5                   Florida State University Seminoles from 1976 to 6                   2009.

7                   (3) While coaching at the Florida State Univer-
8                   sity, Bobby Bowden’s teams won two national cham-

12                  his 34 years at Florida State University.

13                  (5) Throughout his entire 44 years of coaching
14                  college football, Bobby Bowden won a total of 377
15                  games, making him one of the winningest coaches in 16                  college football history.

17                  (6) Bobby Bowden and wife, Ann Estock, his 18                  childhood sweetheart, have been married for 72
19                  years. The couple has six children, 21 grandchildren 20                  and great-grandchildren.

21                  (7) In 1999, he coached what would be the first
22                  of many games against a team coached by his son,
23                  “The Bowden Bowl”. This event was the first of its 24                  kind in the history of Division I-A football.

1                         (8) In 2004, the Fellowship of Christian Ath-

15                         many football accomplishments, he will be remem-
16                         bered as a family man who counted all as part of 17                         his family and encouraged us all to recognize our 18                         own humanity and love our many brothers and sis-
19                         ters.

20                         (13) We are better for having known him, even

22                         nized our failings, and believed we all had merit.

23                         (14) Bobby Bowden's spirit is the American
24                         spirit of which we can be proud and seek to emulate
25                         in both large and small ways.

1                             (15) Bobby Bowden never asked for accolades,
