1 SEC. 2. USE OF FORCE BY FEDERAL LAW ENFORCEMENT

2 OFFICERS.

3 (a) PROHIBITION ON LESS LETHAL FORCE.—A Fed-
4 eral law enforcement officer may not use any less lethal
5 force unless such less lethal force is necessary and propor-
6 tional in order to effectuate an arrest of a person who 7 the officer has probable cause to believe has committed
8 a criminal offense, and only after exhausting reasonable
9 alternatives to the use of such force.

10 (b) PROHIBITION ON DEADLY USE OF FORCE.—A
11 Federal law enforcement officer may not use deadly force 12 against a person unless—

13 (1) such force is necessary, as a last resort, to 14 prevent imminent and serious bodily injury or death
15 to the officer or another person;

16 (2) the use of such forces creates no substantial 17 risk of injury to a third person; and

18 (3) reasonable alternatives to the use of such 19 force have been exhausted.

20 (c) REQUIREMENT TO GIVE VERBAL WARNING.—
21 When feasible, prior to using force against a person, a 22 Federal law enforcement officer shall identify himself or 23 herself as a law enforcement officer, and issue a verbal
24 warning to the person that the law enforcement officer
25 seeks to apprehend, which warning includes—

1 (1) a request that the person surrender to the 2 law enforcement officer; and

3 (2) notifies the person that the law enforcement
4 officer will use force against the person if the person
5 resists arrest or flees.

6 (d) GUIDANCE ON USE OF FORCE.—Not later than 7 120 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the

9 communities, or organizations, including representatives
10 of civil and human rights organizations, victims of police
11 use of force, and representatives of law enforcement asso-
12 ciations, shall provide guidance to Federal law enforce-
13 ment agencies on the types of less lethal force and deadly
14 force that are prohibited under subsections (a) and (b),
15 and how a Federal law enforcement officer can assess 16 whether the use of force is appropriate and necessary, and

19 (2) children and youth under age 21;

20 (3) elderly persons;

21 (4) persons with mental, behavioral, or physical

8 (f) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

9 (1) DEADLY FORCE.—The term “deadly force”
10 means force that creates a substantial risk of caus-
11 ing death or serious bodily injury, including the dis-
12 charge of a firearm, respiratory chokeholds, and 13 multiple discharges of an electronic control weapon.

14 (2) FEDERAL LAW ENFORCEMENT OFFICER.—
15 The term “Federal law enforcement officer” means
16 any officer, agent, or employee of the United States
17 authorized by law or by a Government agency to en-
18 gage in or supervise the prevention, detection, inves-
19 tigation, or prosecution of any violation of Federal 20 criminal law.

21 (3) LESS LETHAL FORCE.—The term “less le-22 thal force” means any degree of force that is not 23 likely to have lethal effect.

24 (4) NECESSARY.—The term “necessary” means
25 that another reasonable Federal law enforcement of-

1 ficer would objectively conclude, under the totality of 2 the circumstances, that there was no reasonable al-
3 ternative to the use of force.

4 (5) REASONABLE ALTERNATIVES.—The term
5 “reasonable alternatives” means tactics and methods
6 used by a law enforcement officer to effectuate an 7 arrest that do not unreasonably increase the risk
8 posed to the law enforcement officer or another per-9 son, including verbal communication, distance, warn-
10 ings, deescalation tactics and techniques, tactical 11 repositioning, and other tactics and techniques in-
12 tended to stabilize the situation and reduce the im-
13 mediacy of the risk so that more time, options, and 14 resources can be called upon to resolve the situation
15 without the use of force. With respect to the use of 16 deadly force, such term includes the use of less le-
17 thal force.

18 (6) DEESCALATION TACTICS AND TECH-
19 NIQUES.—The term “deescalation tactics and tech-
20 niques” means proactive actions and approaches
21 used by a law enforcement officer to stabilize the sit-22 uation so that more time, options, and resources are 23 available to gain a person’s voluntary compliance
24 and reduce or eliminate the need to use force, in-
25 cluding verbal persuasion, warnings, tactical tech-

1 niques, slowing down the pace of an incident, wait-
2 ing out a subject, creating distance between the offi-
3 cer and the threat, and requesting additional re-
4 sources to resolve the incident.

5 (7) TOTALITY OF THE CIRCUMSTANCES.—The 6 term “totality of the circumstances” means all cred-
7 ible facts known to the law enforcement officer lead-
8 ing up to and at the time of the use of force, includ-
9 ing the actions of the person against whom the law
10 enforcement officer uses such force and the actions
11 of the law enforcement officer.

13 (1) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 51 of title 18,
14 United States Code, is amended by adding at the

17 eral law enforcement officers

18 “(a) IN GENERAL.—It is not a defense to an offense
19 under section 1111 or 1112 that the use of less lethal or 20 deadly force was justified in the case of a Federal law en-
21 forcement officer—

22 “(1) whose use of such force was inconsistent
23 with section 2 of the Police Exercising Absolute
24 Care With Everyone Act of 2019; or

1 “(2) whose gross negligence, leading up to and 2 at the time of the use of force, contributed to the

3 in place a law described in subsection (a), and dem-
4 onstrates substantial efforts to enforce such law, the State
5 or other jurisdiction shall be eligible, in the subsequent 6 fiscal year, to receive the total amount that the State or

8 for which funds were withheld, not to exceed the total that
