

112TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 3077

To amend the Federal Deposit Insurance Act to ensure that customers have the right to immediately close any account at any insured depository institutions on demand, without cost to the consumer, that consumers receive any balance in their account immediately, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 3, 2011

Mr. MILLER of North Carolina introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services

A BILL

To amend the Federal Deposit Insurance Act to ensure that customers have the right to immediately close any account at any insured depository institutions on demand, without cost to the consumer, that consumers receive any balance in their account immediately, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Freedom and Mobility 5 in Consumer Banking Act”.

1 SEC. 2. FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE ACT AMENDMENTS.

2 The Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. 1811 3 et seq.) is amended by adding at the end the following 4 new section:

5 “SEC. 51. RIGHT TO CLOSE PERSONAL CHECKING AND SAV-
6 INGS ACCOUNTS.

7 “(a) IN GENERAL.—An insured depository institution 8 may not—

9 “(1) prohibit any person from closing a check-10 ing or savings account, regardless of whether the 11 balance in the account is positive, zero, or negative; 12 or

13 “(2) charge any fee to close any such account.

14 “(b) TIME LIMIT.—An account at any insured depos-15 itory institution shall be closed by the institution not later 16 than 48 hours after receiving a request from the customer 17 to close the account.

18 “(c) METHODS OF REQUESTING CLOSURE OF AN AC-
19 COUNT.—

20 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Any accountholder of an 21 account at an insured depository institution may re-22 quest that the account be closed in person, over the 23 phone, or by other electronic or remote means, as 24 may be prescribed by regulation.

25 “(2) EXCEPTION FOR LARGE ACCOUNTS.—Not-26 withstanding paragraph (1), any insured depository

1 institution may require an accountholder of an ac-
2 count which has an outstanding balance of $25,000 3 or more on deposit at the depository institution to 4 close the account in person, to the extent the depository 5 institution has provided written notice of such 6 requirement to the account holder at any time prior 7 to receiving a request from the accountholder to 8 close the account.

9 “(d) REPAYMENT OF BALANCES.—

10 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Any balance in an account 11 at an insured depository institution that is closed by 12 the institution pursuant to a request by the 13 accountholder shall repaid to the accountholder in 14 accordance with the following requirements:

15 “(A) IN PERSON.—If the request is made 16 in person, the total amount of funds on deposit 17 in the account shall be paid to the 18 accountholder at the time the request is made 19 at the consumer’s option and without a fee, by 20 certified check provided to the consumer at the 21 time of the request, by electronic fund transfer 22 executed on that business day to an account 23 designated by the consumer, or by any other 24 means offered by the financial institution if re-25 quested by the consumer.

1 “(B) REQUEST MADE BY OTHER MEANS.—

2 If the request is made over the phone, or by 3 other electronic or remote means, the total 4 amount of funds on deposit in the account shall 5 promptly be remitted by the institution to the 6 accountholder at the consumer’s option and 7 without a fee, by certified check issued on the 8 business day on which the request is received, 9 by electronic fund transfer executed on that 10 business day to an account designated by the 11 consumer, or by any other means offered by the 12 financial institution if requested by the con-13 sumer.

14 “(2) TIME LIMIT.—In any case, the payment by 15 an insured depository institution of the total amount 16 of funds on deposit in an account at the institution 17 which the accountholder has requested be closed 18 shall be remitted to the accountholder before the end 19 of the 3 business day period beginning when the 20 accountholder submits such request.

21 “(e) PROHIBITION ON ANY FEES OR CHARGES 22 AFTER REQUEST TO CLOSE.—No insured depository in-23 stitution may impose any fees or charges on any deposit 24 account at such institution after receiving a request in ac-25 cordance with subsection (c) to close the account.

