A BILL

To prohibit discrimination against the unborn on the basis of sex or race, and for other purposes.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Prenatal Non-5 discrimination Act (PRENDA) of 2016”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS AND CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY.

7 (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress makes the following 8 findings:

9 (1) SEX DISCRIMINATION FINDINGS.—

10 (A) Women are a vital part of American
11 society and culture and possess the same funda-
12 mental human rights and civil rights as men.

13 (B) United States law prohibits the dis-14 similar treatment of males and females who are 15 similarly situated and prohibits sex discrimina-
16 tion in various contexts, including the provision 17 of employment, education, housing, health in-18 surance coverage, and athletics.

19 (C) Sex is an immutable characteristic as-20 certainable at the earliest stages of human de-21 velopment through existing medical technology
22 and procedures commonly in use, including ma-
23 ternal-fetal bloodstream DNA sampling, 24 amniocentesis, chorionic villus sampling or 25 “CVS”, and obstetric ultrasound. In addition to

1 medically assisted sex determination, a growing
2 sex-determination niche industry has developed 3 and is marketing low-cost commercial products, 4 widely advertised and available, that aid in the 5 sex determination of an unborn child without 6 the aid of medical professionals. Experts have 7 demonstrated that the sex-selection industry is 8 on the rise and predict that sex selection will 9 continue to be a growing trend in the United 10 States. Sex determination is always a necessary
11 step to the procurement of a sex-selection abor-12 tion.

13 (D) A “sex-selection abortion” is an abor-14 tion undertaken for purposes of eliminating an 15 unborn child of an undesired sex. Sex-selection 16 abortion is barbaric, and described by scholars 17 and civil rights advocates as an act of sex-based 18 or gender-based violence, predicated on sex dis-
19 crimination. Sex-selection abortions are typi-20 cally late-term abortions performed in the 2d or 21 3rd trimester of pregnancy, often after the un-22 born child has developed sufficiently to feel 23 pain. Substantial medical evidence proves that 24 an unborn child can experience pain at 20
25 weeks after conception, and perhaps substan-

1 tially earlier. By definition, sex-selection abor-
2 tions do not implicate the health of the mother
3 of the unborn, but instead are elective proce-
4 dures motivated by sex or gender bias.

5 (E) The targeted victims of sex-selection 6 abortions performed in the United States and 7 worldwide are overwhelmingly female. The se-
8 lective abortion of females is female infanticide, 9 the intentional killing of unborn females, due to 10 the preference for male offspring or “son pref-11 erence”. Son preference is reinforced by the low 12 value associated, by some segments of the world
13 community, with female offspring. Those seg-
14 ments tend to regard female offspring as finan-
15 cial burdens to a family over their lifetime due 16 to their perceived inability to earn or provide fi-17 nancially for the family unit as can a male. In 18 addition, due to social and legal convention, fe-19 male offspring are less likely to carry on the 20 family name. “Son preference” is one of the 21 most evident manifestations of sex or gender 22 discrimination in any society, undermining fe-
23 male equality, and fueling the elimination of fe-
24 males’ right to exist in instances of sex-selection
25 abortion.

(F) Sex-selection abortions are not expressly prohibited by United States law or the laws of 46 States. Sex-selection abortions are performed in the United States. In a March 2008 report published in the Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences, Columbia University economists Douglas Almond and Lena Edlund examined the sex ratio of United States-born children and found “evidence of sex selection, most likely at the prenatal stage”. The data revealed obvious “son preference” in the form of unnatural sex-ratio imbalances within certain segments of the United States population, primarily those segments tracing their origins to countries where sex-selection abortion is prevalent. The evidence strongly suggests that some Americans are exercising sex-selection abortion practices within the United States consistent with discriminatory practices common to their country of origin, or the country to which they trace their ancestry. While sex-selection abortions are more common outside the United States, the evidence reveals that female feticide is also occurring in the United States.

