1 maintained which is in any way related to the programs and operations with respect to the state of 2 Rhode Island, including any local town, municipality or city.

3 (b) The inspector general may request information, cooperation and assistance from any 4 state, county or local governmental agency as may be necessary for carrying out his/her duties
5 and responsibilities. Upon receipt of such request, each person in charge of, or the governing 6 body of any public body listed in section 42-9.4-1, shall furnish to the inspector general or his/her 7 authorized agent or representative such information, cooperation and assistance, including 8 information relative to the purchase of services or anticipated purchase of services from any 9 contractor by any public body within ten (10) business days of receipt of the inspector general's

21 (d) The inspector general shall have direct and prompt access to the head of any public 22 body listed in section 42-9.4-1 when necessary for any purpose pertaining to the performance of 23 his/her duties and responsibilities under this chapter.

24 (e) The inspector general may request the production, on a voluntary basis, of testimony 25 or documents from any individual, firm or nongovernmental entity which relate to actions or 26 matters that pertain to state, municipal or local governmental agencies as dictated by his/her 27 duties and responsibilities.

28 (f)(1) The inspector general may issue a subpoena for the production of all records, 29 reports, audits, reviews, papers, books, documents, recommendations, correspondence and any 30 other data and material relevant to any matter under audit or investigation pursuant to the 31 provisions of this chapter, no matter in which media the information is maintained.

32 (2) A subpoena may be issued only when a person, corporation or other entity under 33 investigation or being audited refuses to voluntarily comply with a request from the inspector 34 general.

1           (3) Such subpoena shall be served in the same manner as a subpoena for the production
2 of documents in civil cases issued on behalf of the state of Rhode Island, and all provisions of law
3 relative to said subpoena shall apply to a subpoena issued pursuant to this chapter. Any justice of 4 the superior court may, upon application by the inspector general, issue an order to compel the 5 production of records, reports, audits, reviews, papers, books, documents, recommendations, 6 correspondence and any other data and material as aforesaid in the same manner and to the same 7 extent as before said superior court. Any failure to obey such order may be punished by the 8 superior court as a contempt of court.

9           (4) Any subpoena issued pursuant to this section, shall not be made public by the 10 inspector general or any officer or employee of that department, nor shall any documents or 11 records provided pursuant to this section be made public until such time as it is necessary for the 12 inspector general to do so in the performance of his/her official duties. The production of such 13 documents or records pursuant to subpoena shall be governed by the same provisions with 14 reference to secrecy, which govern the proceedings of a grand jury. Disclosure of such 15 production, attendance, and testimony may be made to such members of the staff of the office of 16 the inspector general as is deemed necessary in the performance of the inspector general's duties 17 and responsibilities under this chapter and such members of the staff may be present at the 18 production of records.

19           42-9.4-9. Subpoena for witness testimony and for release of material evidence. -- (a)

20 Whenever the inspector general has reason to believe that a person has information or evidence in 21 his/her possession with respect to any matter which is within the inspector general's jurisdiction 22 to investigate, he/she may issue a subpoena for the attendance and testimony under oath of any 23 person as designated, or the surrender of identified item(s) of evidence; provided, however, that 24 such subpoena may be issued by the inspector general only in the performance of official duties
25 relating to the detection of fraud, waste, abuse and mismanagement. The subpoena for testimony 26 or specific items identified as needed in support of an investigation shall include: the name and 27 address of the prospective witness or specific items identified as needed for the investigation and 28 the reasons for requesting a subpoena for testimony or production of items deemed necessary to 29 support the investigation.

30           (b) The inspector general or anyone duly authorized by law shall serve such subpoena.
31 Once the subpoena is served, the serving officer shall annotate the time and date served, the 32 person served and the location of service.

33           (c) A witness required by subpoena to attend and testify under oath and/or produce books
34 and records or other items as demanded, shall be given not less than forty-eight (48) hours notice

1 of the time and place for the taking of testimony or delivery of subpoenaed items, unless such 2 notice shall unduly interfere with the conduct of the investigation.

3 Such witness, at the time of service of a subpoena, shall be notified of the matter under 4 investigation concerning which such witness will be required to testify. A subject of an 5 investigation is a person whose conduct is within the scope of the investigation and is suspected
6 of committing or being party to an offense under investigation. The failure to furnish such witness 7 with any notice or information required to be given by this section shall cause the issued 8 subpoena to be invalid.

9 (d) A person subpoenaed to testify under oath shall appear and testify under oath at the 10 time and place designated on the subpoena. In addition, the witness shall be notified that he/she 11 has a right to consult with and to have an attorney present at the time the testimony is taken and 12 that he/she has a constitutional right not to furnish or produce evidence that may tend to 13 incriminate him or her.

14 (e) The terms of any such subpoena must be reasonable and focused on specific 15 testimony or evidence sought and must directly relate to the matters under investigation. A 16 subpoena issued that is broad in nature is not considered valid. No subpoena may be issued for 17 purposes of harassment or for any illegitimate or improper purpose. All constitutional and 18 statutory rights and privileges which exist with respect to any subpoena issued by the inspector 19 general, including the privilege against self-incrimination, shall have the same force and effect 20 with any and all existing laws and constitutional rights.

