

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2017

JOINT RESOLUTION

CREATING A SPECIAL LEGISLATIVE COMMISSION TO STUDY AN EARLY INTERVENTION SYSTEM FOR DEAF AND HARD OF HEARING CHILDREN IN RHODE ISLAND

Introduced By: Senators Archambault, Satchell, Miller, Sosnowski, and Calkin

Date Introduced: March 29, 2017

Referred To: Senate Health & Human Services

1 WHEREAS, Rhode Island is the first state in the nation to mandate that a universal 2 newborn hearing screening be provided to infants before they are discharged from the hospital;
3 and

4 WHEREAS, Parents learn that their child is either deaf or hard of hearing through this 5 screening and follow-up appointment with their audiologist to confirm a diagnosis of deafness;

7 WHEREAS, After parents learn of their child's diagnosis of deafness confirmed by their 8 audiologist, they should receive the early intervention services as early as possible; and

9 WHEREAS, A wealth of scholarly research on early language acquisition shows that 10 children who are deaf and hard of hearing have the same learning abilities as those children who 11 are hearing when provided with early language exposure; and

12 WHEREAS, Parents of deaf and hard of hearing children deserve to receive adequate 13 resources to support their child's language and modality development as early as possible; and

14 WHEREAS, The Rhode Island Department of Education and the Early Intervention
15 Program under the Executive Office of Health and Human Services do not have ready and 16 appropriate resources to support parents' Individual Family Service Plan (IFSP) in a timely 17 manner; and

18 WHEREAS, The Rhode Island Department of Education and the Early Intervention
19 Program under the Executive Office of Health and Human Services have not been able to produce

1 data results for supports and improvements that children who are deaf or hard of hearing need for 2 tracking purposes to enhance their programs, services, and expectations/milestones; and

3 WHEREAS, The Rhode Island Department of Education and the Early Intervention
4 Program under the Executive Office of Health and Human Services do not have language
5 acquisition tools to ensure that children's language(s) is acquired at the age appropriate level
6 among a general population in both American Sign Language, and English or one of these 7 languages (American Sign Language or English), or other language that is used in any approved 8 early childhood educational programs by the Rhode Island Department of Education; and

9 WHEREAS, The Rhode Island Department of Education and the Early Intervention
10 Program under the Executive Office of Health and Human Services need to create a clear 11 partnership in collaboration and commitment to create resources and/or to update their resources 12 to meet parents' and children's needs for language acquisition and modality development, and to 13 ensure that the transition from the early intervention program to a pre-school program is smooth 14 and efficient; and

15 WHEREAS, Each early intervention center in Rhode Island is operating its programs and 16 services independently. The availability of resources specifically for parents whose child is deaf 17 or hard of hearing varies between the centers. The factsheets and information may be shared with 18 parents shall dispel any myths and misinformation about language acquisition and development;

20 WHEREAS, There is no provision or preventive measure to detect children who 21 experience hearing loss after the universal newborn hearing screening exam was passed until the 22 age of three; now, therefore be it

23 RESOLVED, That a special legislative commission be and the same is hereby created 24 consisting of twenty-four (24) members: three (3) of whom shall be members of the Senate, not 25 more than two (2) from the same political party, to be appointed by the President of the Senate;
26 three (3) of whom shall be members of the House of Representatives, not more than two (2) from 27 the same political party, to be appointed by the Speaker of House; one of whom shall be the 28 President of the Rhode Island Chapter of Hands and Voices, or designee; one of whom shall be 29 the Executive Director of the Rhode Island Parent Information Network, or designee; one of 30 whom shall be the President of the Rhode Island Association of the Deaf, or designee; one of 31 whom shall be the President of the Hearing Loss Association of Rhode Island, or designee; one of 32 whom shall be the Director of the Rhode Island School for the Deaf, or designee; one of whom 33 shall be the Executive Director of the Northern Rhode Island Collaborative, or designee; one of 34 whom shall be the President of the Rhode Island Speech-Language-Hearing Association, or

1 designee; one of whom shall be the President of the American Sign Language Teachers
2 Association, or designee; one of whom shall be the Executive Director of the Rhode Island
3 Commission on the Deaf and Hard of Hearing, or designee; one of whom shall be the 4 Commissioner of the Rhode Island Department of Education, or designee; one of whom shall be 5 the Coordinator of the Rhode Island Early Hearing Detection and Intervention within the Rhode 6 Island Department of Health, to be appointed by the Director of the Rhode Island Department of 7 Health; one of whom shall be the Director of the Rhode Island Hearing Assessment Program, or 8 designee; one of whom shall be a representative of the Early Intervention Center, to be appointed 9 by the President of Family Service of Rhode Island; one of whom shall be the Director of 10 Perspectives Corporation's children program, or designee; one of whom shall be the Director of 11 the Early Intervention program under the Rhode Island Executive Office of Health and Human 12 Services, or designee; one of whom shall be the President of the Rhode Island Chapter of 13 Alexander G. Bell Association for the Deaf and Hard of Hearing, or designee; one of whom shall 14 be a bilingual development professional, to be appointed by the Speaker of House; and one of 15 whom shall be a child psychological professional, to be appointed by the President of the Senate.

16 In lieu of any appointment of a member of the legislature to a permanent advisory 17 commission, a legislative study commission, or any commission created by a General Assembly 18 resolution, the appointing authority may appoint a member of the general public to serve in lieu 19 of a legislator, provided that the majority leader or the minority leader of the political party which 20 is entitled to the appointment consents to the appointment of the member of the general public.

21 The purpose of said commission shall be as follows:

22 • To have a comprehensive study on the early intervention services in Rhode Island
23 specifically for children who are deaf or hard of hearing;

24 • To identify the challenges and gaps that parents experience in the first three (3) years of 25 life of children who are deaf or hard of hearing;

26 • To identify the gaps of resources including personnel, expertise, professionals, and 27 services for either or both languages of English and American Sign Language and to ensure that 28 visual and audio supplements to either language are available in Rhode Island;

29 • To create an effective protocol to ensure that information provided by early intervention
30 professionals is updated and balanced and will be shared with parents;

31 • To create or expand a centralized resource for all parents of children who are deaf or 32 hard of hearing; and

33 • To present findings and recommendations for viable solutions concerning parents 34 whose child is deaf or hard of hearing.

1 Forthwith upon passage of this resolution, the members of the commission shall meet at 2 the call of the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House and organize. The President
3 of the Senate and the Speaker of the House shall each select one member to serve as co-
4 chairpersons of the commission.

5 Vacancies in said commission shall be filled in like manner as the original appointment.

6 The membership of said commission shall receive no compensation for their services.

7 All municipalities, departments and agencies of the state shall furnish such advice and 8 information, documentary and otherwise, to said commission and its agents as is deemed 9 necessary or desirable by the commission to facilitate the purposes of this resolution.

10 The Joint Committee on Legislative Services is hereby authorized and directed to provide 11 suitable quarters for said commission; and be it further

12 RESOLVED, That the commission shall report its findings and recommendations to the 13 General Assembly on or before February 1, 2018 and said commission shall expire on June 30, 14 2018.