(G) The American public supports a prohibition of sex-selection abortion. In a March 2006 Zogby International poll, 86 percent of Americans agreed that sex-selection abortion should be illegal, yet only eight States proscribe sex-selection abortion. In a 2012 poll conducted by the Charlotte Lozier Institute, 77 percent of Americans agreed that sex-selection abortion should be illegal.

(H) Despite the failure of the United States to proscribe sex-selection abortion, the United States Congress has expressed repeatedly, through Congressional resolution, strong condemnation of policies promoting sex-selection abortion in the “Communist Government of China”. Likewise, at the 2007 United Nation’s Annual Meeting of the Commission on the Status of Women, 51st Session, the United States delegation spearheaded a resolution calling on countries to condemn sex-selective abortion, a policy directly contradictory to the permissiveness of current United States law, which places no restriction on the practice of sex-selection abortion. The United Nations Commission on the Status of Women has urged govern-

1 ments of all nations “to take necessary meas-
2 ures to prevent . . . prenatal sex selection”.

3 (I) A 1990 report by Harvard University
4 economist Amartya Sen, estimated that more
5 than 100 million women were “demographically 6 missing” from the world as early as 1990 due 7 to sexist practices, including sex-selection abor-
8 tion. Many experts believe sex-selection abortion 9 is the primary cause. More recent estimates of 10 women missing from the world range in the 11 hundreds of millions.

12 (J) Countries with longstanding experience
13 with sex-selection abortion—such as the Repub-
14 lic of India, the United Kingdom, and the Peo-
15 ple’s Republic of China—have enacted restric-
16 tions on sex selection, and have steadily contin-
17 ued to strengthen prohibitions and penalties.
18 The United States, by contrast, has no law in 19 place to restrict sex-selection abortion, estab-
20 lishing the United States as affording less pro-
21 tection from sex-based feticide than the Repub-
22 lic of India or the People’s Republic of China, 23 whose recent practices of sex-selection abortion 24 were vehemently and repeatedly condemned by 25 United States congressional resolution and by

1 the United States Ambassador to the Commis-
2 sion on the Status of Women. Public state-
3 ments from within the medical community re-4 veal that citizens of other countries come to the 5 United States for sex-selection procedures that 6 would be criminal in their country of origin. Be-7 cause the United States permits abortion on the 8 basis of sex, the United States may effectively 9 function as a “safe haven” for those who seek 10 to have American physicians do what would 11 otherwise be criminal in their home countries—
12 a sex-selection abortion, most likely late-term.

13 (K) The American medical community op-14 poses sex selection. The American Congress of 15 Obstetricians and Gynecologists (“ACOG”)
16 stated in its 2007 Ethics Committee Opinion,
17 Number 360, that sex selection is inappropriate 18 because it “ultimately supports sexist prac-19 tices”. The American Society of Reproductive 20 Medicine (“ASRM”) published a 2004 Ethics
21 Committee Opinion, noting that central to the 22 controversy of sex selection in the use of as-23 sisted reproductive technology (“ART”) is the 24 potential for “inherent gender discrimination”, 25 . . . the “risk of psychological harm to sex-se-

1 lected offspring (i.e., by placing on them expec-2 tations that are too high)," . . . and "rein-3 forcement of gender bias in society as a whole."
4 Sex selection in ART remains "vulnerable to 5 the judgment that no matter what its basis, 6 [the method] identifies gender as a reason to 7 value one person over another, and it supports 8 socially constructed stereotypes of what gender 9 means." In doing so, it not only "reinforces 10 possibilities of unfair discrimination, but may 11 trivialize human reproduction by making it de-12 pend on the selection of nonessential features of 13 offspring." The ASRM ethics opinion continues, 14 "ongoing problems with the status of women in 15 the United States make it necessary to take ac-
16 count of concerns for the impact of sex-selection 17 on goals of gender equality." The American As-18 sociation of Pro-Life Obstetricians and Gyne-19 cologists, an organization with hundreds of 20 members—many of whom are former abortion-
21 ists—makes the following declaration: "Sex se-22 lection abortions are more graphic examples of 23 the damage that abortion inflicts on women. In 24 addition to increasing premature labor in subse-
25 quent pregnancies, increasing suicide and major

