1 WHEREAS, In 1499, the Spanish arrived in what is now Colombia and founded the first 2 permanent settlement in 1510, as part of Spain's colonial empire in the Americas; and

3 WHEREAS, In the 1800s, as Napoleon began invading many European countries, 4 including Spain, patriots in Colombia and all over South America rose in rebellion against their 5 Spanish rulers; and

6 WHEREAS, Cartagena, first declared its independence from Spain before the actual 7 country itself did so. Eventually, when Bogotá rebelled on July 20th, 1810, the Vice Royalty of 8 New Granada was forced to grant a temporary independence from Spain, which became the first 9 step in the process of Colombia earning permanent independence, and culminated with the Battle
10 of Boyacá in 1819, where Simón Bolívar triumphantly liberated New Granada, which is now 11 Colombia, and secured the eventual independence of northern South America; and

12 WHEREAS, Today, Independence Day in Colombia is celebrated with parades and 13 marches throughout the country, much like the 4th of July is celebrated in the United States; and

14 WHEREAS, Colombia's Independence Day falls only a couple weeks after America's 15 Independence Day celebration, which is relevant and fitting because the two nations have so 16 much in common; and

17 WHEREAS, Both the United States and Colombia gained their independence through 18 patriots rallying against a distant monarchy, and the first President of each new country was the 19 General who had united the people during its liberation; and

1           WHEREAS, Both countries were also built on the premise that liberty is an unalienable
2 right and both have a deep commitment to a more peaceful world; now, therefore be it

3           RESOLVED, That this House of Representatives of the State of Rhode Island hereby 4 joins our Colombian American friends and neighbors in commemorating and celebrating
5 Colombia's 214 years of Independence on July 20th of 2024; and be it further
