3 SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

5 Financial Abuse Act of 2024”.

6 SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7 The Congress finds the following:

1 (1) Economic abuse is a serious issue impacting
2 vulnerable populations.

3 (2) Economic abuse occurs in 99 percent of
4 abusive relationships and is the number 1 reason
5 victims of abuse stay in or return to abusive rela-
6 tionships.

7 (3) Coerced debt is a form of economic abuse
8 and an avenue for abusers to limit the economic
9 independence of an individual.

10 (4) Coerced debt occurs when an abuser utilizes
11 coercive control or identity theft to incur debt in the 12 name of an individual.

13 (5) Coerced debt can occur via threat, force, or 14 fraud in the context of ongoing domestic abuse,
15 which can be physical, emotional, or financial.

16 (6) Coerced debt can subject a survivor to de-
17 stroyed credit, substantial payment expectations,
18 debt collection, and even bankruptcy.

19 (7) Addressing coerced debt requires a coordi-
20 nated approach across Federal, State, and local
21 agencies to ensure comprehensive support and pro-
22 tection for survivors.

23 (8) There is a need for an interagency task
24 force to develop and implement strategies to address
25 coerced debt and its impact on survivors.