1 depression, and increasing the risk of breast
2 cancer in teens who abort their first pregnancy
3 and delay childbearing, sex selection abortions 4 are often targeted at fetuses simply because the 5 fetus is female. As physicians who care for both 6 the mother and her unborn child, the American 7 Association of Pro-Life Obstetricians and Gyne-8 cologists vigorously opposes aborting fetuses be-9 cause of their gender.” The President’s Council 10 on Bioethics published a Working Paper stating 11 the council’s belief that society’s respect for re-
12 productive freedom does not prohibit the regu-13 lation or prohibition of “sex control”, defined as 14 the use of various medical technologies to 15 choose the sex of one’s child. The publication 16 expresses concern that “sex control might lead 17 to . . . dehumanization and a new eugenics”.

18 (L)(i) Sex-selection abortions are often co-
19 erced, and therefore, the opposite of “choice”.
20 Researchers at the University of California at 21 Berkeley and the University of California at 22 San Francisco completed a study of Indian-
23 American women who had undergone sex-selec-
24 tion abortions in the United States. The study

1 found that sex-selection abortions are often the 2 product of violent coercion.

3 (ii) Women who carried a female unborn
4 child to term said they were subject to varying 5 degrees of verbal and physical abuse, which 6 may be to the point of actually inducing a sex-
7 selection abortion. A woman may be denied
8 food, water, and rest to induce an abortion 9 where the family determines that the woman is 10 carrying a female unborn child. Some women 11 described being hit, pushed, choked and kicked 12 in the abdomen in a husband's attempt to force-
13 ibly terminate a female unborn child. Preg-
14 nancy is already a vulnerable time for women;
15 the most common cause of death for pregnant
16 women in the United States is homicide, often 17 at the hands of the unborn child's father.

18 (iii) The study concluded that sex selection
19 can be the product of an abusive environment
20 created by marital partners, an extended fam-21 ily, or both. One-third of the women in the 22 study reported that a history of family violence
23 exacerbated when they did not give birth to a 24 son. Notably, because the researchers had rea-25 son to fear for the participants' exposure to

1 marital violence, all subjects received informa-
2 tion on local South Asian women's organiza-
3 tions offering assistance for victims of family vi-
4 olence. The failure to bear a son is a serious 5 matter; the birth of a daughter could result in 6 violence or a brutal death for the mother at the 7 hands of the father and mother-in-law. For ex-
8 ample, photojournalist Walter Astrada's re-9 nowned documentary tells the story of an In-10 dian woman who was tortured and abandoned 11 by her husband and mother-in-law for refusing 12 to abort twin girls. Sex-selection abortion has 13 long been considered a form of violence against 14 women, and the study proved that both the 15 women and the unborn daughter are victims of 16 violence where sex-selection abortion is legally 17 available but not sought by the mother. Forty 18 percent of the women had terminated prior 19 pregnancies when they learned that the unborn
20 child was female. Of the women who discovered 21 they were pregnant with a girl during the inter-22 view period, 89 percent underwent a sex-selec-
23 tion abortion. Among those that did not abort
24 their unborn daughters, 100 percent expressed 25 ambivalence about prior sex-selection abortions.

1 Further, 100 percent cited physical and psycho-
2 logical trauma from the past abortions as rea-
3 sons for not seeking another. Most tragically,
4 100 percent expressed guilt, shame and sadness 5 over their inability to “save” the daughters they 6 had aborted.

7 (iv) Coercive sex-selection abortions are 8 suspected in other western countries as well.
9 Following a 2012 investigation of sex-selection
10 abortion in the United Kingdom, Dr. Tony Fal-
11 coner, President of the Royal College of Obstet-12 rics and Gynaecology, raised the specter that 13 women may be experiencing violence and coer-14 cion to force sex-selection abortions.

15 (v) A growing body of research documents
16 the relationship between intimate partner vio-
17 lence and reproductive coercion.

