15 Providence Mounted Police, and later a summer camp and therapeutic equestrian riding program 16 for children at Meeting Street School; and

17           WHEREAS, In 1977, Mr. Forgue moved to Glocester, where he became a successful real

1 was renamed the Tourbillon Farm, and eventually became the successful Tourbillon Trailer Sales
2 and Service; and

3 WHEREAS, Most recently, the Honorable Jay Forgue was elected to and served on the 4 Gloucester Town Council for three years, and as President for this past year. During his tenure on

6 grants, such as the $250,000 façade improvement funding to Chepachet businesses and the 7 $450,000 grant for improvements to Gloucester Memorial Park;

8 WHEREAS, The Honorable Jay Forgue was a genuine, humble, and caring man, who 9 always had a smile and was ready to help. He "embraced life to the fullest always seeking new 10 adventures, fully enjoying his life with family and friends" and he will be dearly missed; now,
