

113TH CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. RES. 334

Condemning the attack that occurred at the Oak Creek Sikh Gurdwara on August 5, 2012, and honoring the memory of those who died in the attack.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

AUGUST 2, 2013

Mr. VALADAO (for himself, Ms. CHU, Mr. RYAN of Wisconsin, Mr. GRJALVA, Mr. COSTA, Ms. MATSUI, Mr. HONDA, Ms. LEE of California, Mr. MCNERNEY, Mr. CONYERS, Mr. HOLT, Ms. LOFGREN, Mr. NUNES, Mr. LAMALFA, Mr. KIND, Mr. RIBBLE, Mr. GARAMENDI, Ms. ROSLEHTINEN, Mr. BERA of California, Ms. SCHAKOWSKY, Mr. VAN HOLLEN, Mr. PETRI, Mr. TAKANO, and Mr. SENSENBRENNER) submitted the following resolution; which was referred to the Committee on Oversight and Government Reform

RESOLUTION

Condemning the attack that occurred at the Oak Creek Sikh Gurdwara on August 5, 2012, and honoring the memory of those who died in the attack.

Whereas on Sunday, August 5, 2012, a mass shooting took place, fueled by intolerance, killing 6 worshipers at the Sikh Temple of Wisconsin, a Gurdwara, in Oak Creek, Wisconsin;

Whereas the attack occurred as members of the congregation prepared langar, a free community meal served to all visitors to Gurdwaras, regardless of their race, religion, sex, or social background;

Whereas 4 individuals were injured including a responding officer, Lieutenant Brian Murphy, who was shot 15 times at close range;

Whereas Lieutenant Brian Murphy and all the first responders to the Oak Creek Gurdwara demonstrated great courage in their quick response to the shooting, ultimately saving lives;

Whereas in the United States, Sikhs have endured high levels of stereotyping, bullying, and violence, all of which rose dramatically in the wake of the attacks of September 11, 2001;

Whereas the Associated Press reported that more than 700 such incidents of intolerance targeting Sikhs took place over the last decade;

Whereas the Oak Creek shooting was one of the most lethal attacks on a place of worship in the United States since the 1963 bombing of the 16th Street Baptist Church and another sad example of violence and intolerance against Sikhs;

Whereas the Sikh community responded to the shooting in Oak Creek with compassion and stayed true to the Sikh principle of Chardi Kala, remaining in high spirits;

Whereas although the effects of this shooting will be felt for years to come, the Oak Creek community will continue to overcome the tragedy and become stronger than before with a renewed sense of oneness, understanding, and cooperation; and

Whereas the August 5, 2012, shooting was not just a Sikh tragedy, but an American tragedy: Now, therefore, be it
