7       Section 9(b)(15) of the Richard B. Russell National 8       School Lunch Act (42 U.S.C. 1758(b)(15)) is amended—
9                   (1) in subparagraph (A)—

1                             (A) by striking clause (i) and inserting the 2                             following:

3                             “(i) ELIGIBLE CHILD.—

4                             “(I) IN GENERAL.—The term ‘el-5                             igible child’ means a child who—

6                             “(aa)(AA) is eligible for and 7                             receiving medical assistance
8                             under the Medicaid program; and

9                             “(BB) is a member of a
10                             family with an income as meas-
11                             ured by the Medicaid program
12                             that does not exceed, in the case
13                             of eligibility for free meals, 133
14                             percent of the poverty line (as 15                             defined in section 673(2) of the 16                             Community Services Block Grant
17                             Act (42 U.S.C. 9902(2)), includ-
18                             ing any revision required by such 19                             section) applicable to a family of 20                             the size used for purposes of de-
21                             termining eligibility for the Med-
22                             icaid program, or, in the case of 23                             eligibility for reduced price meals,
24                             the applicable family size income
25                             level under the income eligibility

1 guidelines for reduced price
2 meals; or

3 “(bb) is a member of a
4 household (as that term is de-
5 fined in section 245.2 of title 7,
6 Code of Federal Regulations (or 7 a successor regulation)) with a
8 child described in item (aa).

9 “(II) OTHER CHILDREN.—The 10 term ‘eligible child’ includes a child
11 who is eligible for and receiving med-
12 ical assistance under the Medicaid
13 program under subclause (I) of sec-
14 tion 1902(a)(10)(A)(i) of the Social 15 Security Act (42 U.S.C.
16 1396a(a)(10)(A)(i))—

17 “(aa) on the basis of receiv-
18 ing aid or assistance under the 19 State plan approved under part
20 E of title IV of that Act (42
21 U.S.C. 670 et seq.);

22 “(bb) by reason of section
23 473(b) of that Act (42 U.S.C.
24 673(b)); or

1                         “(cc) under subclause (II) of 2                         section 1902(a)(10)(A)(i) of that

3                         Act                     (42                     U.S.C.

4                         1396a(a)(10)(A)(i)).”; and

5                         (B) by adding at the end the following:

6                         “(iii) WITHOUT FURTHER APPLICA-
7                         TION.—The term ‘without further applica-
8                         tion’ has the meaning given the term in 9                         paragraph (4)(G).”; and

10                         (2) by striking subparagraphs (B) through (H)

11                         and inserting the following:

12                         “(B) AGREEMENT.—For the school year
13                         beginning on July 1, 2022, and each school
14                         year thereafter, each State shall enter into an 15                         agreement described in subparagraph (C) with 16                         the 1 or more State agencies conducting eligi-
17                         bility determinations for the Medicaid program.

18                         “(C) PROCEDURES.—

19                         “(i) IN GENERAL.—Subject to sub-20                         paragraph (D) and paragraph (6), an 21                         agreement entered into under subpara-
22                         graph (B) shall establish procedures under 23                         which an eligible child shall be certified as 24                         eligible, without further application, for—

1                         “(I) free or reduced price lunch
2                         under this Act; and

3                         “(II) free or reduced price break-
4                         fast under section 4 of the Child Nu-
5                         trition Act of 1966 (42 U.S.C. 1773).

6                         “(ii) FREE MEALS.—Each agreement 7                         entered into under subparagraph (B) shall 8                         ensure that a child who is simultaneously
9                         eligible for reduced price meals under this 10                        paragraph or based on an income eligibility 11                        determination, and for free meals based on 12                        documentation provided under subsection
13                        (d)(2), shall be certified for free meals.

14                        “(D) CERTIFICATION.—Subject to para-
15                        graph (6), and according to an agreement en-
16                        tered into under subparagraph (B), the local 17                        educational agency conducting eligibility deter-18                        minations under that agreement shall certify an 19                        eligible child as eligible, without further applica-20                        tion, for—

21                         “(i) free or reduced price lunch under 22                         this Act; and

23                         “(ii) free or reduced price breakfast
24                         under section 4 of the Child Nutrition Act
25                         of 1966 (42 U.S.C. 1773).”.