18 (M) Sex-selection abortion harms women.
19 Researchers at the University of California
20 found that women in the United States who un-21 dergo sex-selection abortions are at increased 22 risk for psychological and physical morbidity,
23 documented by their descriptions of depression,
24 anxiety, chronic pain, physical abuse, closely
25 spaced pregnancies, and “forced abortions”.

1 Further, 100 percent of the study participants
2 who chose to carry unborn baby girls cited
3 physical and psychological trauma from past
4 abortions as reasons for not seeking another.
5 Similarly, Indian-Canadian counselor, Aruna
6 Papp, stated publicly that in her 30 years of ex-7 perience treating Indian-Canadian women, she 8 has found that sex-selection abortion is the 9 leading cause of mental illness among women in 10 the Punjabi Health Services, Peel region, and 11 the leading cause of depression and attempted 12 suicide in the South Asian Settlement Services
13 in Scarborough. Some of Papp's patients ob-
14 tained their sex-selection abortions in Michigan 15 and New York. Papp also reports "many other 16 physical ailments that are related to two, three, 17 or four abortions".

18 (N) Sex-selection abortion results in an un-19 natural sex-ratio imbalance. An unnatural sex-20 ratio imbalance is undesirable, due to the in-21 ability of the numerically predominant sex to 22 find mates. Experts worldwide document that a 23 significant sex-ratio imbalance in which males 24 numerically predominate can be a cause of in-25 creased violence and militancy within a society.

1 Likewise, an unnatural sex-ratio imbalance 2 gives rise to the commoditization of humans in 3 the form of human trafficking, and a con-
4 sequent increase in kidnapping and other vio-
5 lent crime.

6 (O) Sex-selection abortions have the effect 7 of diminishing the representation of women in 8 the American population, and therefore, the
9 American electorate.

10 (P) Sex-selection abortion reinforces sex
11 discrimination and has no place in a civilized 12 society.

13 (2) RACIAL DISCRIMINATION FINDINGS.—

14 (A) Minorities are a vital part of American
15 society and culture and possess the same funda-
16 mental human rights and civil rights as the ma-17 jority.

18 (B) United States law prohibits discrimi-
19 nation on the basis of race in various contexts,
20 including employment, education, housing,
21 health insurance coverage, and athletics.

22 (C) A “race-selection abortion” is an abor-23 tion performed for purposes of eliminating an 24 unborn child because the child or a parent of 25 the child is of an undesired race. Race-selection

1 abortion is barbaric, and described by civil 2 rights advocates as an act of race-based vio-
3 lence, predicated on race discrimination. By 4 definition, race-selection abortions do not impli-5 cate the health of mother of the unborn, but in-6 stead are elective procedures motivated by race 7 bias.

8 (D) A thorough review of the history of the 9 American population control movement and its 10 close affiliation with the American Eugenics So-11 ciety reveals a history of targeting certain racial 12 or ethnic groups for “family planning”. This 13 history likely contributes to the current statistic 14 that a Black baby is five times as likely to be 15 aborted as a White baby, often in a federally 16 subsidized clinic.

17 (E) Abortion is the leading cause of death 18 in the Black community. With approximately 19 450,000 Black abortions per year, more Black 20 Americans lose their lives each year to abortion
21 than to cancer, heart disease, diabetes, AIDS, 22 and violence combined. These statistics are de-23 rived by comparing the abortion statistics of the 24 Alan Guttmacher Institute (formerly the re-25 search arm of Planned Parenthood) to the Na-

1 tional Vital Statistics annual reports showing 2 the number of deaths by cause and race. The 3 numbers for each of these variables have re-
4 mained relatively constant from year to year, 5 since 2005.

6 (F) Only one State, Arizona, has enacted
7 law to proscribe the performance of race-selec-
8 tion abortions.

9 (G) Race-selection abortions have the ef-10 fect of diminishing the number of minorities in 11 the American population and therefore, the
12 American electorate.

