IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

JUNE 6, 2013

Mr. MARKEY introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Agriculture

---

A BILL

To provide for greater regulation of high frequency trading of commodities futures and options and greater protection for derivatives traders and trading facilities, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-

2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Protection from Rogue

5       Oil Traders Engaging in Computerized Trading Act” or 6       the “PROTECT Act”.

1     SEC. 2. REQUIREMENTS APPLICABLE TO HIGH FREQUENCY
2                 TRADERS OF COMMODITY FUTURES AND OP-
3                 TIONS.

4         (a) IN GENERAL.—The Commodity Exchange Act (7 5 U.S.C. 1 et seq.) is amended by inserting after section 6 4t the following:

7     “SEC. 4u. REQUIREMENTS APPLICABLE TO HIGH FRE-
8                 QUENCY TRADERS.

9         “(a) REGISTRATION.—It shall be unlawful for any 10 person to engage in an activity that the Commission has 11 defined in regulations as high frequency trading, unless 12 the person has registered with the Commission (in such 13 form, in such manner, and providing such information as 14 the Commission shall prescribe) as a high frequency trad-
15 er, and the registration has not expired or been suspended 16 or revoked.

17         “(b) OTHER REQUIREMENTS.—A registered high fre-18 quency trader shall—

19                 “(1) test all computer programs and algorithms
20 used by the trader in any high frequency trading ac-
21 tivity and determine whether the programs and algo-22 rithms are functioning properly, in such manner and 23 with such frequency as the Commission shall pre-24 scribe in regulations;

25                 “(2) establish and document high frequency 26 trading system safeguards reasonably designed to

1 ensure the proper function of all programs and algo-
2 rithms used by the high frequency trader including 3 conditions and parameters relating to the automatic
4 termination, pausing, or cancellation of the trader's 5 messaging or trading activity, maximum message
6 and trade execution rates and order sizes, intra-day
7 risk position limits, and market and trade moni-8 toring systems that are appropriate for ensuring 9 compliance with the system safeguards, including 10 systems designed to monitor market volatility and 11 the trader's risk position on an intra-day basis;

12 “(3) shall not simultaneously purchase and sell 13 through the same or different accounts the same
14 commodity contract, agreement, or transaction, un-15 less the simultaneous purchases and sales are of a 16 de minimis quantity and are reported to the Com-17 mission periodically, in a form and manner to be de-18 termined by the Commission;

19 “(4) submit to the Commission semiannual re-20 ports on the high frequency trading activities of the 21 trader during the period covered by the report, in 22 such form, in such manner, and containing such in-23 formation as the Commission may require, signed by 24 the chief executive officer (or equivalent officer) of 25 the trader; and

1               “(5) conform with such business conduct stand-2       ards as may be prescribed by the Commission by 3       rule or regulation that relate to—

4               “(A) fraud, manipulation, and other abu-
5       sive or disruptive practices, and other practices
6       that may affect market integrity involving high 7       frequency traders (including high frequency 8       trades that are offered but not entered into);
9       and

10               “(B) such other matters as the Commis-
11       sion may determine are appropriate in the pub-12       lic interest or otherwise in furtherance of the 13       purposes of this Act, including information nec-14       essary to develop a classification scheme and 15       public reports relating to high frequency traders
16       and trading activity and sub-categories there-17       to.”.

18               (b) DEADLINE FOR ISSUANCE OF RULES DEFINING 19       HIGH FREQUENCY TRADING.—Within 9 months after the 20       date of the enactment of this Act, the Commodity Futures
21       Trading Commission shall prescribe final regulations de-22       fining the activities that shall be considered to be high 23       frequency trading for purposes of section 4u of the Com-
24       modities Exchange Act.

1   SEC. 3. FINE FOR HIGH FREQUENCY TRADING VIOLATION
2                   REQUIRED TO BE BASED ON THE DURATION
3                   OF THE VIOLATION.

