief deputy fire marshal, and deputy fire marshals
25 regularly employed by the state of Rhode Island pursuant to the provisions of chapter 28.2 of title 26 23.

27 (f) Any person employed by the state of Rhode Island, except for sworn employees of the 28 Rhode Island state police, who is otherwise entitled to the benefits of chapter 19 of this title shall 29 be subject to the provisions of chapters 29 — 38 of title 28 for all case management procedures and 30 dispute resolution for all benefits.

31 (g) In order to receive the benefits provided for under this section, a police officer or 32 firefighter must prove to his or her employer that he or she had reasonable grounds to believe that 33 there was an emergency that required an immediate need for their assistance for the protection or 34 rescue of human life.

1 (h) Any claims to the benefits provided for under this section resulting from the rendering
2 of emergency assistance in the state of Rhode Island at any occurrence involving the protection or 3 rescue of human life while off-duty, shall first require those covered by this section to submit a 4 sworn declaration to their employer attesting to the date, time, place, and nature of the event
5 involving the protection or rescue of human life causing the professional assistance to be rendered 6 and the cause and nature of any injuries sustained in the protection or rescue of human life. Sworn 7 declarations shall also be required from any available witness to the alleged emergency involving 8 the protection or rescue of human life.

9 (i) All declarations required under this section shall contain the following language:

10 “Under penalty of perjury, I declare and affirm that I have examined this declaration, 11 including any accompanying schedules and statements, and that all statements contained herein are 12 true and correct.”

13 (j) Any person, not employed by the state of Rhode Island, receiving injured on-duty 14 benefits pursuant to this section, and subject to the jurisdiction of the state retirement board for 15 accidental retirement disability, for an injury occurring on or after July 1, 2011, shall apply for an 16 accidental disability retirement allowance from the state retirement board not later than the later of 17 eighteen (18) months after the date of the person’s injury that resulted in the person’s injured-on-18 duty status or sixty (60) days from the date on which the treating physician certifies that the person
19 has reached maximum medical improvement. Nothing herein shall be construed to limit or alter 20 any and all rights of the parties with respect to independent medical examination or otherwise, as 21 set forth in the applicable collective bargaining agreement. Notwithstanding the forgoing, any 22 person receiving injured-on-duty benefits as the result of a static and incapacitating injury whose 23 permanent nature is readily obvious and ascertainable shall be required to apply for an accidental 24 disability retirement allowance within sixty (60) days from the date on which the treating physician 25 certifies that the person’s injury is permanent, or sixty (60) days from the date on which the 26 determination of permanency is made in accordance with the independent medical examination 27 procedures as set forth in the applicable collective bargaining agreement.

28 (1) If a person with injured-on-duty status fails to apply for an accidental disability 29 retirement allowance from the state retirement board within the time frame set forth above, that 30 person’s injured on duty payment shall terminate. Further, any person suffering a static and 31 incapacitating injury as set forth in subsection (j) above and who fails to apply for an accidental 32 disability benefit allowance as set forth in subsection (j) shall have his or her injured-on-duty 33 payment terminated.

34 (2) A person who so applies shall continue to receive injured-on-duty payments, and the

1 right to continue to receive IOD payments of a person who so applies shall terminate in the event
2 of a final ruling of the workers compensation court allowing accidental disability benefits. Nothing 3 herein shall be construed to limit or alter any and all rights of the parties with respect to independent 4 medical examination or otherwise, as set forth in the applicable collective bargaining agreement.

5 (k) Any person employed by the state of Rhode Island who is currently receiving injured-
6 on-duty benefits or any person employed by the state of Rhode Island who in the future is entitled 7 to injured-on-duty benefits pursuant to this chapter, and subject to the jurisdiction of the state
8 retirement board for accidental retirement disability, shall apply for an accidental disability 9 retirement allowance from the state retirement board not later than sixty (60) days from the date on 10 which a treating physician or an independent medical examiner certifies that the person has reached 11 maximum medical improvement, and in any event not later than eighteen (18) months after the date 12 of the person's injury that resulted in the person being on injured-on-duty. Nothing herein shall be 13 construed to limit or alter any and all rights of the parties with respect to independent medical 14 examination or otherwise, as set forth in the applicable collective bargaining agreement.
15 Notwithstanding the forgoing, any person receiving injured on duty benefits as the result of a static 16 and incapacitating injury whose permanent nature is readily obvious and ascertainable shall be 17 required to apply for an accidental disability retirement allowance within sixty (60) days from the 18 date on which a treating physician or an independent medical examiner certifies that the person's 19 injury is permanent, or sixty (60) days from the date on which such determination of permanency 20 is made in accordance with the independent medical examination procedures as set forth in the 21 applicable collective bargaining agreement.

22 (1) If a person employed by the state of Rhode Island with injured-on-duty status fails to 23 apply for an accidental disability retirement allowance from the state retirement board within the 24 time frame set forth in subsection (k) above, that person's injured-on-duty payment shall terminate.
25 Further, any person employed by the state of Rhode Island suffering a static and incapacitating 26 injury as set forth in subsection (k) above and who fails to apply for an accidental disability benefit 27 allowance as set forth in subsection (k) shall have his or her injured on duty payment terminated.

28 (2) A person employed by the state of Rhode Island who so applies shall continue to receive 29 injured on duty payments, and the right to continue to receive injured on-duty payments of a person 30 who so applies shall terminate upon final adjudication by the state retirement board approving or 31 denying either ordinary or accidental disability payments and, notwithstanding § 45-31.2-9, this 32 termination of injured-on-duty benefits shall not be stayed.

33 (3)(i) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, all persons employed by the state of 34 Rhode Island entitled to benefits under this section who were injured prior to July 1, 2019, and who

1 have been receiving injured-on-duty benefits pursuant to this section for a period of eighteen (18)
2 months or longer as of July 1, 2019, shall have up to ninety (90) days from July 1, 2019, to apply
3 for an accidental disability retirement benefit allowance. Any person employed by the state of 4 Rhode Island receiving injured-on-duty benefits for a period less than eighteen (18) months as of 5 July 1, 2019, shall apply for an accidental disability retirement benefit allowance within eighteen 6 (18) months of the date of injury that resulted in the person receiving injured-on-duty pay; provided 7 however, said person shall have a minimum of ninety (90) days to apply.

8 Applications for disability retirement received by the state retirement board by any person 9 employed by the State of Rhode Island receiving injured-on-duty payments that shall be deemed 10 untimely pursuant to § 36-10-14(b) shall have ninety (90) days from July 1, 2019, to apply for an 11 accidental disability retirement benefit allowance. Failure to apply for an accidental disability 12 retirement benefit allowance within the timeframe set forth herein shall result in the termination of 13 injured-on-duty benefits.

14 (ii) Any person employed by the state of Rhode Island receiving injured-on-duty payments 15 who has been issued a final adjudication of the state retirement board on an application for an 16 ordinary or accidental disability benefit, either approving or denying the application, shall have his 17 or her injured-on-duty payments terminated.

18 (4) If awarded an accidental disability pension, any person employed by the state of Rhode 19 Island covered under this section shall receive benefits consistent with § 36-10-15.

20 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon passage.