21 (f) A subpoenaed person may object to the subpoena served upon him/her in advance of 22 the return date of the subpoena by a motion to quash filed in the superior court of the state of 23 Rhode Island. The filing of a motion to quash shall stay all pending subpoenas until further order
24 of the superior court. Any justice of the superior court may, upon application by the inspector 25 general, issue an order to compel the attendance of witnesses subpoenaed as aforesaid and the 26 giving of testimony under oath in furtherance of any audit or investigation under this chapter in 27 the same manner and to the same extent as before the superior court. Failure to obey any order of 28 the court with respect to a subpoena may be punished by said court as contempt.

29 (g) Any subpoena issued pursuant to this section shall not be made public by the 30 inspector general or any persons subject to his/her direction or by any member of the inspector 31 general's office designated to hear testimony under this section, and the same provisions with 32 reference to secrecy, which govern grand jury proceedings, shall govern testimony given.
33 Whoever violates the provisions of this paragraph shall be punished by imprisonment for not 34 more than six (6) months in a jail or house of correction or by a fine of not more than one

1 thousand dollars ($1,000). Disclosure of such testimony may be made to such members of the 2 staff of the office of inspector general as is deemed necessary by the inspector general to assist in 3 the performance of the office's duties and responsibilities and such members of the staff may be 4 present at the taking of such testimony.

5 42-9.4-10. Compact – Investigation. -- (a) The inspector general must accept and may 6 investigate or audit complaints or information from any individual concerning the possible 7 existence of any activity constituting fraud, waste, abuse and mismanagement relating to 8 programs and operations as listed in section 42-9.4-1.

9 (b) The inspector general shall not, after receipt of a complaint or information from an 10 employee, contractor or private citizen who requests confidentiality, disclose the identity of that 11 individual without the written consent of said individual, unless the inspector general determines 12 such disclosure is necessary and unavoidable during the course of an investigation. In such event, 13 the individual shall be notified immediately of such disclosure. The inspector general shall set up 14 an anonymous hotline for reporting possible wrongdoings.

15 (c) Employees are protected under the "Rhode Island Whistleblowers' Protection Act," 16 chapter 28-50 of the general laws.

17 42-9.4-11. Reports to the attorney general or United States attorney. -- In carrying 18 out his/her duties and responsibilities, the inspector general shall report to the attorney general, 19 the United States attorney or both whenever the inspector general has reasonable grounds to 20 believe there has been a violation of federal or state criminal law. The attorney general shall 21 institute appropriate proceedings in the furtherance of completing an investigation and, if 22 warranted, to refer a matter for prosecution.

23 The inspector general shall refer audit or investigative findings to the state ethics 24 commission, or to any other federal, state or local agency, which has an interest in said findings.

25 Any referrals made under this section shall not be made public.

26 42-9.4-12. Coordination with other state agencies. -- The inspector general may 27 coordinate with other state agencies that are responsible for investigating, auditing, reviewing or 28 evaluating the management of state agencies for the purpose of sharing information and avoiding 29 duplication of effort.

30 42-9.4-13. Civil actions. -- The inspector general shall have the authority to institute a 31 civil recovery action if authorized by the attorney general. In any case where the inspector 32 general has discovered fraudulent acts and believes that civil recovery proceedings may be 33 appropriate, he/she shall refer the matter to the attorney general. The attorney general may 34 institute whatever proceedings he/she deems appropriate, may refer the matter to another state or

1 local agency, may authorize the initiation of appropriate civil proceedings by the inspector 2 general, may retain the matter for further investigation, or may remand the matter to the inspector 3 general for further investigation.

4 42-9.4-14. Annual and interim reports. -- (a) The office of inspector general shall, no
5 later than April 1st of each year, prepare a report summarizing the activities of the office of 6 inspector general for the prior calendar year. The office of inspector general may also prepare 7 interim reports. These reports shall be forwarded to the governor, lieutenant governor, attorney 8 general, secretary of state, general treasurer and the general assembly and shall be made available 9 to the public.

10 (b) The report shall include, but not be limited to: a description of significant problems in 11 the areas of fraud, waste and abuse within programs and operations within the jurisdiction of the 12 office; a description of the recommendations for corrective action made by the office during the 13 reporting period with respect to significant deficiencies in the areas of fraud, waste and abuse; the 14 identification of each significant recommendation described in previous annual reports on which 15 corrective action has not been completed; a summary of matters referred to prosecuting 16 authorities and the prosecutions and convictions which have resulted; a summary of any matters 17 concerning the recovery of monies as a result of a civil suit by the office of inspector general or a 18 referral to another agency for the purposes of such suit; a list of all audit reports completed by the 19 office during the reporting period and a statement of recommendations of amendments to this 20 chapter or the rules, regulations or procedures governing the office of inspector general which 21 would improve the effectiveness or the operation of the office.

22 (c) The head or governing body of each public body may, within sixty (60) days of 23 receipt, comment upon any references to such public body contained within the report. Such 24 comment, if any, shall be forwarded to the governor, the attorney general, the general assembly 25 and the office of inspector general.

26 (d) The report of the inspector general shall be made public on the day of filing;
27 provided, that the report shall not list the names of individuals or corporations, nor describe them 28 with sufficient particularity as to readily identify them to the general public in those cases in
