H. RES. 1091

Expressing support for designation of the week of February 28 through March 7, 2010, as “School Social Work Week”.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FEBRUARY 22, 2010

Mr. KENNEDY (for himself, Ms. BORDALLO, Mr. DAVIS of Illinois, Mr. EHLERS, Mr. GRIJALVA, Mr. GUTIERREZ, Mr. HINCHEY, Mr. LANGEVIN, Mr. LOEBSACK, Mr. MOORE of Kansas, Mr. RODRIGUEZ, Ms. LINDA T. SÁNCHEZ of California, Mr. YARMUTH, Mr. HARE, Mr. KISSELL, Ms. SCHWARTZ, Mr. MEEKS of New York, and Ms. MCCOLLUM) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor

RESOLUTION

Expressing support for designation of the week of February 28 through March 7, 2010, as “School Social Work Week”.

Whereas the importance of school social work through the inclusion of school social work programs has been recognized in the current authorizations of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965 (20 U.S.C. 6301 et seq.) and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (20 U.S.C. 1400 et seq.);

Whereas school social workers serve as vital members of a school’s educational team, playing a central role in creating a positive school climate and vital partnerships between the home, school, and community to ensure student academic success;

Whereas school social workers are especially skilled in providing services to students who face serious challenges to school success, including poverty, disability, discrimination, abuse, addiction, bullying, divorce of parents, loss of a loved one, and other barriers to learning;

Whereas there is a growing need for local educational agencies to offer the mental health services that school social workers provide when working with families, teachers, principals, community agencies, and other entities to address students' emotional, physical, and environmental needs so that students may achieve behavioral and academic success;

Whereas to achieve the goal of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001 (Public Law 107–110) of helping all children reach their optimal levels of potential and achievement, including children with serious emotional disturbances, schools must work to remove the emotional, behavioral, and academic barriers that interfere with student success in school;

Whereas fewer than 1 in 5 of the 17,500,000 children in need of mental health services actually receive these services, and research indicates that school mental health programs improve educational outcomes by decreasing absences, decreasing discipline referrals, and improving academic achievement;

Whereas school mental health programs are critical to early identification of mental health problems and in the provision of appropriate services when needed;

Whereas the national average ratio of students to school social workers recommended by the School Social Work Association of America is 400 to 1; and

Whereas the celebration and of “School Social Work Week” during the week of February 28 through March 7, 2010, highlights the vital role school social workers play in the lives of students in the United States: Now, therefore, be it
