IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2014

—————
A N A C T

RELATING TO CAPITAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

Introduced By: Representatives Slater, and Diaz

Date Introduced: April 03, 2014

Referred To: House Finance

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Proposition to be submitted to the people. -- At the general election to be 2 held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November 2014, there shall be submitted to 3 the people for their approval or rejection the following proposition:

4 "Shall the action of the general assembly, by an act passed at the January 2014 session, 5 authorizing the issuance of bonds, refunding bonds, and temporary notes of the state for the 6 capital projects and in the amount with respect to each such project listed below be approved, and 7 the issuance of bonds, refunding bonds, and temporary notes authorized in accordance with the 8 provisions of said act?"

9 Project: (1) Roger Williams Park Zoo $15,000,000

10 Approval of this question will allow for the State of Rhode Island to issue general 11 obligation bonds, refunding bonds, and temporary notes in an amount not to exceed fifteen 12 million dollars ($15,000,000) to construct a new education center to meet the increased demand 13 for education programs; to renovate and convert the existing education center into a world class 14 reptile facility; for demolition and construction of a new tropical rainforest building to house rare 15 and endangered animals and event space; or for other improvements to the zoo.

16 SECTION 2. Ballot labels and applicability of general election laws. -- The secretary 17 of state shall prepare and deliver to the state board of elections ballot labels for each of the 18 projects provided for in Section 1 hereof with the designations "approve" or "reject" provided 19 next to the description of each such project to enable voters to approve or reject each such

1 proposition. The general election laws, so far as consistent herewith, shall apply to this 2 proposition.

3 SECTION 3. Approval of projects by people. -- If a majority of the people voting on 4 the proposition provided for in Section 1 hereof shall vote to approve the proposition as to any 5 project provided for in Section 1 hereof, said project shall be deemed to be approved by the 6 people. The authority to issue bonds, refunding bonds and temporary notes of the state shall be 7 limited to the aggregate amount for all such projects as set forth in the proposition provided for in 8 Section 1 hereof which has been approved by the people.

9 SECTION 4. Bonds for capital development program. -- The general treasurer is 10 hereby authorized and empowered with the approval of the governor and in accordance with the 11 provisions of this act, to issue from time to time capital development bonds in serial form in the 12 name and on behalf of the state in amounts as may be specified from time to time by the governor 13 in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed the total amount for all projects approved by the 14 people and designated as "capital development loan of 2014 bonds"; provided, however, that the 15 aggregate principal amount of such capital development bonds and of any temporary notes 16 outstanding at any one time issued in anticipation thereof pursuant to Section 7 hereof shall not 17 exceed the total amount for all such projects as have been approved by the people. All provisions 18 in this act relating to "bonds" shall also be deemed to apply to "refunding bonds".

19 Capital development bonds issued under this act shall be in denominations of one 20 thousand dollars ($1,000) each, or multiples thereof, and shall be payable in any coin or currency 21 of the United States which at the time of payment shall be legal tender for public and private 22 debts. These capital development bonds shall bear such date or dates, mature at specified time or 23 times, but not beyond the end of the twentieth state fiscal year following the state fiscal year in 24 which they are issued, bear interest payable semi-annually at a specified rate or different or 25 varying rates, be payable at designated time or times at specified place or places, be subject to 26 expressed terms of redemption or recall, with or without premium, be in a form, with or without 27 interest coupons attached, carry such registration, conversion, reconversion, transfer, debt 28 retirement, acceleration and other provisions as may be fixed by the general treasurer, with the 29 approval of the governor, upon each issue of such capital development bonds at the time of each 30 issue. Whenever the governor shall approve the issuance of such capital development bonds, he 31 or she shall certify approval to the secretary of state; the bonds shall be signed by the general 32 treasurer and countersigned by the manual or facsimile signature of the secretary of state and 33 shall bear the seal of the state or a facsimile thereof. The approval of the governor shall be 34 endorsed on each bond so approved with a facsimile of his or her signature.

1 SECTION 5. Refunding bonds for 2014 capital development program. -- The general 2 treasurer is hereby authorized and empowered, with the approval of the governor and in 3 accordance with the provisions of this act, to issue from time to time bonds to refund the 2014 4 capital development program bonds in the name and on behalf of the state, in amounts as may be 5 specified from time to time by the governor in an aggregate principal amount not to exceed the 6 total amount approved by the people, to be designated as "capital development program loan of 7 2014 refunding bonds" (hereinafter "refunding bonds").

