SENATE RESOLUTION

EXPRESSING CONDOLENCES ON THE PASSING OF FRED J. RUBIANO

Introduced By: Senator Frank Lombardo

Date Introduced: March 06, 2018

Referred To: Recommended for Immediate Consideration

1 WHEREAS, Mr. Fred J. Rubiano of North Providence, passed away at his home on 2 February 27, 2018, surrounded by his family. He was born in Providence, the son of the late 3 Frederick and Bessie Rubiano; and

4 WHEREAS, Mr. Rubiano was a lifelong resident of North Providence and graduated 5 from North Providence High School in 1972. He was a hard-working man who was employed by 6 the Coca Cola Bottling Company for thirty-eight years until his retirement in 2015; and

7 WHEREAS, In his free time, Fred enjoyed volunteering his services in support of youth 8 activities. He was a baseball coach for the North Providence West Little League for many years,
9 and coached CYO Basketball at the former St. Lawrence Church. He was also a passionate sports
10 fan who was an avid Red Sox fan (and Yankee hater), and he enjoyed attending Providence
11 Bruins games. Mr. Rubiano was a warm, loving and compassionate man who will be sorely 12 missed by his family and many friends; and

13 WHEREAS, Fred was also a devoted father. He leaves behind his two children, Joseph 14 Rubiano and his wife, Lisa, and Kristen Ann Lisi and her husband, Anthony. He is also survived 15 by his six grandchildren, several nephews and nieces, and two sisters, Cynthia King and Jeanie
16 Vickers; now, therefore be it

17 RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations
18 hereby expresses its condolences on the passing of Mr. Fred J. Rubiano; and be it further

- 1 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to
- 2 transmit duly certified copies of this resolution to Joseph Rubiano and Kristen Ann Lisi.
