STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2015

SENATE RESOLUTION

PROCLAIMING AND RECOGNIZING MAY 7, 2015, AS "NATIONAL DAY OF PRAYER"
IN THE STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

Introduced By: Senators Lombardi, Metts, Picard, Jabour, and Felag

Date Introduced: May 07, 2015

Referred To: Recommended for Immediate Consideration

1           WHEREAS, During times of strength and times of weakness, in moments of joy and 2 moments of despair, Americans of many different faiths and traditions have turned to prayer as a 3 means of seeking comfort, giving thanks, and asking for guidance and grace; and

4           WHEREAS, Prayer brings communities together and can be a source of inspiration and 5 courage. In the aftermath of senseless acts of violence and unnecessary suffering and death, the 6 prayers of countless Americans signal to grieving families and communities that they are not 7 alone. Their pain is a shared pain, and their hope is a shared hope. Regardless of religion or creed,
8 Americans of faith reflect on the sacredness of life and express their sympathy for the wounded 9 and the recovering, offering comfort and holding up a light in a time of darkness; and

10           WHEREAS, Today, Americans continue the tradition of our ancestors by acknowledging 11 the power of prayer in our lives and cherishing our right to pray freely; and

12           WHEREAS, The tradition of national supplication was made official in 1952, when 13 President Harry Truman signed a joint resolution of the U.S. Congress establishing a floating 14 annual national day of prayer. Finally, in 1988, President Ronald Reagan set the date for the 15 annual prayer day as the first Thursday in May; and

16           WHEREAS, The Christian Bible underscores the precious promise of faith in 2 17 Chronicles 7:14, "if my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and 18 seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive 19 their sin and will heal their land"; now, therefore be it

1           RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations
2 hereby proclaims and recognizes May 7, 2015, as "National Day of Prayer" in Rhode Island; and 3 be it further

4           RESOLVED, That all Rhode Islanders are encouraged to set aside a particular moment 5 on this day to participate in this meaningful spiritual event and to encourage their friends and 6 neighbors to observe this year's National Day of Prayer according to their own faith or practice.
