H. R. 7770

To require the Secretary of the Treasury to mint coins in commemoration of the women who contributed to the Home Front during World War II, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 21, 2024

Mr. GARAMENDI (for himself, Mr. HUFFMAN, Mr. MULLIN, Mr. FITZPATRICK, Mrs. DINGELL, and Mr. DESAULNIER) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services

A BILL

To require the Secretary of the Treasury to mint coins in commemoration of the women who contributed to the Home Front during World War II, and for other purposes.

1 *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Rosie the Riveter Com-
5 memorative Coin Act”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 The Congress finds the following:

1 (1) During World War II, more than six million
2 American women entered the workforce to fill the 3 vacancies left by men who had joined the Armed 4 Forces and support the Home Front. Millions of 5 women already working outside the home shifted to 6 employment in critical industries to support the war
7 effort.

8 (2) Women went to work or volunteer full-time 9 in factories, farms, shipyards, banks, and other in-10 stitutions in support of the U.S. military overseas.
11 They worked with the United Service Organizations
12 and the American Red Cross, drove street cars, riv-
13 eted airplane parts, collected critical materials, rolled 14 bandages, and served on rationing boards.

15 (3) This women workforce met not only the 16 ever-growing demands for war materials, including 17 equipment, weaponry, ammunition, and military ra-18 tions, but also the demand for support services in 19 schools, hospitals, and offices.

20 (4) Collectively, the American women who held 21 employment or volunteered in support of the war ef-
22 fort during World War II have been represented by 23 the iconic image of “Rosie the Riveter”.

24 (5) As riveters, welders, and other laborers, a 25 diverse women workforce played an integral part in

1 shipyards, aircraft factories, and other areas of the 2 defense industrial base.

3 (6) Women in the workforce faced the “double
4 burden” of responsibilities on the job and at home 5 as the primary caregivers and wage earners during 6 World War II.

7 (7) “Rosies” persevered often in the face of 8 harassment, discrimination, and prejudice to support
9 their country and families in a time of great need.
10 Despite equal pay regulations, women were regularly
11 paid 10 to 15 cents an hour lower than their male
12 counterparts even during wartime.

13 (8) Black, Latina, Indigenous, Asian American,
14 and Pacific Islander “Rosies” were subjected to rac-
15 ist discrimination, violence, and harassment at work,
16 at home, and in public. Women of color overcame
17 long-held policies of discrimination and racial seg-
18 reation to make significant contributions to the war
19 effort and labor market.

20 (9) Our “Rosies” are a testament to women’s 21 empowerment and the invaluable contribution of 22 women to the American war effort during World
23 War II, inspiring future generations of women and 24 girls.

1 (10) Americans have chosen to honor the 2 women who contributed to the Home Front during 3 World War II, including through the award of a
4 Congressional Gold Medal and the annual celebra-
5 tion of National Rosie the Riveter Day on March 21.

6 (11) The work, sacrifice, and dedication of our 7 “Rosies” are worthy of national reflection and com-
8 memoration.

9 (12) It is fitting and proper to recognize and 10 preserve the history and legacy of American women
11 who contributed to the Home Front during World
12 War II for their patriotic commitment to their coun-
13 try and perseverance in the face of adversity.
