A BILL

To require the Attorney General to disclose each decision, order, or opinion of a Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court that includes significant legal interpretation of section 501 or 702 of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978 unless such disclosure is not in the national security interest of the United States and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “FISA Court in the 3 Sunshine Act of 2015”.

4 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

5 Congress finds the following:

6 (1) Secret law is inconsistent with democratic 7 governance. In order for the rule of law to prevail,
8 the requirements of the law must be publicly discov-
9 erable.

10 (2) The United States Court of Appeals for the 11 Seventh Circuit stated in 1998 that the “idea of se-12 cret laws is repugnant”.

13 (3) The open publication of laws and directives
14 is a defining characteristic of government of the 15 United States. The first Congress of the United 16 States mandated that every “law, order, resolution, 17 and vote [shall] be published in at least three of the 18 public newspapers printed within the United 19 States”.

20 (4) The practice of withholding decisions of the 21 Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court is at odds
22 with the United States tradition of open publication
23 of law.

24 (5) The Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court
25 acknowledges that such Court has issued legally sig-
26 nificant interpretations of the Foreign Intelligence

1 Surveillance Act of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.)
2 that are not accessible to the public.

3 (6) The exercise of surveillance authorities
4 under the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 5 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.), as interpreted by se-
6 cret court opinions, potentially implicates the com-
7 munications of United States persons who are nec-
8 essarily unaware of such surveillance.

9 (7) Section 501 of the Foreign Intelligence Sur-
10 veillance Act of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1861), as amended
11 by section 215 of the USA PATRIOT Act (Public 12 Law 107–56; 115 Stat. 287), authorizes the Federal 13 Bureau of Investigation to require the production of 14 “any tangible things” and the extent of such author-
15 ity, as interpreted by secret court opinions, has been 16 concealed from the knowledge and awareness of the 17 people of the United States.

18 (8) In 2010, the Department of Justice and the 19 Office of the Director of National Intelligence estab-
20 lished a process to review and declassify opinions of 21 the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court, but 22 more than two years later no declassifications have 23 been made.

1 SEC. 3. SENSE OF CONGRESS.

2 It is the sense of Congress that each decision, order,
3 or opinion issued by the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance
4 Court or the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court of 5 Review that includes significant construction or interpre-
6 tation of section 501 or section 702 of the Foreign Intel-7 ligence Surveillance Act of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1861 and 8 1881a) should be declassified in a manner consistent with 9 the protection of national security, intelligence sources and 10 methods, and other properly classified and sensitive infor-
11 mation.

12 SEC. 4. REQUIREMENT FOR DISCLOSURE OF DECISIONS,
13 ORDERS, AND OPINIONS OF THE FOREIGN IN-
14 TELLIGENCE SURVEILLANCE COURT.

18           available in a manner that protects the national se-
19           curity of the United States, including methods or 20           sources related to national security, the Attorney
21           General shall release an unclassified summary of 22           such decision.

24           paragraphs (2) and (3), if the Attorney General

3           of this section.
