SUMMARY OF BILL AS AMENDED (018191): Requires the Division of TennCare to study the impact of a policy which requires automatic enrollment of full benefit dual enrollees into a Medicare dual special needs plan (D-SNP). Requires the results of the study to be submitted to the chairs of the Insurance and Commerce and Labor Committees, as well as the legislative librarian, by January 1, 2023. Prohibits the Division from implementing any policy related to the study or reducing current D-SNPs, unless such action is authorized by a joint resolution of the General Assembly.

FISCAL IMPACT OF BILL AS AMENDED:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions for the bill as amended:

- The Division of TennCare can complete such a study utilizing existing personnel and resources.
- There will be no significant cost associated with submitting the results of the study to committee chairs and the legislative librarian.
- The fiscal impact of any policy changes as a result of the study will be directly associated with any subsequent joint resolutions adopted by the General Assembly.