8 The general treasurer with the approval of the governor shall fix the terms and form of 9 any refunding bonds issued under this act in the same manner as the capital development bonds 10 issued under this act, except that the refunding bonds may not mature more than twenty (20) 11 years from the date of original issue of the capital development bonds being refunded.

12 The proceeds of the refunding bonds, exclusive of any premium and accrual interest and 13 net the underwriters' cost, and cost of bond insurance, shall, upon their receipt, be paid by the 14 general treasurer immediately to the paying agent for the capital development bonds which are to 15 be called and prepaid. The paying agent shall hold the refunding bond proceeds in trust until they 16 are applied to prepay the capital development bonds. While such proceeds are held in trust, they 17 may be invested for the benefit of the state in obligations of the United States of America or the 18 State of Rhode Island.

19 If the general treasurer shall deposit with the paying agent for the capital development 20 bonds the proceeds of the refunding bonds or proceeds from other sources amounts that, when 21 invested in obligations of the United States or the State of Rhode Island, are sufficient to pay all 22 principal, interest, and premium, if any, on the capital development bonds until these bonds are 23 called for prepayment, then such capital development bonds shall not be considered debts of the 24 State of Rhode Island for any purpose from the date of deposit of such moneys with the paying 25 agent. The refunding bonds shall continue to be a debt of the state until paid.

26 The term "bond" shall include "note", and the term "refunding bonds" shall include 27 "refunding notes" when used in this act.

28 SECTION 6. Proceeds of capital development program. -- The general treasurer is 29 directed to deposit the proceeds from the sale of capital development bonds issued under this act, 30 exclusive of premiums and accrued interest and net the underwriters' cost, and cost of bond 31 insurance, in one or more of the depositories in which the funds of the state may be lawfully kept 32 in special accounts (hereinafter cumulatively referred to as "such capital development bond 33 fund") appropriately designated for each of the projects set forth in Section 1 hereof which shall 34 have been approved by the people to be used for the purpose of paying the cost of all such 1 projects so approved.

2 All monies in the capital development bond fund shall be expended for the purposes
3 specified in the proposition provided for in Section 1 hereof under the direction and supervision 4 of the director of administration (hereinafter referred to as "director"). The director or his or her 5 designee shall be vested with all power and authority necessary or incidental to the purposes of 6 this act, including but not limited to, the following authority: (a) To acquire land or other real 7 property or any interest, estate or right therein as may be necessary or advantageous to 8 accomplish the purposes of this act; (b) To direct payment for the preparation of any reports, 9 plans and specifications, and relocation expenses and other costs such as for furnishings, 10 equipment designing, inspecting and engineering, required in connection with the implementation 11 of any projects set forth in Section 1 hereof; (c) To direct payment for the costs of construction, 12 rehabilitation, enlargement, provision of service utilities, and razing of facilities, and other 13 improvements to land in connection with the implementation of any projects set forth in section 1 14 hereof; and (d) To direct payment for the cost of equipment, supplies, devices, materials and labor 15 for repair, renovation or conversion of systems and structures as necessary for 2014 capital 16 development program bonds or notes hereunder from the proceeds thereof. No funds shall be 17 expended in excess of the amount of the capital development bond fund designated for each 18 project authorized in Section 1 hereof. With respect to the bonds and temporary notes described 19 in section 1, the proceeds shall be utilized for the following purposes:

20 Question 1 relating to bonds in the amount of fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000) to be 21 provided to the Roger Williams Park Zoo to construct a new education center to meet the 22 increased demand for education programs; to renovate and convert the existing education center 23 into a world class retille facility; for demolition and construction of a new tropical rainforest 24 building to house rare and endangered animals and event space; or for other improvements to the 25 zoo.

26 SECTION 7. Sale of bonds and notes. -- Any bonds or notes issued under the authority 27 of this act shall be sold from time to time at not less than the principal amount thereof, in such 28 mode and on such terms and conditions as the general treasurer, with the approval of the 29 governor, shall deem to be for the best interests of the state.

