

118TH CONGRESS
2D SESSION

H. R. 7965

To include requirements relating to ransomware attack deterrence for a covered U.S. financial institution in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

APRIL 11, 2024

Ms. PETTERSEN (for herself and Mr. McHENRY) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Financial Services

A BILL

To include requirements relating to ransomware attack deterrence for a covered U.S. financial institution in the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021, and for other purposes.

1 *Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,*

3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4 This Act may be cited as the “Ransomware and Fi-5 nancial Stability Act of 2024”.

6 SEC. 2. RANSOMWARE ATTACK DETERRENCE.

7 (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 108 of title I of division
8 Q of the Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2021 (Public

1 Law 116–260; 135 Stat. 2173; 12 U.S.C. 1811 note) is 2 amended—

3 (1) in the subsection heading, by striking “RE-
4 PORT”;

5 (2) by redesignating subsections (d) and (e) as 6 subsections (e) and (f), respectively;

7 (3) by inserting the following after subsection
8 (c):

9 “(d) RANSOMWARE ATTACK DETERRENCE.—

10 “(1) REQUIREMENTS.—

11 “(A) IN GENERAL.—A covered U.S. financial 12 institution subject to a ransomware attack 13 may not make a ransomware payment in re-
14 sponse to such ransomware attack—

15 “(i) before submitting the notification 16 described in paragraph (2); and 17 “(ii) in an amount greater than 18 $100,000, unless the payment is subject to 19 a ransomware payment authorization.

20 “(B) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing
21 in this subsection shall be construed to permit
22 a ransomware payment that is otherwise pro-
23 hibited by law.

24 “(2) NOTIFICATION DESCRIBED.—

1 “(A) IN GENERAL.—The notification de-2 scribed in this paragraph shall be submitted by 3 a covered U.S. financial institution to the Di-
4 rector of the Financial Crimes Enforcement
5 Network and shall include—

6 “(i) a determination by such institu-
7 tion that such institution is subject to a 8 ransomware attack; and

9 “(ii) a description of the ransomware
10 attack and any associated ransomware
11 payment demanded.

12 “(B) CONTENTS.—To ensure efficient noti-
13 fication and resolution of a ransomware attack,
14 the Secretary of the Treasury—

15 “(i) shall, in consultation with inter-16 ested persons, issue guidance specifying in-17 formation required to be included in the 18 notification described in this paragraph;
19 and

20 “(ii) may not require, to be included 21 in such notification, information that is 22 unavailable to a covered U.S. financial in-23 stitution, based on good-faith efforts of 24 such institution to provide information.

1 “(3) WAIVER.—The President may waive the 2 requirements of paragraph (2) with respect to a cov-
3 ered U.S. financial institution if the President deter-4 mines that the waiver is in the national interest of 5 the United States and notifies such institution and 6 the appropriate members of Congress of such waiv-7 er.

8 “(4) SAFE HARBOR WITH RESPECT TO 9 RANSOMWARE PAYMENT AUTHORIZATIONS AND 10 GOOD-FAITH DETERMINATIONS.—

11 “(A) IN GENERAL.—With respect to a 12 ransomware payment made under paragraph 13 (2)(B) or a waiver issued under paragraph 14 (3)—

15 “(i) a U.S. financial institution shall 16 not be liable under subchapter II of chap-17 ter 53 of title 31, United States Code, or 18 chapter 2 of title I of Public Law 91–508
19 (12 U.S.C. 1951 et seq.) for making a
20 ransomware payment consistent with the 21 parameters and timing of a ransomware
22 payment authorization; and

23 “(ii) no Federal or State department
24 or agency may take any adverse super-
25 visory action with respect to the U.S. fi-

1 nancial institution solely for making a
2 ransomware payment consistent with the 3 parameters and timing of the authoriza-
4 tion.

5 “(B) GOOD-FAITH EFFORTS TO ASSESS
6 RANSOMWARE ATTACKS.—A covered U.S. finan-
7 cial institution may not be held liable for defi-
8 ciencies in describing a ransomware attack in a 9 notification described under paragraph (2) if 10 such institution engaged in good-faith efforts to 11 determine the nature of the ransomware attack.

12 “(C) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing
13 in this paragraph may be construed—

14 “(i) to prevent a Federal or State de-
15 partment or agency from verifying the va-
16 lidity of a ransomware payment authoriza-
17 tion with the law enforcement agency sub-
18 mitting that authorization;

19 “(ii) to relieve a U.S. financial institu-
20 tion from complying with any other provi-
21 sion of law, including the reporting of sus-
22 picious transactions under section 5318(g)
23 of title 31, United States Code; or

1 “(iii) to extend the safe harbor de-
2 scribed in this paragraph to any actions
3 taken by the U.S. financial institution—

4 “(I) before the date of issuance
5 of ransomware payment authorization;
6 or

7 “(II) after any termination date
8 stated in the ransomware payment au-
9 thorization.

10 “(D) RANSOMWARE PAYMENT AUTHORIZA-
11 TION TERMINATION DATE.—Any ransomware
12 payment authorization submitted under this 13 subsection shall include a termination date after 14 which that authorization shall no longer apply.

