November 15, 2010.

Resolved, That the House agree to the amendment of the Senate to the bill (H.R. 5566) entitled “An Act to amend title 18, United States Code, to prohibit interstate commerce in animal crush videos, and for other purposes.”, with the following

HOUSE ADMENDMENT TO SENATE AMENDMENT:

In lieu of the matter proposed to be inserted by the amendment of the Senate, insert the following:

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Animal Crush Video
3 Prohibition Act of 2010”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 The Congress finds the following:

6 (1) The United States has a long history of pro-
7 hibiting the interstate sale, marketing, advertising,
8 exchange, and distribution of obscene material and 9 speech that is integral to criminal conduct.

10 (2) The Federal Government and the States have 11 a compelling interest in preventing intentional acts of 12 extreme animal cruelty.

13 (3) Each of the several States and the District of 14 Columbia criminalize intentional acts of extreme ani-

1        mal cruelty, such as the intentional crushing, burn-
2        ing, drowning, suffocating, or impaling of animals
3        for no socially redeeming purpose.

4            (4) There are certain extreme acts of animal cru-
5        elty that appeal to a specific sexual fetish. These acts 6        of extreme animal cruelty are videotaped, and the re-
7        sulting video tapes are commonly referred to as “ani-
8        mal crush videos”.

9            (5) The Supreme Court of the United States has 10       long held that obscenity is an exception to speech pro-
11       TECTED under the First Amendment to the Constitution
12       of the United States.

13           (6) In the judgment of Congress, many animal
14       crush videos are obscene in the sense that the depic-
15       tions, taken as a whole—

16                (A) appeal to the prurient interest in sex;

17                (B) are patently offensive; and

18                (C) lack serious literary, artistic, political,
19       or scientific value.

20           (7) Serious criminal acts of extreme animal cru-
21       elty are integral to the creation, sale, distribution, ad-
22       vertising, marketing, and exchange of animal crush
23       videos.

24           (8) The creation, sale, distribution, advertising, 25       marketing, and exchange of animal crush videos is in-

1        trinsically related and integral to creating an incen-
2        tive for, directly causing, and perpetuating demand
3        for the serious acts of extreme animal cruelty the vid-
4        eos depict. The primary reason for those criminal acts
5        is the creation, sale, distribution, advertising, mar-
6        keting, and exchange of the animal crush video image.

7            (9) The serious acts of extreme animal cruelty
8        necessary to make animal crush videos are committed 9        in a clandestine manner that—

10            (A) allows the perpetrators of such crimes to 11        remain anonymous;

12            (B) makes it extraordinarily difficult to es-
13        tablish the jurisdiction within which the under-
14        lying criminal acts of extreme animal cruelty oc-
15        curred; and

16            (C) often precludes proof that the criminal 17        acts occurred within the statute of limitations.

18            (10) Each of the difficulties described in para-
19        graph (9) seriously frustrates and impedes the ability
20        of State authorities to enforce the criminal statutes
21        prohibiting such behavior.
