A BILL

To direct the Secretary of Transportation to require certain air carriers to develop and regularly update an operational resiliency strategy, and for other purposes.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2   tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
3   SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Ensuring Airline Resil-
5   iency to Reduce Delays and Cancellations Act”.

6   SEC. 2. AIRLINE OPERATIONAL RESILIENCY PLANS.

7       (a) IN GENERAL.—Not later than 1 year after the date
8   of enactment of this Act, the Secretary of Transportation
9   shall require a covered carrier to develop and regularly up-
10   date an operational resiliency strategy to prevent or limit
11   the impact of future flight disruptions on passengers.

12       (b) OPERATIONAL RESILIENCY STRATEGY.—In each
13   operational resiliency strategy developed under subsection
14   (a), a covered carrier shall include a description of—

15           (1) the potential impact of severe weather and 16   other reasonably anticipated disruptive events on the 17   operations of the carrier and how the carrier seeks to 18   prevent or limit the impact of such events on pas-
19   sengers;

20           (2) the potential impact of severe weather events
21   and other reasonably anticipated disruptive events
22   on—

23           (A) staffing models, including the ability of 24   such models to ensure the workforce is able to 25   adequately respond to such events and reschedule

1           passengers, flight crews, operations staff, and 2           other appropriate personnel; and

3           (B) the current information and technology
4           systems of the carrier, including crew scheduling
5           systems, and the preparedness of such systems to 6           continue operations after such an event or dis-
7           ruption;

8           (3) the preparedness of the carrier to maintain 9           operations and limit or prevent the impact of other 10          potential disruptive events identified by the carrier;

11          (4) the extent to which the carrier addresses
12          known cybersecurity risks and information technology
13          deficiencies and vulnerabilities to prevent potential 14          flight disruptions; and

15          (5) any other issues the Secretary determines ap-16          propriate to protect consumers and maintain the 17          operational stability of the airline industry.

18          (c) PROPRIETARY INFORMATION.—The Secretary shall 19          develop a method to protect the confidentiality of any trade 20          secret or proprietary information submitted in an oper-
21          ational resiliency strategy under subsection (b).

22          (d) EVALUATION.—

23          (1) AUDIT.—Not later than 3 years after the 24          date of enactment of this Act, the Comptroller General
25          of the United States shall initiate an audit to evalu-

1       ate the effectiveness of the operational resiliency strat-
2       egies developed under this section by covered air car-
3       riers.

4           (2) REPORT.—Not later than 1 year after com-
5       pletion of the audit conducted under paragraph (1),
6       the Comptroller General shall submit to the Com-
7       mittee on Transportation and Infrastructure of the 8       House of Representatives and the Committee on Com-
9       merce, Science, and Transportation of the Senate a 10      report on the findings of the audit.

11       (e) COVERED CARRIER.—In this section, the term
12      “covered carrier” has the meaning given such term in sec-
13      tion 259.3 of title 14, Code of Federal Regulations (or suc- 14      cessor regulations).
