21 drawing of a candidate or public office holder, or the unambiguous reference to the 22 identity of a candidate or public office holder;

23 ~~(6)~~(7) "Contribution," any gift, advance, distribution, deposit, or payment of money or
24 any other valuable consideration, or any contract, promise or agreement to do so;
25 any discount or rebate not available to the general public; any forgiveness of 26 indebtedness or payment of indebtedness by another person; or any use of 27 services or property, other than services or property provided by a person
28 volunteering for or on behalf of a candidate or political committee, including the 29 free or discounted use of the person's residence, without full payment or that is 30 provided by any person or political committee whose primary business is to provide
31 services or property, ~~made for the purpose of influencing:~~

32 ~~(a) The nomination, election, or re-election of any person to public office; or~~

33 ~~(b) The placement of a ballot question on the ballot or the adoption or defeat~~
34 ~~of any ballot question submitted.~~

The term does not include services provided by a person as a volunteer for or on behalf of any candidate or political committee including the free or discounted use of a person's residence. Nor does the, made for the purpose of influencing the nomination, election, or re-election of any person to public office, the placement of a ballot question on the ballot, or the adoption or defeat of any ballot question submitted, provided the term does not include the:

(a) The purchase of any item of value or service from any political committee. The purchase price of the item may not exceed at the fair market value and may not include an intent to contribute of the item of service, if the political committee does not intend to provide anything to the purchaser beyond the item's value. A contribution does not include administration of the item or service;

(b) Administration and solicitation of a contribution for a political action committee established by an entity or its associated expenses, nor the use;