4       Section 9 of the Commodity Exchange Act (7 U.S.C.
5   13) is amended by adding at the end the following:

6       “(f) FINE FOR HIGH FREQUENCY TRADING VIOLA- 7   TION REQUIRED TO BE BASED ON THE DURATION OF 8   THE VIOLATION.—The amount of a fine imposed under 9   this Act with respect to a violation of a high frequency 10   trading regulation shall be determined on the basis of the 11   number of seconds, including fractions of seconds, during 12   which the violation continued.”.

13   SEC. 4. CIVIL PENALTIES UNDER THE COMMODITY EX-
14                   CHANGE ACT.

15       (a) AUTHORITY OF THE COMMODITY FUTURES
16   TRADING COMMISSION TO DEFINE MEANING OF “EACH
17   VIOLATION”.—Section 9 of the Commodity Exchange Act 18   (7 U.S.C. 13), as amended by section 3 of this Act, is 19   amended by adding at the end the following:

20       “(g) AUTHORITY TO DEFINE SCOPE OF VIOLA-
21   TION.—The Commission may define the scope of any vi-
22   lation for purposes of determining the number of viola-
23   tions involved in any case arising under this Act.”.

24       (b) ENFORCEMENT POWERS OF THE COMMISSION.—
25   Section 6 of such Act is amended—

1                         (1) in paragraph (10) of subsection (c) (7
2 U.S.C. 9), by striking subparagraph (C) and insert-3 ing the following:

4                         “(C) assess such person—

5                         “(i) a civil penalty of not more than 6 an amount equal to the greater of—

7                         “(I) $1,000,000, in the case of a 8 person who is an individual, for each
9 violation;

10                         “(II) $10,000,000, in the case of 11 any person other than an individual,
12 for each violation;

13                         “(III) triple the monetary gain to 14 the person and all other persons act-15 ing in concert with the person, for 16 each such violation; or

17                         “(IV) triple the total amount of 18 losses to persons proximately caused 19 by each such violation; or

20                         “(ii) a civil penalty of triple the max-21 imum amount otherwise available under 22 clause (i) if the person, within 5 years pre-23 ceding the violation, has been—

24                         “(I) found in a proceeding 25 brought by the Commission, or by

1                   agreement of settlement to which the 2                   Commission is a party, to have reck-
3                   lessly or willfully violated any provi-
4                   sion of this Act or of the rules, regu-
5                   lations, or orders of the Commission 6                   thereunder; or

7                   “(II) convicted of any criminal 8                   offense that involves a violation of this 9                   Act or of the rules, regulations, or or-10                  ders of the Commission thereunder;
11                  and”;

12                 (2) in subsection (d) (7 U.S.C. 13b)—

13                 (A) by inserting “(1)” after “(d)”; 14                 (B) by striking “$140,000 or triple the 15                 monetary gain to such person,” and inserting 16                 “(A) $1,000,000, in the case of a person who 17                 is an individual, for each violation, (B) 18                 $10,000,000, in the case of any person other 19                 than an individual, for each violation, (C) triple 20                 the monetary gain to the person and all other 21                 persons acting in concert with the person, for 22                 each such violation, or (D) triple the total 23                 amount of losses to persons proximately caused 24                 by each such violation”; and

(C) by striking the period and inserting “; and”; and

(D) by adding after and below the end the following:

5               “(2)(A) A person shall be held liable for a civil 6               penalty in triple the amount otherwise available for 7               a violation under this subsection if the person, with-8               in 5 years preceding such violation, has been—

9                 “(i) found in a proceeding brought by the 10                 Commission, or by agreement of settlement to 11                 which the Commission is a party, to have reck-12                 lessly or willfully violated any provision of this 13                 Act or the rules, regulations, or orders of the 14                 Commission thereunder; or 15                   “(ii) convicted of any criminal offense that 16                   involves violation of this Act or the rules, regu-

17                   lations, or orders of the Commission there-18                   under.”.

