

118TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 863

To amend title 18, United States Code, to prohibit a publishing house from knowingly furnishing sexually explicit material to a school or an educational agency, to prohibit Federal funds from being provided to a school that obtains or an educational agency that distributes sexually explicit material, and for other purposes.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FEBRUARY 7, 2023

Mr. MILLS introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Education and the Workforce, and in addition to the Committee on the Judiciary, for a period to be subsequently determined by the Speaker, in each case for consideration of such provisions as fall within the jurisdiction of the committee concerned

A BILL

To amend title 18, United States Code, to prohibit a publishing house from knowingly furnishing sexually explicit material to a school or an educational agency, to prohibit Federal funds from being provided to a school that obtains or an educational agency that distributes sexually explicit material, and for other purposes.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1 SECTION 1. PROHIBITION ON KNOWINGLY FURNISHING

26 published material in violation of paragraph (1)

1 shall be fined under this title, imprisoned not
2 more than 5 years, or both.

3 “(B) AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE.—It shall be
4 an affirmative defense to a charge of violating
5 subparagraph (A) if the defendant proves, by a
6 preponderance of the evidence, that an indi-
7 vidual at a higher management level knowingly
8 authorized the furnishing of the published ma-
9 terial involved.

10 “(b) EXCEPTED MATERIAL.—The prohibitions in 11 subsection (a) do not apply with respect to material with 12 serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value.

13 “(c) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:
