RESOLUTION

Reaffirming the importance of the United States promoting the safety, health, and well-being of refugees and displaced persons in the United States and around the world.

Whereas June 20, 2024, is an international day designated by the United Nations as “World Refugee Day”, to recognize refugees around the globe and celebrate the strength and courage of people who have been forced to flee their homes to escape conflict or persecution due to their race, religion, nationality, political opinion, or membership in a particular social group;

Whereas July 28, 2024, is the 73d anniversary of the adoption of the Convention relating to the Status of Refugees, held at Geneva on July 28, 1951, which defines the term “refugee” and outlines the rights of refugees and the legal obligations of nation states to protect such rights;

Whereas, in 2024, the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (referred to in this resolution as “UNHCR”) reported that—

(1) there are more than 117,000,000 displaced people who have been forced from their homes worldwide, which is more displaced people than at any other time in recorded history, including more than 31,600,000 refugees, 6,900,000 asylum seekers, and 68,300,000 internally displaced persons;

(2) 75 percent of all refugees worldwide are hosted in low- and middle-income countries and fewer than 1 percent of refugees are ever resettled;

(3) 73 percent of the world’s refugees originate from 5 countries, namely Afghanistan, Syria, Venezuela, Ukraine, and Sudan;

(4) more than 50 percent of the population of Syria (approximately 13,800,000 people) have been internally or externally displaced since the beginning of the Syrian civil war in 2011;

(5) as of June 2024, 9,700,000 Ukrainians are displaced as a result of Russia's ongoing invasion of Ukraine, which includes 6,400,000 refugees and accounts for an estimated one-sixth of Ukraine's prewar population;

(6) there are an estimated 6,400,000 Afghan refugees around the world, of whom 90 percent are hosted in either Iran or Pakistan;

(7) Latin America and the Caribbean currently host 84 percent of the more than 7,000,000 Venezuelan refugees and migrants, and the Americas currently host approximately 20,000,000 refugees, asylum seekers, and stateless people from around the world;

(8) as of June 2024, more than 9,000,000 people are displaced due to the ongoing conflict in Sudan, including nearly 2,000,000 refugees who have fled to neighboring countries, many of whom are women or children;

(9) as of May 2024, more than 360,000 people were internally displaced in Haiti due to widespread violence in the country;

(10) between October 2023 and June 2024, approximately 75 percent of the population of Gaza (approximately 1,700,000 people) have been internally displaced due to the ongoing conflict;

(11) as of April 2024, there were approximately 6,800,000 internally displaced people in the Democratic Republic of the Congo as a result of violence between armed groups;

(12) as of May 2024, nearly 1,000,000 Rohingya refugees resided in Bangladesh, with thousands more displaced throughout the region, and an estimated 45,000 newly displaced Rohingya people fled to the border of Burma and Bangladesh in 2024 amidst renewed violence in Rakhine State, with the potential for increased refugee flows in the coming months as violence continues; and

(13) as of May 2024, in the Sahel region, which encompasses Burkina Faso, Mali, and Niger, nearly 4,800,000 people have been forced to flee their homes;

Whereas welcoming people from around the world who have been oppressed and persecuted is a tenet of the Nation, and the United States is home to a diverse population of refugees and immigrants who contribute to the economic strengths and cultural richness of our communities;

Whereas, since seeking asylum is a protected right under United States domestic and international law, the United States is legally obligated to contribute to the maintenance of a humane and functioning international asylum system;

Whereas the principle of non-refoulement is also a central tenet of the United States refugee and asylum systems, and thousands of people living in the United States who immigrated from countries around the world would be subject to harm if they were deported to their countries of origin due to widespread conflict or persecution in such countries;

Whereas the United States Refugee Admissions Program, which was established in 1980—

(1) is a lifesaving pillar of global humanitarian efforts;

(2) advances United States national security and foreign policy goals; and

(3) supports regional host countries;

Whereas resettlement is an essential part of a comprehensive strategy to respond to refugee crises, promote regional stability, and strengthen United States national security;

Whereas resettlement to the United States is available for the most vulnerable refugees who undergo rigorous security vetting and medical screening processes;

Whereas the United States supports the efforts of the UNHCR to increase protection for, and the global resettlement of, LGBTQI+ refugees overseas;

Whereas women and girls have an increased risk of sexual violence, exploitation, and trafficking while they are traveling to seek safe living conditions;

Whereas through the United States Refugee Admissions Program—

(1) the number of refugees who have arrived in the United States increased from only 11,411 during fiscal year 2021 to 60,014 during fiscal year 2023;

(2) as of May 31, 2024, more than 60,000 refugees had arrived in the United States during fiscal year 2024; and

(3) the Biden administration continues to actively pursue its stated goal of 125,000 refugee admissions during fiscal year 2024;

Whereas refugee resettlement organizations, businesses, and other community and faith-based groups offer support for refugees who resettle in the United States, and groups of private citizens are now supporting newly arrived refugees through Welcome Corps, the refugee sponsorship initiative under the United States Refugee Admissions Program;

Whereas, between 2005 and 2019, refugees and asylees in the United States contributed an estimated $581,000,000,000 in total revenue across all levels of government;

Whereas robust funding for international and domestic protection and assistance for refugees and other displaced populations bolsters United States national security, foreign policy, economic, and humanitarian interests; and

Whereas most refugees integrate and quickly become self-sufficient members of their respective communities by joining the workforce, paying taxes, supporting local commerce, helping to address labor demand in critical industries, and creating new jobs: Now, therefore, be it

11 (3) recognizes the many individuals who have

14 national agencies, such as the United Nations High
15 Commissioner for Refugees, to provide lifesaving as-

1 sistance and protection for people around the world
2 who have been displaced from their homes;

3 (4) reaffirms the imperative to fully restore
4 United States asylum protections enshrined in the 5 Refugee Act of 1980 (Public Law 96–212) by reject-
6 ing harmful bans and restrictions that limit refu-
7 gees’ access to protections and due process at the 8 United States border;

9 (5) reaffirms the importance of the United
10 States Refugee Admissions Program as a critical
11 tool of the United States Government—

25 endure gender-based violence, torture, human

1 trafficking, persecution, and violence against re-
2 ligious minorities, forced conscription, genocide,
3 and exploitation;

14 origin, race, ethnicity, or religious beliefs;

15 (D) to continue to alleviate pressures,
16 through humanitarian and development assist-
17 ance, on frontline refugee host countries that 18 absorb the majority of the world's refugees,
19 while effectively advocating for refugee well-
20 being, including access to education and liveli-
21 hoods;

22 (E) to meaningfully include refugees and
23 displaced populations in creating and achieving
24 the policy solutions affecting them;

4 pledges made at the Global Refugee Forum
5 held in Geneva in December 2023 to expand
6 refugee protection;

9 structure and the availability of disability-re-
10 lated services and social protection schemes;
11 and

12 (I) to reaffirm the goals of “World Ref-
13 ugee Day” and reiterate the United States
