

118TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 7828

To prohibit the pricing of consumer products and services that are substantially similar if such products or services are priced differently based on the gender of the individuals for whose use the products are intended or marketed or for whom the services are performed or offered.

---

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MARCH 26, 2024

Mrs. TORRES of California (for herself, Mrs. BEATTY, Ms. BONAMICI, Mr. BOWMAN, Ms. BROWNLEY, Ms. CLARKE of New York, Ms. CHU, Mr. CONNOLLY, Ms. DEAN of Pennsylvania, Mrs. DINGELL, Ms. LOIS FRANKEL of Florida, Mr. FROST, Ms. GARCIA of Texas, Mr. GREEN of Texas, Mr. JOHNSON of Georgia, Mrs. HAYES, Mr. KHANNA, Ms. KELLY of Illinois, Ms. MOORE of Wisconsin, Ms. NORTON, Ms. OMAR, Mr. POCAN, Mrs. RAMIREZ, Mr. SCHIFF, Ms. TITUS, Ms. VELÁZQUEZ, Ms. WASSERMAN SCHULTZ, and Mrs. WATSON COLEMAN) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Energy and Commerce

---

A BILL

To prohibit the pricing of consumer products and services that are substantially similar if such products or services are priced differently based on the gender of the individuals for whose use the products are intended or marketed or for whom the services are performed or offered.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

2 This Act may be cited as the “Pink Tax Repeal Act”.

3 SEC. 2. PROHIBITION ON GENDER-BASED PRICING OF CON-*4 SUMER PRODUCTS AND SERVICES.*5 (a) PROHIBITED PRACTICES.—

6 (1) CONSUMER PRODUCTS.—It shall be unlaw-
7 ful for any person to sell or offer for sale in inter-8 state commerce any two consumer products from the 9 same manufacturer that are substantially similar if 10 such products are priced differently based on the 11 gender of the individuals for whose use the products
12 are intended or marketed.

13 (2) SERVICES.—It shall be unlawful for any 14 person to sell or offer for sale any services that are 15 substantially similar if such services are priced dif-
16 ferently based on the gender of the individuals for 17 which the services are performed, offered, or mar-
18 keted.

19 (b) ENFORCEMENT BY THE COMMISSION.—

20 (1) UNFAIR AND DECEPTIVE ACT OR PRAC-
21 TICE.—A violation of subsection (a) shall be treated
22 as a violation of a rule prescribed under section
23 18(a)(1)(B) of the Federal Trade Commission Act
24 (15 U.S.C. 57a(a)(1)(B)) defining an unfair or de-
25 ceptive act or practice in or affecting interstate com-
26 merce.

1                             (2) POWERS OF THE COMMISSION.—The Federal 2     Trade Commission shall enforce this section in 3     the same manner, by the same means, and with the 4     same jurisdiction, powers, and duties as though all
5     applicable terms and provisions of the Federal Trade
6     Commission Act were incorporated into and made a 7     part of this Act.

8                             (3) PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES.—Any person 9     who violates subsection (a) shall be subject to the 10    penalties and entitled to the privileges and immuni-
11    ties provided in the Federal Trade Commission Act
12    (15 U.S.C. 41 et seq.).

13                          (4) AUTHORITY PRESERVED.—Nothing in this 14    section shall be construed to limit the authority of 15    the Commission under any other provision of law.

16                          (c) STATE ATTORNEYS GENERAL.—

17                          (1) CIVIL ACTION.—In any case in which the 18    attorney general of a State has reason to believe 19    that an interest of the residents of the State has 20    been or is adversely affected by a violation of sub-
21    section (a), the attorney general may, as parens
22    patriae, bring a civil action on behalf of the resi-23    dents of the State in an appropriate district court of 24    the United States—

1                             (A) to enjoin further violation of such sub-2                             section by the defendant;

3                             (B) to compel compliance with such sub-4                             section; or

5                             (C) obtain damages, restitution, or other 6                             compensation on behalf of residents of the 7                             State.