19 (c) NONENFORCEMENT OF RULES OF GOVERNMENT
20 OR OTHER VIOLATIONS.—Section 6b of such Act (7 21 U.S.C. 13a) is amended in the 1st sentence—

22                             (1) by striking "$500,000 for each such violation 23                             tion, or, in any case of manipulation or attempted 24                             manipulation in violation of section 6(c), 6(d), or 25                             9(a)(2), a civil penalty of not more than $1,000,000

1       for each such violation” and inserting “(A)
2       $1,000,000, in the case of a person who is an indi-3       vidual, for each violation, (B) $10,000,000, in the 4       case of any person other than an individual, for each
5       violation, (C) triple the monetary gain to the person 6       and all other persons acting in concert with the per-7       son, for each such violation, or (D) triple the total 8       amount of losses to persons proximately caused by 9       each such violation, and such civil penalty shall be 10      assessed for each violation on which a failure to en-
11      force or other violation occurs or has occurred; pro-
12      vided that a registered entity, director, officer, 13      agent, or employee shall be assessed a civil penalty 14      of triple the amount otherwise available if the per-15      son, within 5 years of such violation, has been found 16      in a proceeding brought by the Commission, or by 17      agreement of settlement to which the Commission is 18      a party, to have recklessly or willfully violated any 19      provision of this Act or the rules, regulations, or or-20      ders of the Commission thereunder, or convicted of 21      any criminal offense that involves a violation of this 22      Act or the rules, regulations, or orders of the Com-23      mission thereunder”.

1       (d) ACTION TO ENJOIN OR RESTRAIN VIOLA-
2 TIONS.—Section 6c(d) of such Act (7 U.S.C. 13a-1(d))
3 is amended—

4                 (1) in paragraph (1), by inserting “a civil pen-5 alty in the amount of” after “violation”; and 6                 (2) by striking subparagraphs (A) and (B) of 7 paragraph (1) and inserting the following:

8                     “(A) not more than the greater of—

9                         “(i) “$1,000,000, in the case of a per-10 son who is an individual, for each violation; 11                         “(ii) $10,000,000, in the case of any 12 person other than an individual, for each
13 violation;

14                         “(iii) triple the monetary gain to the 15 person and all other persons acting in con-
16 cert with the person, for each such viola-17 tion; or

18                         “(iv) triple the total amount of losses 19 by persons proximately caused by each 20 such violation; or

21                         “(B) triple the maximum amount other-22 wise available under subparagraph (A) if the 23 person, within 5 years preceding the violation, 24 has been—

1                 “(i) found in a proceeding brought by 2                 the Commission, or by agreement of settle-
3                 ment to which the Commission is a party, 4                 to have recklessly or willfully violated any 5                 provision of this Act or of the rules, regu-
6                 lations, or orders of the Commission there-
7                 under; or

8                 “(ii) convicted of any criminal offense 9                 that involves a violation of this Act or of 10                 the rules, regulations, or orders of the 11                 Commission thereunder.”.

12                 (e) CRIMINAL PENALTIES.—Section 9(a) of such Act 13                 (7 U.S.C. 13(a)) is amended by inserting “in the case of 14                 an individual or $10,000,000 in the case of any person 15                 other than an individual, for each violation,” after 16                 “$1,000,000”.

17                 (f) STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.—Section 9 of such 18                 Act (7 U.S.C. 13) is amended by adding at the end the 19                 following:

20                 “(f) STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.—An action, suit or 21                 proceeding for the enforcement of any civil fine, penalty, 22                 or forfeiture, pecuniary or otherwise, shall not be enter-23                 tained unless commenced within 10 years after the date 24                 when the claim first accrued if, within the same period,

1 the offender or the property is found within the United 2 States in order that proper service may be made thereon.”.

3 SEC. 5. EFFECTIVE DATES.

4 (a) REQUIREMENTS APPLICABLE TO HIGH FRE-
5 QUENCY TRADERS.—The amendment made by section 6 2(a) shall take effect on the date that is 9 months after 7 the date of the enactment of this Act.

8 (b) PENALTIES PROVISIONS.—The amendments
9 made by sections 3 and 4 shall take effect on the date 10 that is 15 days after the date of the enactment of this 11 Act.
