

SENATE RESOLUTION 120

By Walley

A RESOLUTION to recognize and commend the Hardin County Property Assessor's Office.

WHEREAS, it is the privilege of the members of this legislative body to recognize those venerable professionals who are wholly devoted to serving the citizens of Tennessee; and

WHEREAS, one such group of individuals is the Hardin County Property Assessor's Office, which was recently honored by the Tennessee Association of Assessing Officers (TNAAO); and

WHEREAS, at TNAAO's Winter Meeting, Chief Deputy Assessor of Property Mary Martin was named West Tennessee Chief Deputy of the Year, and the entire office received Three Star Certification; and

WHEREAS, Three Star Certification is bestowed upon those who are successfully reviewed for technical compliance by the comptroller's division of property assessments and complete the necessary continuing education requirements; and

WHEREAS, this is Hardin County's third year to be awarded Three Star Certification, a testament to the employees' ongoing commitment to remaining at the top of their profession; and

WHEREAS, Chief Deputy Assessor of Property Mary Martin and the Hardin County Property Assessor's Office have proven themselves to be among the most dedicated, professional, and knowledgeable property assessors in the State; and

WHEREAS, it is most fitting that we recognize these devoted Tennesseans at this time; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE SENATE OF THE ONE HUNDRED TWELFTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, that we recognize and commend the employees of the Hardin County Property Assessor's Office upon receiving accolades at the Tennessee Association of Assessing Officers' Winter Meeting, extending our gratitude for their good work and our best wishes for much continued success.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that an appropriate copy of this resolution be prepared for presentation with this final clause omitted from such copy.