1 “(f) PROHIBITION ON REOPENING ACCOUNT TO 2 MAKE SUBSEQUENT PAYMENT.—No insured depository 3 institution may reopen an account that the consumer has 4 requested be closed in accordance with subsection (c) to 5 apply subsequent debits, whether preauthorized or other-6 wise, or for any other reason, unless the consumer ex-7 pressly requests that such account be reopened.

8 “(g) NOTICE OF SUBSEQUENT PREAUTHORIZED RE-
9 CURRING DEBITS.—During the 30-day period beginning 10 on the date an account at an insured depository institution 11 is closed pursuant to a request by the accountholder, the 12 insured depository institution shall promptly notify the 13 customer if a preauthorized recurring debit is directed to 14 the account.

15 “(h) LIMITATION ON REPORTING.—

16 “(1) NEGATIVE BALANCE RESULTING FROM 17 FEES.—If, at the time any account at an insured de-18 pository institution is closed, the account has a neg-19 ative balance resulting solely from any fee assessed 20 by the depository institution, the insured depository
21 institution may not report the fact of the out-22 standing balance or any other adverse information
23 with respect to such account to any consumer re-24 porting agency described in section 603(f) of the 25 Fair Credit Reporting Act if such information could

1 be used to adversely affect the consumer's ability to 2 open a transaction account at another depository in-3 stitution.

4 “(2) TREATMENT OF NEGATIVE BALANCE RE-
5 SULTING FROM OVERDRAFTS.—If such information
6 could be used to adversely affect the consumer's 7 ability to open a transaction account at another de-8 pository institution, an insured depository institution
9 shall not report to any consumer reporting agency 10 (as defined in section 603 of the Fair Credit Report-11 ing Act) that an account had a negative balance at 12 the time of the closure of the account unless all of 13 the following conditions are met:

14 “(A) Only if the negative balance is the re-15 sult of funds actually paid by the depository in-16 stitution to a third party.

17 “(B) Only for the amount it actually paid 18 to the third party and not for any fees associ-19 ated with the transaction.

20 “(C) Only to the extent the negative bal-21 ance is the result of credit extended through an 22 overdraft line of credit program where the fee 23 or charge incurred in connection with the over-24 draft is considered a finance charge under the 25 Truth In Lending Act.

1 “(3) NOTICE AND OPPORTUNITY FOR REPAY-2 MENT OF OVERDRAFT.—If an account of an 3 accountholder at an insured depository institution 4 has a negative balance at the time the account is 5 closed, the insured depository institution—

6 “(A) shall promptly notify the 7 accountholder of the fact of the negative bal-8 ance and the amount due; and 9 “(B) may, after the end of the 30-day pe-10 riod beginning on the date notice is provided to 11 an accountholder under subparagraph (A)—

12 “(i) report the fact of the outstanding 13 balance or any other adverse information
14 with respect to such account to any con-
15 sumer reporting agency, subject to the lim-16 itations in paragraph (2); and 17 “(ii) take any other collection activity 18 with respect to such outstanding balance.

19 “(i) TRANSFER OF DIRECT DEPOSIT RECEIVED 20 AFTER NOTICE OF CLOSURE AND PAYMENT.—If—

21 “(1) during the 30-day period beginning after 22 any balance in an account at an insured depository 23 institution that is closed by the institution pursuant 24 to a request by the accountholder has been repaid to 25 the accountholder, a previously scheduled amount in-

1 tended for direct deposit into such account is re-2 ceived by such institution, and

3 “(2) before the time such amount is received, 4 the consumer provides the insured depository insti-
5 tution with an account number and insured deposi-
6 tory institution routing number for a successor
7 transaction or savings account at another insured
8 depository institution,
9 the insured depository institution which receives such 10 amount shall transfer such amount, without a fee and by 11 electronic fund transfer, to the insured depository institu-12 tion identified by the former accountholder for deposit in 13 the transaction or savings account identified by such 14 former accountholder.

15 “(j) REGULATIONS.—The Federal banking agencies
16 shall jointly prescribe regulations to carry out the pur-17 poses of this section.”.
