

SENATE BILL 358

By Briggs

AN ACT to amend Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 64, Chapter 3 and Title 64, Chapter 4, relative to the economic impact of the cosmetology and barbering professions.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE:

SECTION 1.

(a) The Tennessee advisory commission on intergovernmental relations (TACIR) shall study the economic impact that the cosmetology and barbering professions have in this state, including revenue generated through the services provided and the number of jobs generated by the professions.

(b) TACIR may request information and input from the department of commerce and insurance and other appropriate state and local governmental entities, as necessary, and such entities shall comply with TACIR's request. The study must be conducted from TACIR's existing resources.

(c) Upon completion of the study required by subsection (a), TACIR shall report its findings and recommendations, including any proposed legislation, to the chair of the commerce and labor committee of the senate and the chair of the committee of the house of representatives having jurisdiction over cosmetology and barbering, and provide a copy of the report to the legislative librarian. The report may be delivered electronically.

SECTION 2. This act takes effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.