15 “(E) RECORDS.—Any Federal law enforce-16 ment agency that submits to a U.S. financial 17 institution a ransomware payment authorization 18 shall, not later than 2 business days after the 19 date on which the authorization is submitted to 20 the U.S. financial institution—

21 “(i) submit to the Director of the Fi-
22 nancial Crimes Enforcement Network a 23 copy of the authorization; and

1 “(ii) alert the Director as to whether
2 the U.S. financial institution has imple-
3 mented the request.

4 “(F) GUIDANCE.—The Secretary of the 5 Treasury, in coordination with the Attorney
6 General, shall issue guidance on the required
7 elements of a ransomware payment authoriza-
8 tion.

9 “(5) CONFIDENTIALITY OF INFORMATION.—

10 “(A) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in 11 paragraph (2), any information or document
12 provided by a U.S. financial institution to a 13 Federal law enforcement agency pursuant to 14 this subsection—

15 “(i) shall be exempt from disclosure
16 under section 552 of title 5, United States
17 Code; and

18 “(ii) may not be made publicly avail-
19 able.

20 “(B) EXCEPTIONS.—Paragraph (1) shall 21 not prohibit the disclosure of the following:

22 “(i) Information relevant to any ad-
23 ministrative or judicial action or pro-
24 ceeding.

1 “(ii) Information requested by the appropriate members of Congress or otherwise required to be submitted to Congress.

2 “(iii) Information required for Federal 3 law enforcement or intelligence purposes
4 (as determined by the Attorney General),
5 in consultation with the Director of the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network to be 6 disclosed to a domestic governmental entity
7 or to a governmental entity of a United States ally or partner, only to the extent necessary for such purposes, and subject to appropriate confidentiality and classification requirements.

8 “(iv) Anonymized information required for the production of aggregate data or statistical analyses.

9 “(v) Information that the U.S. financial institution has consented to be disclosed to third parties.

10 “(6) DEFINITIONS.—In this subsection:

11 “(A) COVERED U.S. FINANCIAL INSTITUTION.—The term ‘covered U.S. financial institution’ means—

1 “(i) any financial market utility that
2 the Financial Stability Oversight Council
3 has designated as systemically important
4 under section 804 of the Dodd-Frank Wall
5 Street Reform and Consumer Protection
6 Act;

7 “(ii) any exchange registered under 8 section 6 of the Securities Exchange Act of 9 1934 that facilitates trading in any na-
10 tional market system security, as defined 11 in section 242.600 of title 17, Code of 12 Federal Regulations (or any successor reg-13 ulation), and which exchange during at 14 least four of the preceding six calendar 15 months had—

16 “(I) with respect to all national 17 market system securities that are not 18 options, 10 percent or more of the av-19 erage daily dollar volume reported by 20 applicable transaction reporting plans;
21 or

22 “(II) with respect to all listed op-
23 tions, 15 percent or more of the aver-24 age daily dollar volume reported by 25 applicable national market system

1 plans for reporting transactions in 2 listed options; and

3 “(iii) any technology service provider
4 in the Significant Service Provider Pro-
5 gram of the Financial Institutions Exam-
6 ination Council that provides core proc-7 essing services that is determined by the 8 Council to be a significant technology serv-
9 ice provider.

10 “(B) MALICIOUS SOFTWARE.—The term
11 ‘malicious software’ means software that, when 12 deployed, results in the loss of access to data or 13 the loss of functionality of an information and 14 communications system or network of a U.S. fi-
15 nancial institution.

16 “(C) RANSOMWARE ATTACK.—The term
17 ‘ransomware attack’ means the deployment of 18 malicious software for the purpose of demand-
19 ing payment in exchange for restoring critical 20 access to, or the critical functionality of, an in-21 formation and communications system or net-22 work.

23 “(D) RANSOMWARE PAYMENT.—The term
24 ‘ransomware payment’ means a payment made
25 by a U.S. financial institution (including a pay-

1 ment made through use of digital currency) to,
2 at the request of, or for the benefit of a person
3 responsible for a ransomware attack in ex-4 change for restoration of the access or 5 functionality of an information and communica-
6 tions system or network of the institution.

7 “(E) RANSOMWARE PAYMENT AUTHORIZA-
8 TION.—The term ‘ransomware payment author-
9 ization’ means, with respect to a ransomware
10 payment made by a U.S. financial institution, a 11 written notice from a Federal law enforcement 12 agency to authorize such ransomware pay-13 ment.”;

14 (4) in subsection (f), as so redesignated, by 15 striking “after the date of enactment of this Act” 16 and inserting “after the date of enactment of the 17 Ransomware and Financial Stability Act of 2024”; 18 and

19 (5) by adding at the end the following new sub-20 section:

21 “(g) SHORT TITLE.—This section may be cited as the 22 ‘Cybersecurity and Financial System Resilience Act’.”.

23 (b) APPLICABILITY.—The amendments made by this 24 Act shall apply to a covered U.S. financial institution (as 25 defined in subsection (d) of the Cybersecurity and Finan-

1 cial System Resilience Act (Public Law 116–260; 135
2 Stat. 2173; 12 U.S.C. 1811 note), as added by this Act) 3 beginning on the earlier of the date that is—

4 (1) 30 days after publication in the Federal 5 Register of rules implementing this Act; or 6 (2) 1 year after the date of the enactment of 7 this Act.

8 (c) SUNSET.—This Act and the amendments made
9 by this Act shall be repealed 10 years after the applica-10 bility date described in subsection (b).