30 Any premiums and accrued interest, net of the cost of bond insurance and underwriters 31 discount, that may be received on the sale of the capital development bonds or notes shall become 32 part of the Rhode Island Capital Fund of the state, unless directed by federal law or regulation to 33 be used for some other purpose.

34 In the event that the amount received from the sale of the capital development bonds or

1 notes exceeds the amount necessary for the purposes stated in Section 6 hereof, the surplus may 2 be used to the extent possible to retire the bonds as the same may become due, to redeem them in 3 accordance with the terms thereof or otherwise to purchase them as the general treasurer, with the 4 approval of the governor, shall deem to be for the best interests of the state.

5 Any bonds or notes issued under the provisions of this act and coupons on any capital 6 development bonds, if properly executed by the manual or facsimile signatures of officers of the 7 state in office on the date of execution shall be valid and binding according to their tenor, 8 notwithstanding that before the delivery thereof and payment therefor, any or all such officers 9 shall for any reason have ceased to hold office.

10 SECTION 8. Bonds and notes to be tax exempt and general obligations of the 11 state. -- All bonds and notes issued under the authority of this act shall be exempt from taxation 12 in the state and shall be general obligations of the state, and the full faith and credit of the state is 13 hereby pledged for the due payment of the principal and interest on each of such bonds and notes 14 as the same shall become due.

15 SECTION 9. Investment of monies in fund. -- All moneys in the capital 16 development fund not immediately required for payment pursuant to the provisions of this act 17 may be invested by the investment commission, as established by chapter 35-10, pursuant to the 18 provisions of such chapter; provided, however, that the securities in which the capital 19 development fund is invested shall remain a part of the capital development fund until exchanged 20 for other securities; and provided further, that the income from investments of the capital 21 development fund shall become a part of the general fund of the state and shall be applied to the 22 payment of debt service charges of the state, unless directed by federal law or regulation to be 23 used for some other purpose, or to the extent necessary, to rebate to the United States treasury any 24 income from investments (including gains from the disposition of investments) of proceeds of 25 bonds or notes to the extent deemed necessary to exempt (in whole or in part) the interest paid on 26 such bonds or notes from federal income taxation.

27 SECTION 10. Appropriation. -- To the extent the debt service on these bonds is not 28 otherwise provided, a sum sufficient to pay the interest and principal due each year on bonds and 29 notes hereunder is hereby annually appropriated out of any money in the treasury not otherwise 30 appropriated.

31 SECTION 11. Advances from general fund. -- The general treasurer is authorized 32 from time to time with the approval of the director and the governor, in anticipation of the issue 33 of notes or bonds under the authority of this act, to advance to the capital development bond fund 34 for the purposes specified in Section 6 hereof, any funds of the state not specifically held for any

1 particular purpose; provided, however, that all advances made to the capital development bond 2 fund shall be returned to the general fund from the capital development bond fund forthwith upon 3 the receipt by the capital development fund of proceeds resulting from the issue of notes or bonds 4 to the extent of such advances.

5 SECTION 12. Federal assistance and private funds. -- In carrying out this act, the 6 director, or his or her designee, is authorized on behalf of the state, with the approval of the 7 governor, to apply for and accept any federal assistance which may become available for the 8 purpose of this act, whether in the form of loan or grant or otherwise, to accept the provision of 9 any federal legislation therefor, to enter into, act and carry out contracts in connection therewith, 10 to act as agent for the federal government in connection therewith, or to designate a subordinate 11 so to act. Where federal assistance is made available, the project shall be carried out in 12 accordance with applicable federal law, the rules and regulations thereunder and the contract or 13 contracts providing for federal assistance, notwithstanding any contrary provisions of state law.
14 Subject to the foregoing, any federal funds received for the purposes of this act shall be deposited 15 in the capital development bond fund and expended as a part thereof. The director or his or her 16 designee may also utilize any private funds that may be made available for the purposes of this 17 act.

18 SECTION 13. Effective Date. -- Sections 1, 2, 3, and 13 of this act shall take effect 19 upon passage. The remaining sections of this act shall take effect if and when the state board of 20 elections shall certify to the secretary of state that a majority of the qualified electors voting on 21 the propositions contained in Section 1 hereof have indicated their approval of the project 22 thereunder.