13 (H) Race-selection abortion reinforces ra-
14 cial discrimination and has no place in a civ-15 ilized society.

16 (3) GENERAL FINDINGS.—

17 (A) The history of the United States in-18 cludes examples of both sex discrimination and 19 race discrimination. The people of the United 20 States ultimately responded in the strongest 21 possible legal terms by enacting constitutional 22 amendments correcting elements of such dis-
23 crimination. Women, once subjected to sex dis-
24 crimination that denied them the right to vote, 25 now have suffrage guaranteed by the 19th

1 Amendment. African-Americans, once subjected 2 to race discrimination through slavery that de-3 nied them equal protection of the laws, now
4 have that right guaranteed by the 14th Amend-
5 ment. The elimination of discriminatory prac-
6 tices has been and is among the highest prior-7 ties and greatest achievements of American 8 history.

9 (B) Implicitly approving the discriminatory
10 practices of sex-selection abortion and race-se-11 lection abortion by choosing not to prohibit 12 them will reinforce these inherently discrimina-13 tory practices, and evidence a failure to protect 14 a segment of certain unborn Americans because 15 those unborn are of a sex or racial makeup that 16 is disfavored. Sex-selection and race-selection 17 abortions trivialize the value of the unborn on 18 the basis of sex or race, reinforcing sex and 19 race discrimination, and coarsening society to 20 the humanity of all vulnerable and innocent 21 human life, making it increasingly difficult to 22 protect such life. Thus, Congress has a compel-23 ling interest in acting—indeed it must act—to 24 prohibit sex-selection abortion and race-selec-
25 tion abortion.

1 (b) CONSTITUTIONAL AUTHORITY.—In accordance 2 with the above findings, Congress enacts the following 3 pursuant to Congress' power under—

4 (1) the Commerce Clause;

9 (4) section 8 of article I to make all laws nec-10 essary and proper for the carrying into execution of 11 powers vested by the Constitution in the Govern-
12 ment of the United States.

13 SEC. 3. DISCRIMINATION AGAINST THE UNBORN ON THE 14 BASIS OF RACE OR SEX.

15 (a) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 13 of title 18, United 16 States Code, is amended by adding at the end the fol-
17 lowing:

18 “§ 250. Discrimination against the unborn on the 19 basis of race or sex

20 "(a) IN GENERAL.—Whoever knowingly—

21 “(1) performs an abortion knowing that such 22 abortion is sought based on the sex, gender, color or 23 race of the child, or the race of a parent of that 24 child;

1 “(2) uses force or the threat of force to intentionally injure or intimidate any person for the purpose of coercing a sex-selection or race-selection
2 abortion;

3 “(3) solicits or accepts funds for the performance of a sex-selection abortion or a race-selection 4 abortion; or

5 “(4) transports a woman into the United States
6 or across a State line for the purpose of obtaining 7 a sex-selection abortion or race-selection abortion; 8 or attempts to do so, shall be fined under this title or im-
9 prisoned not more than 5 years, or both.

10 “(b) CIVIL REMEDIES.—

11 “(1) CIVIL ACTION BY WOMAN ON WHOM ABOR-12 TION IS PERFORMED.—A woman upon whom an 13 abortion has been performed or attempted in viola-
14 tion of subsection (a)(2) may in a civil action 15 against any person who engaged in a violation of 16 subsection (a) obtain appropriate relief.

17 “(2) CIVIL ACTION BY RELATIVES.—The father
18 of an unborn child who is the subject of an abortion
19 performed or attempted in violation of subsection
20 (a), or a maternal grandparent of the unborn child 21 if the pregnant woman is an unemancipated minor, 22 may in a civil action against any person who en-

1 gaged in the violation, obtain appropriate relief, un-2 less the pregnancy or abortion resulted from the 3 plaintiff's criminal conduct or the plaintiff consented 4 to the abortion.

5 “(3) APPROPRIATE RELIEF.—Appropriate relief
6 in a civil action under this subsection includes—

7 “(A) objectively verifiable money damages 8 for all injuries, psychological and physical, in-9 cluding loss of companionship and support, oc-10 casioned by the violation of this section; and 11 “(B) punitive damages.

