Date Introduced: March 01, 2024

Referred To: Senate Finance

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 16-107-6 of the General Laws in Chapter 16-107 entitled "Rhode 2 Island Promise Scholarship" is hereby amended to read as follows:

3 16-107-6. Eligibility for scholarship.

4 (a) Beginning with the students who enroll at the community college of Rhode Island in 5 the fall of 2017, to be considered for the scholarship, a student:

6 (1) Must qualify for in-state tuition and fees pursuant to the residency policy adopted by 7 the council on postsecondary education, as amended, supplemented, restated, or otherwise modified 8 from time to time ("residency policy"); provided, that, the student must have satisfied the high 9 school graduation/equivalency diploma condition prior to reaching nineteen (19) years of age;
10 provided, further, that in addition to the option of meeting the requirement by receiving a high 11 school equivalency diploma as described in the residency policy, the student can satisfy the 12 condition by receiving other certificates or documents of equivalent nature from the state or its 13 municipalities as recognized by applicable regulations promulgated by the council on elementary 14 and secondary education;

15 (2) Must be admitted to, and must enroll and attend the community college of Rhode Island
16 on a full-time basis by the semester immediately following high school graduation or the semester
17 immediately following receipt of a high school equivalency diploma; provided, on and after July 18 1, 2024, the time for students to enroll and attend the community college of Rhode Island and

1 qualify for the scholarship pursuant to this section shall be extended to up to one year after the
2 student's high school graduation;

3 (3) Must complete the FAFSA and any required FAFSA verification, or for persons who 4 are legally unable to complete the FAFSA must complete a comparable form created by the 5 community college of Rhode Island, by the deadline prescribed by the community college of Rhode 6 Island for each year in which the student seeks to receive funding under the scholarship program;

7 (4) Must continue to be enrolled on a full-time basis;

8 (5) Must maintain an average annual cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 2.5 or 9 greater, as determined by the community college of Rhode Island;

10 (6) Must remain on track to graduate on time as determined by the community college of 11 Rhode Island;

12 (7) Must not have already received an award under this scholarship program; and 13 (8) Must commit to live, work, or continue their education in Rhode Island after graduation.

14 The community college of Rhode Island shall develop a policy that will secure this 15 commitment from recipient students.

16 (b) Notwithstanding the eligibility requirements under subsection (a) of this section
17 (“specified conditions”):

18 (1) In the case of a recipient student who has an approved medical or personal leave of 19 absence or is unable to satisfy one or more specified conditions because of the student’s medical
20 or personal circumstances, the student may continue to receive an award under the scholarship
21 program upon resuming the student’s education so long as the student continues to meet all other
22 applicable eligibility requirements;

23 (2) In the case of a recipient student who is a member of the national guard or a member
24 of a reserve unit of a branch of the United States military and is unable to satisfy one or more
25 specified conditions because the student is or will be in basic or special military training, or is or
26 will be participating in a deployment of the student’s guard or reserve unit, the student may continue
27 to receive an award under the scholarship program upon completion of the student’s basic or special
28 military training or deployment; and

29 (3) Any student with a disability, otherwise eligible for a scholarship pursuant to the 30 provisions of this section, as of May 15, 2021, shall be entitled to access this program and shall be 31 afforded all reasonable accommodations, as required by the ADA and the Rehabilitation Act of 32 1973, including, but not limited to, enrolling on a part-time basis, attaining a high school
33 diploma/GED by age twenty-one (21), and taking longer than two (2) years to graduate with an 34 associate’s degree.

1 SECTION 2. Section 16-113-6 of the General Laws in Chapter 16-113 entitled "Rhode
2 Island Hope Scholarship Pilot Program Act" is hereby amended to read as follows:

34 (b) Rhode Island college, in conjunction with the office of the postsecondary

1 commissioner, shall develop a policy that will secure the commitment set forth in subsection (a) of 2 this section from recipient students.

3 (c) Notwithstanding the eligibility requirements under subsection (a) of this section
4 (“specified conditions”):

5 (1) In the case of a recipient student who has an approved medical or personal leave of 6 absence or is unable to satisfy one or more specified conditions because of the student’s medical
7 or personal circumstances, the student may continue to receive an award under the scholarship
8 program upon resuming the student’s education so long as the student continues to meet all other
9 applicable eligibility requirements;

10 (2) In the case of a recipient student who is a member of the national guard or a member
11 of a reserve unit of a branch of the United States military and is unable to satisfy one or more
12 specified conditions because the student is or will be in basic or special military training, or is or
13 will be participating in a deployment of the student’s guard or reserve unit, the student may continue
14 to receive an award under the scholarship program upon completion of the student’s basic or special
15 military training or deployment; and

16 (3) Students enrolled in Rhode Island college as of July 1, 2021, who have attained junior 17 status at Rhode Island college as of July 1, 2023, or who enrolled in Rhode Island college as of July 18 1, 2022, and who have attained junior status at Rhode Island college as of July 1, 2024, and who 19 are otherwise in compliance with this chapter, shall be eligible for a hope scholarship under this

21 (4) Any student with a disability, otherwise eligible for a scholarship pursuant to the 22 provisions of this section, shall be entitled to access this program and shall be afforded all 23 reasonable accommodations, as required by the ADA and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, including,
24 but not limited to, enrolling on a part-time basis and taking longer than four (4) years to graduate 25 with a bachelor’s degree.

26 (d) The decision of whether or not a student has attained junior or senior status by the 27 appropriate date shall be determined by the appropriate body of Rhode Island college, subject to 28 the rules, regulations, and procedures established pursuant to § 16-113-8.

29 SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon passage.
