

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 1507 - SB 1662

February 10, 2018

SUMMARY OF BILL: Adds and defines the terms “blockchain technology” and “smart contract” to the Uniform Electronic Transactions Act. Establishes that a signature, record or contract secured through blockchain technology is considered to be in electronic form and to be an electronic signature or electronic record. Authorizes the use of smart contracts in commerce. Prohibits contracts relating to a transaction to be denied legal effect, validity, or enforceability solely because that contract contains a smart contract term. Protects ownership rights of information secured by blockchain technology, except where transaction terms expressly transfers those rights.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- Passage of this legislation will promote and facilitate the use of blockchain technology and smart contracts in Tennessee.
- According to the Department of Commerce and Insurance (DCI), passage of this legislation would not significantly change how registrations or securities offerings are currently being processed and reviewed, nor would it significantly change how examinations of firms are conducted.
- No fiscal impact on the operations of the Department of Financial Institutions (DFI).
- Any direct fiscal impact to state or local government is estimated to be not significant.

IMPACT TO COMMERCE:

Other Impact – Due to multiple unknown factors, any impact on commerce and jobs in Tennessee cannot be quantified with reasonable certainty.

Assumptions:

- Passage of this legislation will ensure that business, commercial and governmental transactions conducted through or supported by blockchain technology and containing smart contract terms will be enforceable in Tennessee.

HB 1507 - SB 1662

- Recognition of blockchain technology and smart contracts as enforceable electronic transactions will provide clarity to companies interested in developing or utilizing this technology, and may ultimately impact commerce in this state.
- An exact impact to commerce or jobs in Tennessee cannot be quantified with reasonable certainty.
