HB 1929

January 30, 2020

SUMMARY OF BILL: Prohibits the Governor of Tennessee from making any decision or obligating the state of Tennessee in any way with regard to resettlement of refugees, unless authorized by joint resolution of the General Assembly, with retroactive application. Prohibits any joint resolution passed by the General Assembly to provide authorization to the Governor for more than one year.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

In addition, according to the Tennessee Office for Refugees, Davidson County, Shelby County, and Knox County consented to such resettlement within their boundaries.
- It is assumed the retroactive intent will not result in the removal of any refugees which are resettled within the state between December 18, 2019 and the effective date of this act.
- Any action authorized or required by the General Assembly will be conducted during a regular legislative session.
- Requiring the Governor to seek the approval of the General Assembly in this circumstance will not result in any significant fiscal impact to state or local government.
