THE 2016 NEWPORT DAILY NEWS COMMUNITY SERVICE AWARD WINNERS

Introduced By: Senators Paiva Weed, DiPalma, Felag, and Pagliarini

Date Introduced: April 14, 2016

Referred To: Recommended for Immediate Consideration

1 WHEREAS, The Newport Daily News established a "Community Service Award" in 2 1996 on the paper's 150th Anniversary celebration in order to recognize and encourage 3 volunteerism within the community; and

4 WHEREAS, Chosen from a field of nearly 20 nominees, Ruth Thumbtzen, who retired
5 after 30 years as a physical education and health teacher at Thompson Middle School and 10
6 years as a community liaison for Salve Regina University, was selected as one of the 2016 7 recipients of this prestigious award for the "variety of organizations" and "the lasting impact" of 8 her volunteer efforts; and

9 WHEREAS, Born and raised in Selma, Alabama, Ms. Thumbtzen grew up in a family 10 that understood and actively contributed to the betterment of their community and this country. In 11 the 1960s, her mother worked with the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., during the civil rights 12 movement, and her father served in the United States Navy for 25 years; and

13 WHEREAS, To the immense benefit of the City of Newport, Mr. Barge's military service 14 resulted in Ruth's family moving to the city during her college years. Upon graduation from 15 Hampton University, she moved to Newport and took a position teaching at the middle school; 16 and

17 WHEREAS, Throughout her career in education, and her subsequent retirement, Ms.
18 Thumbtzen has volunteered for myriad initiatives and organizations but perhaps more 19 monumental has been her guidance and the inspiration she provides to all around her; and

1           WHEREAS, Ruth Thumbtzen's dedication and "boundless energy" have resulted in the 2 formation of the Aquidneck Island Minority Scholarship Fund, mentoring myriad students,
3 spending her Sunday's distributing a sundry of care and comfort items to patients at the hospital
4 and her Fridays at the hospital's gift shop, as well as collaborating on projects to get college 5 students involved with the local hospital in various volunteer roles; and

6           WHEREAS, In addition, Ms. Thumbtzen is the founder and President of the Mora E.
7 Brown Hammonds Scholarship Fund, has served as President of the Board of Directors for the 8 Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Community Center, joined efforts with her siblings to create the 9 Pauline Hudson Barge Memorial Scholarship in honor of their mother, and has served on the 10 Board of Trustees and as Vice President of the Newport Public Library; and

11           WHEREAS, In 2014, Ms. Thumbtzen was honored with the Newport County
12 Community Mental Health Center's Board of Directors Award for the many years she served on 13 the Board and for her commitment to the organization and the community. She has also been a 14 longtime volunteer at the Newport Art Museum and served on the Board of Directors of Freedom
15 Housing, Inc. and the Salvation Army; and

16           WHEREAS, Ruth Thumbtzen's loyalty, dedication and commitment to her friends and 17 the community are well known, and this generous and spirited lady is a true role model for us all 18 and eminently worthy of this award and our utmost gratitude; now, therefore be it

19           RESOLVED, That this Senate of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations
20 hereby congratulates and honors Ms. Ruth Barge Thumbtzen on being selected as one of the 2016
21 Newport Daily News Community Service Award Winners. Her years of devoted service to the 22 community are an inspiration to us all; and be it further

23           RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 24 transmit a duly certified copy of this resolution to Ms. Ruth Barge Thumbtzen.