12 “(4) INJUNCTIVE RELIEF.—

13 “(A) IN GENERAL.—A qualified plaintiff 14 may in a civil action obtain injunctive relief to 15 prevent an abortion provider from performing 16 or attempting further abortions in violation of 17 this section.

18 “(B) DEFINITION.—In this paragraph the 19 term ‘qualified plaintiff’ means—

20 “(i) a woman upon whom an abortion 21 is performed or attempted in violation of 22 this section;

23 “(ii) a maternal grandparent of the 24 unborn child if the woman upon whom an 25 abortion is performed or attempted in vio-

1 lation of this section is an unemancipated
2 minor;

3 “(iii) the father of an unborn child
4 who is the subject of an abortion per-5 formed or attempted in violation of sub-6 section (a); or

7 “(iv) the Attorney General.

8 “(5) ATTORNEYS FEES FOR PLAINTIFF.—The 9 court shall award a reasonable attorney’s fee as part 10 of the costs to a prevailing plaintiff in a civil action 11 under this subsection.

12 “(c) EXCEPTION.—A woman upon whom a sex-selec-13 tion or race-selection abortion is performed may not be 14 prosecuted or held civilly liable for any violation of this 15 section, or for a conspiracy to violate this section.

16 “(d) LOSS OF FEDERAL FUNDING.—A violation of 17 subsection (a) shall be deemed for the purposes of title
18 VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 to be discrimination
19 prohibited by section 601 of that Act.

20 “(e) REPORTING REQUIREMENT.—A physician, phy-21 sician’s assistant, nurse, counselor, or other medical or 22 mental health professional shall report known or suspected 23 violations of any of this section to appropriate law enforce-24 ment authorities. Whoever violates this requirement shall

1 be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than 1
2 year, or both.

3 “(f) EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION.—It shall be the 4 duty of the United States district courts, United States 5 courts of appeal, and the Supreme Court of the United 6 States to advance on the docket and to expedite to the 7 greatest possible extent the disposition of any matter 8 brought under this section.

9 “(g) PROTECTION OF PRIVACY IN COURT PRO-
10 CEEDINGS.—

11 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Except to the extent the 12 Constitution or other similarly compelling reason re-13 quires, in every civil or criminal action under this 14 section, the court shall make such orders as are nec-15 essary to protect the anonymity of any woman upon 16 whom an abortion has been performed or attempted 17 if she does not give her written consent to such dis-18 closure. Such orders may be made upon motion, but 19 shall be made sua sponte if not otherwise sought by 20 a party.

21 “(2) ORDERS TO PARTIES, WITNESSES, AND 22 COUNSEL.—The court shall issue appropriate orders
23 to the parties, witnesses, and counsel and shall di-24 rect the sealing of the record and exclusion of indi-
25 viduals from courtrooms or hearing rooms to the ex-

1 tent necessary to safeguard the identity of the 2 woman described in paragraph (1) from public dis-
3 closure.

4 “(3) PSEUDONYM REQUIRED.—In the absence
5 of written consent of the woman upon whom an 6 abortion has been performed or attempted, any 7 party, other than a public official, who brings an ac-
8 tion under this section shall do so under a pseu-9 donym.

10 “(4) LIMITATION.—This subsection shall not be 11 construed to conceal the identity of the plaintiff or 12 of witnesses from the defendant or from attorneys 13 for the defendant.

14 “(h) DEFINITION.—In this section—

15 “(1) the term ‘abortion’ means the act of using 16 or prescribing any instrument, medicine, drug, or 17 any other substance, device, or means with the in-18 tent to terminate the clinically diagnosable preg-
19 nancy of a woman, with knowledge that the termi-20 nation by those means will with reasonable likelihood 21 cause the death of the unborn child, unless the act 22 is done with the intent to—

23 “(A) save the life or preserve the health of 24 the unborn child;
