19                     VIDUALS OVER AGE 20 AND WITHOUT QUALI-
20                     FYING CHILD.—

21                     “(i) IN GENERAL.—In the case of an 22     individual (or, if the individual is married,
23     either the individual or the individual’s 24     spouse) who—

1                         “(I) has attained the age of 21
2                         but not attained age 25 before the 3                         close of the taxable year, and

4                         “(II) is not a full-time student at 5                         any time during the taxable year,
6                         paragraph (1)(A)(ii)(II) shall not apply for 7                         purposes of determining whether such indi-
8                         vidual is an eligible individual.

9                         “(ii) STUDENT.—For purposes of this 10                         subparagraph, an individual shall be con-
11                         sidered a full-time student if such indi-
12                         vidual is carrying more than  $\frac{1}{2}$  the normal
13                         full-time work load for the course of study 14                         the individual is pursuing.”.

15                         (2) INFORMATION RETURN MATCHING.—Not 16                         later than 1 year after the date of the enactment of 17                         this Act, the Secretary of the Treasury shall develop 18                         and implement procedures for checking an individ-19                         ual’s claim for a credit under section 32 of the In-20                         ternal Revenue Code of 1986, by reason of sub-
21                         section (c)(1)(G) thereof, against any information 22                         return made with respect to such individual under 23                         section 6050S (relating to returns relating to higher 24                         education tuition and related expenses).