8                             (2) NOTICE TO THE COMMISSION.—

9                             (A) NOTICE.—Except as provided in sub-10                             paragraph (C), the attorney general of a State 11                             shall notify the Commission in writing that the 12                             attorney general intends to bring a civil action 13                             under paragraph (1) not later than 10 days be-14                             fore initiating the civil action.

15                             (B) CONTENTS.—The notice required by 16                             subparagraph (A) shall include a copy of the 17                             complaint to be filed to initiate such civil ac-18                             tion.

19                             (C) EXCEPTION.—If it is not feasible for 20                             the attorney general of a State to provide the 21                             notice required by subparagraph (A), the attor-
22                             ney general shall notify the Commission imme-23                             diately upon instituting a civil action under 24                             paragraph (1).

1                                 (3) INTERVENTION BY THE COMMISSION.—The 2                                 Commission may—

3                                     (A) intervene in any civil action brought by 4                                     the attorney general of a State under this sub-5                                     section; and

6                                     (B) upon intervening, be heard on all mat-
7                                     ters arising in such civil action and file peti-8                                     tions for appeal of a decision in such action.

9                                 (4) INVESTIGATORY POWERS.—Nothing in this 10                                 subsection may be construed to prevent the attorney 11                                 general of a State from exercising the powers con-12                                 ferred on the attorney general by the laws of the 13                                 State to conduct investigations, to administer oaths 14                                 or affirmations, or to compel the attendance of wit-15                                 nesses or the production of documentary or other 16                                 evidence.

17                                 (5) PREEMPTIVE ACTION BY THE COMMIS-18                                 SION.—If the Commission institutes a civil action or 19                                 an administrative action for a violation of this sec-20                                 tion, the attorney general of a State may not, during 21                                 the pendency of such action, bring a civil action 22                                 under this subsection against any defendant named 23                                 in the complaint of the Commission for the violation
24                                 with respect to which the Commission instituted 25                                 such action.

1                   (6) ACTIONS BY OTHER STATE OFFICIALS.—

2                   (A) IN GENERAL.—In addition to any civil 3                   action brought by an attorney general under 4                   paragraph (1), any other consumer protection
5                   officer of a State who is authorized by the State 6                   to do so may bring a civil action under para-
7                   graph (1), subject to the same requirements
8                   and limitations that apply under this subsection
9                   to civil actions brought by an attorney general.

10                  (B) SAVINGS PROVISION.—Nothing in this 11                  subsection may be construed to prohibit an au-12                  thorized official of a State from initiating or 13                  continuing any proceeding in a court of the 14                  State for a violation of any civil or criminal law
15                  of the State.

16                  (d) RULES OF CONSTRUCTION.—

17                  (1) SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR PRODUCTS.—For 18                  purposes of this section, two consumer products are 19                  substantially similar if there are no substantial dif-20                  ferences in the materials used in the product, the in-21                  tended use of the product, and the functional design
22                  and features of the product. A difference in coloring 23                  among any consumer products shall not be con-24                  strued as a substantial difference for purposes of 25                  this paragraph.

1                             (2) SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR SERVICES.—For 2                             purposes of this section, two services are substan-3                             tially similar if there is no substantial difference in 4                             the amount of time to provide the services, the dif-
5                             ficulty in providing the services, or the cost of pro-6                             viding the services.

7                             (e) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

8                             (1) COMMISSION.—The term “Commission”
9                             means the Federal Trade Commission.

10                            (2) CONSUMER PRODUCT.—The term “con-11                             sumer product”—

12                             (A) has the meaning given such term in 13                             section 3 of the Consumer Product Safety Act
14                             (15 U.S.C. 2052);

15                             (B) includes a device or cosmetics, as such 16                             terms are defined in section 201 of the Federal 17                             Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (21 U.S.C.
18                             321); and

19                             (C) includes a child restraint system, as 20                             such term is defined in section 571.213 of title 21                             49, Code of Federal Regulations.

